

ABOUT C. OF L. commodities
it behooves look for full article.

YING SPECIFY
Y'S is beyond besides this generously

for short-count are many on sition by al-re, asking for

MFORTS
Y NEEDED
Official Makes
ports HAUSTING
rk in Canada Immediately
sed

Cross Circle of the ub of All Saints Stearns-Hicks of reels are asked to as possible the the Cross supplies inning of the war in England been so amount of supplies than the amount at our reserve will be removed to the ceased. In place of supplies to the hosbeen done other-last month was cut per day. It means little hospitals
It simply means of soldiers who cessities of which ed.

must be "Supplies."
There are 2,000,000 ditionary Forces which are the great perils, which will of articles needed for socks.

and how far reach-work is. The regi-
where the soldiers trips, check the
from the Red reticular work they pay day. The
to the Canadian army. Socks and dressing a soldier
selves are needed,
nurses' aprons,
red-socks and per-workers have done the past. We know them to know you all to broaden wing. In your own who have not yet
to, and bring them in this way, to include the supply of which are the great-need to give to so significantly.

HAVE A PUB-ICATORY.
are many in the idea of creat-
is to health and with the writers object of creat-

a new and into make a com-
to be creative?

free west.

PER MILLS
thave 250,000
The Pudding
have only into the end of
of support of
to be produced.

ERIAL OUT

THE WEATHER

Observatory, Toronto, Feb. 12-4 p.m.) The weather has been fair and very cold today from the Great Lakes to the Atlantic Province, while in Manitoba and Saskatchewan the temperature has been higher than for several days past.
Minimum and maximum temperatures:
Dawson, 16 below; Prince Rupert, 24-40; Kamloops, 35-38; Calgary, 53-42; Edmonton, 14-28; Medicine Hat, 6-32; Moose-Jaw, 3 below; Regina, 12 below; Winnipeg, 8 below; Port Arthur, 12 below; Toronto, 12 below; Port Nelson, 6 below;
St. John's, 12 below; London, 18 below; Ottawa, 24 below; Kingston, 18 below; Montreal, 12 below; Quebec, 14 below;
St. John, 5 below; Halifax, 2-12.

Lower Lakes and Georgian Bay—Southerly winds; some light local snow, but mostly with high temperatures.
Ottawa and St. Lawrence Valley—Generally fair with rising temperatures.
Ontario and North Shore—Tendency to strong northwest and southwest winds; generally fair and cold.
Maritime—Moderate to fresh northwest and west winds; fair and cold.

THE BAROMETER.

Time.	Bar.	Wind.
8 a.m.	10 below	30-40
Noon	2 below	12-14
2 p.m.	2 below	30-32
4 p.m.	2 below	12-14
6 p.m.	0	10-12
8 p.m.	0	10-12
Average, 25 below; highest, 5; lowest, 11 below.

STEAMER ARRIVALS.

Feb. 12.	At	From
10 a.m.	New York	London
11 a.m.	New York	Liverpool
11 a.m.	New York	Paris

STREET CAR DELAYS

Monday, Feb. 12, 1917.
Bathurst cars, both ways, delayed 7 minutes at 1:20 p.m. at Front and John, by train.
Harbord cars, both ways,
delayed 6 minutes at 9:15 p.m.
at Front and John, by train.
Harbord cars, both ways, delayed 5 minutes at 10:15 p.m. between Bay and York on Adelaide, by fire.

DEATHS.

BLAKEY—Corporal Frederick James Blakey, in his 21st year, only and dearly beloved son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blakey of 38 Summerhill avenue, Toronto, and late of 38 Summerhill avenue, died from wounds received in an automobile accident at Folkestone, England, on Dec. 27, 1916.

Military funeral and service will take place from his parents' residence Wednesday afternoon, Feb. 14, 1917, at 10 o'clock. Interment in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery.

KENNIN—On Friday, Feb. 9, 1917, at 650 Church street, Toronto, Frank Nichols Kennin of Oakdale Hall, bar-riste-at-law, dearly beloved husband of Alice Sibyl Kennin, and nephew of the late Robert Nichols, Esq., of Peterborough, Ont.

Funeral private. Interment on Tuesday morning in Little Lake Cemetery, Peterborough, Ont.

MORTIMER—On Sunday morning, Feb.
11, 1917, at his residence, 124 Crescent road, Charles Herbert, beloved husband of Sadie E. Mortimer.

Funeral service, at 2:30, to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. (Motor.) In kindness of Mrs. Mortimer.

GREAT RUSSIAN DANCER

DISPLAYS ART AT SHEA'S Vaudeville Lovers Treated to Artistic Entertainment—Other Acts Are Good.

