CAUSE TO CURE
A CAUSE MUST BE ADJUSTED, MADE
RIGHT

CHIROPRACTIC is based on fundamental, natural laws. The organs of the body are the motors, the nerves are power lines, the muscles carry the energy or life to all parts of the body. Impingement or pinching of the nerves interferes with their life-carrying power and disease is the result. The Chiropractor adjusts with his hands the misaligned vertebrae and the impinged nerves are freed. The flow of life enters the part diseased, normal functions are resumed and health restored. The Chiropractic way is Nature's way.

In Yokohama harbor that might have illustrated a canto from Dante's Inferno. Passengers arriving in Shanghai on the Empress of Canada are describing the plight of the other liner.

A few hours after the first great earthquake the Yokohama waterfront was a huge torch. Flaming oil and burning sampans had made the harbor a Dantean sea of fire. The steamship, hovering perilously close to the wharves, her officers ashore rescuing foreigners, was surrounded by a narrowing circle of fire that seemed about to engulf her.

Ottawa, Journal, Monday: His Excellency the Governor-General, Baron Byng of Vimy, is in Ottawa today. He is accompanied by Mrs. Byng and their two children. The Governor-General of Canada in 1921 and was already well known to a host of Canadians, who had the honor of serving under him when in command of the Canadian Corps on the Western Front. His term of office has been most successful, and both Baron Byng and Her Excellency have endeavored themselves to the Canadian people.

Fred Jonah of Sackville has been appointed professor of mathematics for one year at Acadia University, in succession to Dr. Coit, who has resigned. Mr. Jonah graduated last year from Mount Allison with honors in mathematics. He was one of the first to enlist for overseas at the outbreak of the Great War and went through four years of active service at the front. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Jonah of Sackville.

Woodstock Press: John McMurray returned to his home in St. John after spending several weeks here very pleasantly. Mrs. J. D. MacNeil, who has spent the last month visiting in St. John and Halifax, returned last week to Woodstock, where she will be the guest of her daughters, Mrs. H. M. Bridge and Mrs. F. M. Brock during the winter.

Witt, the Yankee center fielder. Howard Shanks, the Boston third baseman, was the victim of the crooked hop. But for that Ehmke would have accomplished a feat never before recorded in the credit of any pitcher in baseball history.

Cy Williams' homers came in the seventh and eighth innings and increased his home run record for the season to 37, two ahead of Babe Ruth. Kelly was the hero of the Giants' victory. He scored a homer, a two-bagger and two singles out of four times up, and turned in three runs.

Passengers arriving in Shanghai on the Empress of Canada are describing the plight of the other liner. A few hours after the first great earthquake the Yokohama waterfront was a huge torch. Flaming oil and burning sampans had made the harbor a Dantean sea of fire.

The Empress of Australia, they relate, was saved from fire only by the coolness of her officers and by the assistance of the steamer Steel Navigator and a Swedish ship which towed her to safer anchorage near the remains of a breakwater.

Petty and Murphy add to the statements already made that foreigners were subject to cruelty in a city left for a time to the dead and to ghoul haunting them. The Empress of Australia, they relate, was saved from fire only by the coolness of her officers and by the assistance of the steamer Steel Navigator and a Swedish ship which towed her to safer anchorage near the remains of a breakwater.

Police Deserted.
In describing their experiences today the two survivors said the Yokohama police on duty continuously without water or food finally became discouraged and deserted the city, leaving it at the mercy of a mob of plunderers. All the bodies of foreigners salvaged from the wreckage, recalled Petty and Murphy, had fingers hacked off and ears torn where ghouls had stolen jewelry. When the Japanese naval squadron arrived this city was in chaos.

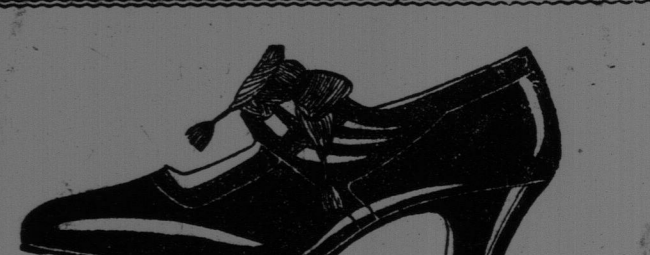

"I saw one foreigner shot in the back by a Japanese policeman," said Petty, "when the foreigner stooped to pull a body from the ruins. There were numerous similar cases, and some instances where whole parties of foreigners were fired on."
