PARLIAMENT OF WOMEN PROPOSED

Will Bombard Government With Night Lettergrams For Suppression of the White Slave Traffic.

MONTREAL, Que., May 3.—(Special)—This may be called Education Day with the National Council. This morning has been taken up with the things that most nearly concern the lives of our children and the youth of the land.

A report embodying the results of the investigation carried on by the local councils throughout Canada was read by Mrs. Ritchie, Ph.D. The chief points brought out in the paper were that women do not receive equal pay for equal work, and that a necessity exists for the development of public sentiment in the matter of attendance at rural schools. The appointment of women on school boards will be worked for by the councils.

Domestic science has received quite an impetus during the past year. Vancouver, Halifax and Toronto have done much in this direction. The Council of Toronto wishes to use the city schools as settlement centres.

Supervised Playgrounds. Miss Mabel Peters read the report of the standing committee on supervised playgrounds. This is another movement that has developed in a most encouraging way. It was pointed out that influential men and women everywhere are realizing the necessity for these places for our cities. The paper stated that one playground association had one archbishop and a provost on its board. In another instance, referred to Toronto, which has his Grace Archbishop McNeil and Provost Macklem on its executive. Three councils have expressed their desire to take up the subject.

The National Council has asked the provincial governments to create a department in connection with the normal schools for the pedagogical training of instructors for the playgrounds.

As convener of the committee Miss Peters had visited St. John, Ottawa, Toronto, Hamilton and Walkerville. Toronto hopes to have 25 playgrounds this year, seven new ones amongst them. This year Toronto also intends to ask for $29,000 for the works of the playgrounds.

Mrs. Willoughby Cummings paid tribute to Miss Hill, the first woman to collect funds for the playgrounds. Miss Hill collected the first $200 that went toward the cause. A motion to ask for medical inspection of rural schools was unanimously carried.

Parliament of Women. Another resolution which was carried with the sweep of a whirlwind was that of Mrs. Aea Gordon, that the National Council establish a parliament of women, representing 125,000 of their sisterhood, to bombard the present session of the federal parliament thru means of letters sent by every member of the council and thru night telegrams to members of parliament and the prime minister, to ask for immediate measures for the suppression of the white slave traffic.

The motion of the Kingston Council for the adoption of night schools in rural districts was carried. Mrs. Leathes was of the opinion that vocational training would be the better substitute, and Mrs. Courties thought that the work of the social centres might cover the situation. The resolution that an effort be made to secure women on school boards, moved by Mrs. Courties of Toronto and seconded by Miss Ritchie, Halifax, was unanimously carried.

CRAZY ITALIAN ON THE RAMPAGE

Told Man and Daughter to Prepare For Execution—They Fled.

MONTREAL, May 3.—(Special)—Anglo Russo and his daughter Angeline made a record run from their home in Ville Emarad to the police station today. Raphaelo Damato told them that their graves were ahead ready for them; then he took off his coat apparently preparing to begin their execution.

Not caring for the looks of things, Russo and his daughter beat it a pace that would make Longboat turn green with envy.

A police officer went up and arrested the Italian and landed him in the cells. The magistrate bound him over to keep the peace, so that the execution of the father and daughter is indefinitely postponed.

ADVERSE CRITICISM UNNERVES FRIEDMANN

OTTAWA, May 3.—Adverse criticism of Dr. Friedmann, from Montreal, Toronto and Ottawa physicians yesterday, left the German physician in a somewhat nervous and excited condition this morning and he did not appear to be feeling up to the mark when his second clinic at Water Street Hospital began at 11:30. Only eight cases were treated this forenoon.

Three Months For Socialist "Suff."

George Lansbury Declined to Find Security For His Good Behavior.

LONDON, May 3.—George Lansbury, former socialist member of parliament and at present a militant suffragist, was bound over today at Bow street police court in the sum of $10,000 to keep the peace for a year when he was brought up on a charge based on a statute of Edward III of inciting to crime and misdemeanor. He declined to find sureties for his behaviour and the magistrate pronounced a sentence of three months' imprisonment.

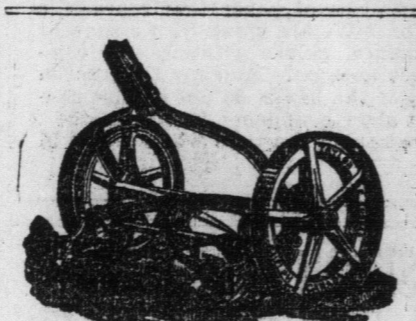

Lansbury consulted some friends and then told the magistrate he would like time to consider the question of an appeal and the magistrate consented that he should be on bail of $10,000, which was forthcoming.

