The Gaffer and Rainy Days
The golfer tumbled from his bed
And viewed the rain clouds overhead.
"Oce, white," said he, "a gloomy day
And I shall get no chance to play!
There is no need to hurry down Into the worries of the town,
I've got no real excuse to shirk,
On days like this I'll stick to work."

"I'll do the things that I've put off For weeks to get my game of golf;
I'll answer letters long delayed
And see that all my bills are paid, I'll clear the desk of everything That I've neglected all this spring,
And there's one task that I must do, I'll go and have my hair cut, too."

"He used to say he loved the ground he walked on."
"Now?"
"Since her father bought a limousine she'd be insulted if he even dared to hint that she ever walked."

RECENT DEATHS

Mrs. Janet McLean of Rexton died yesterday at her home. She was eighty-four years old.
The death of Mrs. Christina Macdonald of Silliker, occurred at her home on Sunday. She was ninety-one years old.

Mrs. William Clarke, of Stillwater died on June 30. Her husband formerly belonged to Upper Nelson, N.B.
POLICE COURT CASES.
In the police court yesterday afternoon
Mary Waters was sent to the Good Shepherd Home for nine months. She was arrested on the charge of vagrancy.
Some evidence was taken in the cases of John Hayes and Edward Baker charged with supplying liquor. Both were remanded. Leah Johnson, a nineteen-year-old Fredericton girl, charged with vagrancy and later with the theft of a suit valued at $15, the property of Miss Ingleton was also examined. The Johnson girl has been in the city a little more than a month. She was employed by J.
Eldon Wilson, of the Sanitary Steam Pressing Company of 120 Charlotte street, to press suits. A suit was left by Miss Ingleton, who lives on Broad street, to be cleaned and pressed, and Miss Johnson is charged with the theft of this. She left her place of employment two days after the suit was missed. E.
J. Heneberry appeared for the defendant. The accused was remanded.
