It is not long since Sir Thomas Shanghnessy returned from England, and Shanghnessy returned from England, and we know that he was in conference with the government there on the project, and we know what he told them. So far as we can see, Sir Thomas's and Sir Wilfrid's ideas as to speed seem to correspond very well. Now, can it be possible that it is being arranged that the All Red service will be performed by the C. P. R. with 21-knot steamers on the Atlantic and 18-knot steamers on the Atlantic and 18-knot steamers on the Pacific. Is this what we will be asked to vote on in the near future? The re-opening of the negotiations referred to seems to lend a little color to the idea. Now, so far as Halifax is concerned, this will be only fairly satisfactory. Halifax wants the fairly satisfactory. Halifax wants the fastest service possible, and will not be wholly satisfied if it falls short of 25 knots. Of course it would be a very ma-

WOMEN IN CAGES

Shocking Conditions Reported in a Shanghai Refuge.

ful sensation has been caused among the foreign community this week by the exforeign community this week by the exposure of the conditions prevailing in a native 'charitable' institution known as the Sinza Refuge. For some years past it has been the custom to send native women involved in domestic disputes to this refuge for detention, but attention was not attracted to what went on within its walls until a case came to light in which a woman had been illegally imprisoned there for upwards of seven years. The writer then paid a surprise visit to the refuge in company with a member of the municipal police force. I found that no fewer than eighty-one women were locked up there, most of whom had no idea how long they would remain, while some had entirely lost count of time, and were unable to say how long they had been detained. From statements made by the inmates, however, it was clear that some of the women had been imprisoned there for six years. They all described the food as disgrace ful.

They all described the food as disgrace ful.

In the lunatic quarters, which I happened to enter by accident, I saw a sight I shall never forget. Two small dark rooms fronted on a narrow courtyard. In the first room there were two wooden cages, but so dense was the gloom that for some minutes I believed that they were empty. When my eyes got accustomed to the light, however, I saw that a woman was curled up on the floor of each—their narrow limits did not permit the occupants to extend their lumbs to the full. The second chamber contained four cages, but what attracted my attention immediately I entered was an object on the floor. There, chained round the neck like a dog, and absolutely destitute of clothing, was a Chinese woman. Her body was covered with dirt, and the chain, which was fastened to the bars of a cage behind, prevented her from lying or standing, or moving more than a few inches in either direction. Even these were not the most repulsive sights I saw. The Sinza Refuge, in which I witnessed these indescrible horrors, is well within the boundarie of the foreign settlement, and not a hullered yards from tramways, are lamps, and others marks of western civilization. For how many years these horrors have gone on unchecked will probably never be known, but it is quite certain that now the mismanagement of horrors have gone on unchecked will probably never be known, but it is quite certain that now the mismanagement of the place has been exposed, the foreign ratepayers will not tolerate such a state of affairs any longer.
