mer he has been a student at the summer school in Queen's University in Kingston, Ont.

With several other New Brunswick students, Mr. Marr has just returned from Queen's University. Others from this province who have been attending the Queen's University summer school and who have returned to their homes are: F. Klerstead, principal of the Hampton Consolidated School; S. Robinson, of Kingston, N. B.; S. S. Nason, A. B. Brook and E. J. Alexander, of the St. John High School, and Mrs. E. J. Alexander. There were 425 students taking the various courses in the summer school and the majority were teachers. Every province in the Dominion was represented and the sessions were greatly enjoyed.

Mr. Nason, who has been teaching in the St. John High School for two years, has also received an important appointment, having accepted a position on the High School staff in Montreal.

been very close in most of the examination results, but Miss Steeves managed to get a few points ahead and was the leader of this year's graduating class from the High School. Last year the Emma Fiske Memorial prize was won by Miss Harriet Roberts, whose mark of seventy-nine out of a possible eighty was considered extremely good. To have two pupils make perfect marks is most unusual. The pupils who came next in order in the French examination results also made very high marks and three were tied for third place. The second place was won by Miss Marie Clare Broderick with seventy-seven marks and those in third place with seventy-six marks were Miss Catherine Crilley, Miss Ethel Holtzman and Miss Dorothy M. The Parker silver medal for mathematics last year was won by Miss Lillian Clarke. Francis Lingley is an easy first this year, having 214 marks out of a possible 250. Those next in order are as follows: Second place, Miss DeVitta P. Smith, 198 marks; third, Miss A. Bernice Sommerville, 197 marks, and fourth, Miss Mary Catherine Crilley with 196 marks. Miss Crilley is the winner of the St. Vincent's Alumnae gold medal.

Francis Lingley, who is seventeen years old, is a member of a clever family. His sister, Miss Greta A. Lingley, won the Governor-General's silver medal in grade ten in 1918 and the Parker silver medal for mathematics
