

After the scrutineers had reported the above result, there was some discussion among the members who had remained as to a re-arrangement of the cups offered in the Prize List, and as to making efforts to secure a ladies' prize.

The matters touched upon were all referred for further consideration to the Council.

On, motion, the meeting adjourned.