That well-known exponent of classical dancing, Theodore Kosloff, the premier danseur of the Imperial Theatre of Moscow and Petrograd, assisted by Mlle. Vianna Maslova and the imperial Russian ballet, gives a vaudeville display of such well-known composers as Grieg, Debussy, Brahms, Glinka and Tchaikowsky, at Shea's this week. All the emotions of the display are given in the dance, that of "Spring" by Vera Fiedova gives a finished performance. Kitz, Russell and Davis have a comedy skit, "Waiters," which is a good advantage. Frank Shields, "The Western Novelty," shows many new stunts in rope spinning, while Mlle. Allen, in a vaudeville comedy, offers something decidedly new. Vianna Maslova, the eccentric genius of the violin and the piano, proves he is a thorough master of both instruments and plays both instruments at the same time, no easy task. A real circus turn is that of Bradna and Derrick, who, despite the vaudeville character of their act, give an exhibition of horsemanship. The Kaufman Brothers come out with some smart patter and some original jokes.
The Russian dancers (British Gazette) completes a bill that is away above the average.

Body of Canadian Soldier

Is Brought Home for Burial Corp. F. J. Blakey Died as Result of Motor Car Accident

The body of Corp. Frederick James Blakey, who was killed in an automobile accident at Folkestone, England, in December, arrived at his parents' residence, 38 Summerhill avenue, on Sunday night, and will be buried with full military honors in Mount Pleasant Cemetery tomorrow afternoon.
On Christmas Day, while walking with a soldier friend on the outskirts of Folkestone, Corp. Blakey stopped to speak to some children at the door of a house. Suddenly and without warning a motorcar swung round a bend in the road and crashed into the party. One of the men in the car instantly and fatally injuring Corp.
Blakey. The wheels of the car passed over the Toronto boy's right side, crushing his ribs and his head and causing a hemorrhage which resulted in his death on Dec. 27.

He was buried with full military honors in the Folkestone Cemetery, but at the request of the family, the body was exhumed and brought to Canada on the S.S. Carpathia.

The late Corp. Blakey, who was only 21 years of age, was a member of the Queen's Own when the war broke out. He spent for overseas service, but was rejected. Later he was accepted in a clerical capacity and went to England last August with the 5th Battalion of the Queen's Own. He was killed by the motorcar on Christmas day at Folkestone.

WILL ERECT HONOR ROLL

At the regular business meeting of St.
George's Hall last evening, presided over by Commander Sir Knight, B. G. Pollock, it was decided to obtain an honor roll to be erected in the lobby room containing the names of 35 members now overseas.

Harpur, Victoria, Bicker, 39 West Wellington st., corner Bay st.

: SOCIETY :

Conducted by Mrs. Edmund Phillips

Their Excellencies the Duke and Duchess of Devonshire and the Ladies Maud and Blanche Cavendish, Colonel the Hon. Henderson and his excellency's staff will arrive from Ottawa on Wednesday, Feb. 21, inst., and will be the guests of his honor the Lieut.- Gov. and Lady Hendrie for a few days.

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario will open the third session of the 14th parliament this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Ladies on the floor of the house will wear evening dress.

Gen. Sir Sam Hughes came up from London yesterday afternoon, en route to Ottawa, purposely to see the Canadian war pictures at the Regent Theatre. He goes to Boston to speak to the Canadian Club on Feb. 19.

Mrs. George Richardson and her daughter, Miss Florence Richardson, have arrived from Vancouver to join Mr. Richardson, and are staying with Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Richardson, Walmer road, until they move into their house.

The medical men are giving Col.
Herbert Bruce a dinner at the King Edward on Wednesday night, when Dr. Adam Wright will be in the chair.

Among those at the Regent last night to see the Canadians in action and the pictures of the battle of Courcette and the tanks in action were: Lady Hendrie, Mrs. Hendrie (Hamilton), Mrs. Allan Case, Col. Fraser, Miss Fraser, Mrs. Hearst, Mr. Hearst, Dr. and Mrs. Norman Allen, Col. Le-vesconte, Col. H. C. Osborne, Col.
Bickford, Col. and Mrs. Gooderham, Mrs. W. R. George, Dr. and Mrs.
Charles Sheldrake, Mr. Macdonald, C.E.P., Mrs. L. Touzel, Mrs. Bruce, Mr. Claud Macdonald, M.P., Miss Macdonald, Mrs. Jameson, Col. and Mrs. J. B. Maclean, Mr. and Mrs.
Harley Dewar.

