HANDSOME DONATION

Big Surprise for Army Medical Corps-Thirty-Four Recruits.

The Army Medical Corps at the Exbition Camp Hospital held a little farewell supper and concert last night for the men who are going overseas as a draft in the very near future. During the course of the evening Lieut. Col. Richardson, the patron of the evening, received a great surprise when Sergt.-Major Elliott presented him with a cheque for $1000 from the proceeds of the canteen to be spent by the colonel on the Military Base Hospital in any way he sees fit,

This handsome gift, showing as it did the in terest the corps takes in its splendid work was accompanied by a short speech from the Sergt.-Major. Lieut.-Col. Richardson was so surprised and pleased that it was with extreme difficulty that he was able to find words with which to thank the men or their handsome and practical dona-

The splendid concert was provided talent from the nursing sisters, the officers and men of the corps, which contains several well-known artists. Fourteen patients were sent down to the hospital last night from Camp Borden and were taken in at Exhibition camp. None of the cases

Deeply impressive was the service held in St. Paul's Church, Bloor street, last night, in memory of the late Major-General Malcolm Smith Mercer, C.B., who while in command of the Third Canadian Division, was killed in action on June 2, near Zillebeke, in I landers.

The Queen's Own Regiment, of which the late General Mercer was the commanding officer, paraded from the armories nearly 1000 strong, under the command of Lieut.-Col. Sydney W. Band, via University avenue, College, Yonge and Bloor streets, to the church, led by the brass and bugle bands.

The regiment filed into the church, filling the seats on both sides of the central aisle. The band was placed near the choir and the seats on both sides of the church were reserved unsides of the church were reserved unserved under him in the Third Division of the C. E. Instant Relief for

Heartburn and Windy Spasms

The efficacy of Dr. Cassell's Instant Relief in these complaints will be a revelation to those who have hitherto trusted to bismuth or soda mixtures, or to old-fashioned liver pills salts. The trouble is due to gas in the stomach or bowels arising from undigested food, and the natural remedy is to restore the organs to healthy action. Dr. Cassell's Instant Relief does that quickly, surely, and so it effects real cure where the old purgative preparations only weaken the system, and create the pill-taking or salts-taking habit.
