RECENT WEDDINGS

Stopp-Purdy.

William Stopp, a returned soldier, who left St. John in 1914 with the First Canadian heavy battery, was married Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock to Miss Saddle Olive Purdy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Purdy, of St. George street, West St. John. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. H. Sampson in the rectory of St. George's church in the presence of only immediate relatives. The bride looked charming in a traveling suit of navy blue and wore a black picture hat with touches of yellow ostrich and racoon furs. The groom's gift to the bride was a substantial cheque and set of furs. After the ceremony the bridal party went to the home of the bride where a reception was held in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Stopp.

Fullerton-Reid.

An interesting home wedding took place at the residence of the bride's uncle, Long Reach, Kings county, when Frank S. Fullerton and Maud M. Reid were united in marriage by Rev. G. B. Traflet. They will reside at Long Reach.

Schlew-Bornstein.

(Moncton Transcript, Wednesday.) An event of much interest to the Moncton Jewish community and their friends took place last evening at 8 o'clock in Windsor Hall, which was especially decorated for the occasion, when Rabbi Chaisson united in marriage Miss Anna Bornstein, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Bornstein of this city and Nathan Schlew, one of Moncton's most enterprising merchants. The ceremony was performed with all the Hebrew rites.

The young bride looked charming in her gown of white duchess satin, trimmed with silver overlace, and carried a bridal bouquet of carnations and sweet peas. The bride was attended by Miss Edith Cohen and Miss Lena Sherman of Boston and Miss Rosie Ross of Moncton, who were also beautifully gowned in pink satin with silver trimmings. The groom was supported by Boris Ash of Boston and Louis Mendelson, manager of the Royal Hotel, in St. John. The bride's bridesmaids were the little Misses Ruth Selick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Selick of this city, and Sophia Kirsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kirsh, also of this city. There were many guests from out of town, including Miss Fannie Levine, St. John; Abram Garson, St. John; Louis Reuben, Bathurst; John Russell, Newcastle; Miss Sadie Day, New Glasgow; Louis Day, New Glasgow; A. Hans, Antigonish, N. S., and Mrs. Sam Abrams, Amherst.

The entire Jewish community of this city were present at the wedding, as well as many other citizens.

A sumptuous supper was served after the ceremony and the evening spent in dancing until a late hour. Crandall's orchestra was present and provided music for the occasion.

During the evening some fifty telegrams were received from different parts of Canada and the United States, congratulating the happy young couple. During the evening a collection was taken up by Isaac Selick, son of the Moncton City Hospital, when a sum of money in the vicinity of $25 was realized. The sum of $115 was collected, which will go to the Jewish relief fund, and will be forwarded direct from Moncton to Palestine. The collection was made at the home of the bride, where the bride and groom were present. The bride had gathered after the wedding celebration at the Windsor Hall. Rabbi Chaisson presided at the ceremony. The happy couple left on the late afternoon train for a wedding trip which will include New York and Atlantic City.

McNutt-Gallagher.

In St. Vincent de Paul church, Oromocto, Tuesday morning, Peter D. McNutt, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Jones of Oromocto, were united in marriage by Rev. Father Hannigan.

McNutt-Gallagher.

At the Presbyterian church, Stanley, on Tuesday afternoon, Rev. M. J. Macpherson united in marriage Arthur R. McNutt of Williamsburg, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel McNutt, and Mrs. Jennie Gallagher, daughter of Mrs. Harry Ward of Williamsburg.

Barker-Crowley.

Frederick Gleaner, the many friends of Ray V. Barker, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Barker, and Miss Ethel Crowley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Fred Crowley, were surprised to learn today that these two young people were married some time ago at the parish church.

Shea-Frawley.

Houlton, June 11.—One of the prettiest weddings to take place in Houlton for many a day occurred on Tuesday morning when Miss Edith Shea, daughter of Mr. George Shea, was united in marriage to Francis Frawley of Bangor. The wedding took place at St. Mary's Catholic church, Rev. P. M. Sills officiating. The bride was beautifully gowned in white silk voile, wore a large white picture hat and carried white roses. She was attended by Miss Marie Frawley of Bangor, a sister of the groom, as bridesmaid. Miss Frawley's gown was of child silk voile and she carried a bouquet of pink roses. Kenneth Shea, brother of the groom, acted as best man. Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride to which relatives and close friends of the couple were invited. The Shea home was beautifully decorated.

KING STREET GERMAIN STREET MARKET SQUARE

Many costly and beautiful gifts were received by the bride and groom. Among the out-of-town guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. John P. Frawley and two daughters, Misses Isabel and Marie Frawley of Bangor, Mrs. Ella Carroll of St. Stephen, N. B., Rev. John Hogan, of Millinocket, Miss Hogan of Bangor, Mr. and Mrs. Ross of Woodstock, N. B., Mr. and Mrs. Titus of Bangor, Judge and Mrs. Carleton and Mrs. Gallagher of Woodstock, N. B., and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McMann of Bangor. The happy couple left on the late afternoon train for a wedding trip which will include New York and Atlantic City.

On their return they will reside in Bangor where they have a very attractive new home.
The freshmen of the Montana State School of Mines laboriously, under supervision of the seniors, carried 4000 gallons of water and 800 pounds of lime up the mountain-side to keep their annual custom or painting a white M on Big Butte. The letter is 100 feet square, made of closely packed rocks. The freshmen do the hauling, the sophomores and juniors apply the lime and the seniors arrange for the tools. This year the solitary deed at the School of Mines helped gallantly.