Mrs. H. H. Beach, the composer, is in town and is the guest of Col. and Mrs. A. E. Gooderham.

Mrs. Charles Kingsmill, Ottawa, is sponsoring a short time in Lennoxville, Quebec.

Miss Patti Richardson is giving a small valentine party on Wednesday afternoon and high tea in honor of her young cousin, Miss Florence Richardson.

The patronesses of the Sir George Gibson Chapter, I.O.O.F., dance in Columbus Hall on Wednesday night, will be: Mrs. R. S. Wilson, Mrs. J. B.
Ritchies, Mrs. J. B. Burk, Mrs. A. L.
Young, Mrs. Stanley Bennett, and Mrs. A. E. Gooderham, jr., the regent of the chapter.

Sir William Mackenzie spent a few days in New York last week.

Mrs. Alexander Henry, the Manhattan, gave a small tea yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Hyman from Bellevue.

The Ward's Island Association held a reunion on Friday night in Forest Hall, when there were 250 present.
Cards were played the first part of the evening, and then a dance brought a very successful evening to a close.

The Misses Montzambert gave a tea in Ottawa last week in honor of Mrs.
Jack Ogilvie, Calgary.

Mrs. B. L. Baker and her daughters are spending the winter in Florida and expect to be away until May.

The Base Hospital Auxiliary held a very successful sale of home-made cooking on Saturday when a goodly number were raised to help provide comforts and necessities for the soldiers in the Base Hospital, Gerrard street.

Mrs. Warrington gave a bridge party of two tables on Monday, when she entertained the Bridge Club.

Montreal Has Good Start

In Patriotic Fund Crusade

Montreal, Feb. 12.—The first day's total in the patriotic fund campaign was $1,633,876. The board of control voted $1,000,000 to the patriotic fund at a meeting this morning. The patriotic fund committee is raising $2,500,- 000 for the fund this year.

The $1,000,000 to be donated by the city, if the city council approves the plan, will be extra to the figure set by the patriotic fund organization.

CAWTHORPE IS EXPELLED.

Calgary, Feb. 12.—C. W. Cawthorpe, member for Hagar, was formally expelled from the provincial house this afternoon, upon motion of Premier Martin.

FATS DIRT
CLEANS AND DISINFECTS

GILLET'S
LIFE

MADE IN CANADA

SOME OF ITS USES:
For making soap.
For washing dishes.
For cleaning and disinfecting refrigerators.
For removing ordinary obstructions from drain pipes and sinks.
REFUSE SUBSTITUTES

GILLET'S COMPANY LIMITED
WINNIPEG TORONTO MONTREAL

PLAYS, PICTURES AND MUSIC

"BETTY" PROVES GREAT SUCCESS

Inimitable Hitchcock Has Best Vehicle Since "Yankee Consul."

OF ENGLISH ORIGIN

Singing, Dancing, Costumes and Scenery of High Order.

Raymond Hitchcock appeared last night at the Regent Theatre in the best vehicle he has had since the "Yankee Consul," with the result of brilliant success in every respect. A highly varied musical comedy. As long as Hitchcock is a success it would be difficult for the rest of the world, but singing, dancing, costume, dialog, scenery, the whole body ensemble, so to speak, are up to the mark. The story is a highly attractive and prettified and best dressed that has appeared in the city for some time, and there is a highly attractive English element and flavor in the company which adds spice to the general novelty. The piece is of English origin, the book being by Gladys Unger and Frederick Conroy. There are two dozen characters named on the program, but only a brief mention of the plot, which concerns the prodigal son (Gerald, Earl of Beverly, as he is called, the heir to the fortune of the Duke of Cromwell). These parts are filled by Joseph Bentley and Will. Eadie. A soubrette, Lord D'Arville, gives little Hitchcock his part. His nephew, David Payne, is a clever boy part by Arthur Goetz. A young Englishman, Lord Achille Jotie, a dresmaker, by George Moore, Dore, Countess of Payne (Peggy Dore), a young Englishman, Lord D'Arville, gives little Hitchcock his part.
The Duke's wife, Mrs. Dore, is played by Betty (Ivy Sawyer) and her husband the Duke, by Lord D'Arville. The Duke is a young man who is in love with Betty, but she is in love with the Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is a means of insulting his grand father, the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord D'Arville, is a young man who is in love with Betty, but she is in love with the Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord
D'Arville, is a young man who is in love
with Betty, but she is in love with the
Duke's son, Lord D'Arville. The Duke is
a means of insulting his grand father,
the Duke of Cromwell, who is a very
stingy old man. The Duke's son, Lord D'Arville, is a young