In the course of the hearing Lansbury had declared that he was being prosecuted by the government because he was opposed to it and he protested against being treated differently from Sir Edward Carson and other privy councillors, who, he said, should have been prosecuted for their incendiary anti-home rule speeches in Ulster.

IT IS FINISHED.

At least it will be after tomorrow, Monday, May 6, the business book entitled "100 Lessons in Business," will be withdrawn and the opportunity to secure this 20th century educator will have passed.

The product of one who may be termed a wizard on business system. Seymour Eaton, the author, has an aptitude for working out intricate mathematical problems in their relation to everyday business methods. His latest book contains his wonderful short-cut in figures, which received the commendation of such business giants as John Rockefeller, Andrew Carnegie, the late J. P. Morgan, and others. This book, placed in the hand of a business student, either girl or boy, will assist materially in their advancement. It is not claimed for this book that it will make the dull-witted bright or the usually intelligent youth or maiden a business phenomenon, but it will materially assist them in necessary fundamentals of a business education. The World believes that this book should be in the hands of every aspiring Canadian boy and girl. It is now too late to secure the 12 consecutively dated coupons from The Daily World; we will tomorrow accept the single coupon, which appears elsewhere in this issue, if presented or mailed to this office, together with 77c before tomorrow midnight.

IMPROVEMENT IN LABOR SITUATION

Possibility of Settling Strikes Before Conditions Become Serious Is Looked For.

There is very little to indicate a relief in the strike crisis in the immediate future, the according to latest reports it would appear as if the situation is not quite so serious as it was a day or two ago.

The men of various trades are still fighting for increase of wages, and unless these stipulations are acceded to there is every prospect of the industrial manufacturers suffering acutely. Manufacturers are already feeling the embarrassment over the cessation of work of the cabinet makers. Tom Moore, the general organizer of the Cabinet Makers' Union, has stated that they are going to continue their hold-out until every cabinet maker is organized. Negotiations are at present in progress with several cabinet making firms in the city whose employes are still laboring, and if a satisfactory agreement is not arrived at by Monday a further 150 men will form in line with the band of cabinet making strikers.

Consequent upon the striking of the structural iron workers the business of leading bridge firms is locked. Something like 300 men have laid down their tools, and the only key that can unlock the situation is the granting of the men's demands by the employers. There is, however, a chance for a possible settlement being reached, and while the men evinced a fixed determination to stick out for a ten cent per hour increase, several of the leaders strongly urge the men to agree to an increase of five cents per hour. The strikers are awaiting a proposition from the firms affected for consideration, and until this arrives no definite statement can be made as to what the men will do.

Pope Continues to Show Improvement

Devotes Several Hours Daily to His Work—Dr. Amici Appointed Private Physician.

ROME, May 3.—Pope Pius X. continues to progress in the recovery of his health. Every day he descends to his library and devotes several hours to his work.

It is learned that one of his first acts after he became convalescent was to appoint Dr. Andrea Amici his own private physician. Altho Dr. Amici is not the official Vatican physician, he shared with Prof. Ettore Marchisava the responsibilities of caring for the pontiff during his recent illness.

His holiness expressed the warmest desire today to receive Cardinal Ferrata, who had just returned from Malta, and to hear from him every thing concerning the eucharistic congress, which has just been held there.

SUNDAY, MAY 4

THAT CENT

Supposing I had joined the coterie of bakeries in raising the price of bread a cent, my profits would have instantly gone up $120.00 a day, $720.00 a week, and $37,540.00 a year—and without laying out an extra nickel. But I didn't. My bread has and always will be made and sold on honor.

That extra cent means that the families who are not using Lawrence's Bread are giving, in hard cash, over a QUARTER OF A MILLION DOLLARS A YEAR FOR NOTHING to the bakeries who now demand 6 cents for their bread. That extra cent is a "hold-up"—to swell profits and give nothing for it.

Of course people pay it because they have been led to believe that it is necessary. That's the point and there's the delusion. A trial loaf of Lawrence's Bread settles that delusion forever. Lawrence's Bread is the better bread and you like it better. There's no deceiving your taste, and, after all, if you get bread that you like better and save paying an excess cent on each loaf —isn't it worth your while to do so? Take action to-day and henceforth pay only
