

AMATEUR BUILDERS. VIENNA, April 3.—Because of the lack of employment many amateur builders have constructed their own houses near here. Forty small villages have sprung up on the outskirts of the city as a result.

REVENGE ON ROAD HOG. LEAVENWORTH, Kas., April 3.—Angered because a farmer with a load of hay blocked the road, an autoist threw a lighted match into the load, as he finally got by. The fire destroyed the hay and the wagon.

BLOWN UNDER AUTO. LIVERPOOL, Eng., April 3.—While his mother was watching from a window, Richard Stanley Barton was caught by a gust of wind and swept under a motor car. The child was killed.

MECCA OF METHUSELAHS. ST. MAWES, Eng., April 3.—This little hamlet is known as the Mecca of the Methuselahs, one-fourth of the population being more than 70 years of age. One man is 100, living with his "boy" of 80.

CARDS ARE ENJOYED

Pleasant Event is Conducted by McKenna Division in West End Hall.

A successful card party was held under the auspices of McKenna Division, No. 587, Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers in the upper reception room of the West End Hall, West Saint John, last night. The proceeds, a satisfactory sum, will go to swell the funds of McKenna Division. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Mrs. Lorne Smith had charge of the reception. Mrs. George Lee was convener for the refreshments. Mrs. R. Campbell and Mrs. H. Walters had charge of the prizes. The tallying of scores was in charge of Mrs. Edward McKenna, Mrs. George Brown and Mrs. J. Lynch. Those who assisted in serving and replenishing were Mrs. Charles Parrie, president, Mrs. W. Tufts, Mrs. Edward Kane, Mrs. Charles Porter, Mrs. Thomas McKenna, Mrs. Charles Maxwell, Mrs. John Rosence, Mrs. Foster Fowler, Mrs. W. Coleman, Mrs. Waldron, Mrs. J. Coffey, Mrs.

Robert Peer, Mrs. William Smith and Mrs. A. Simpson.

2,000-MILE TOUR FREE

BERLIN, April 3.—A German woman recently returned from the United States has written a series of articles for the Berliner Tageblatt, telling how she had "a glorious motor tour of 2,000 miles" in America by lifts from "chivalrous men."

A SPEEDY BOTTLE

PARIS, April 3.—The speed record for floating bottles is said to have been broken by one that was overboard from a United States hydrographic survey vessel and was picked up a French seaman. It had traveled 1,500 miles in 328 days.

TEN POPULAR WORDS.

SALINA, Kas., April 12.—The ten most popular words in business correspondence are: the, and, of, a, I, to, if, that, you and for. So says Mrs. Invy-Monk Cole, head of the typing department of Kansas Wesleyan College.

Guatemala has placed heavy excise taxes on coffee and sugar in an attempt to alleviate the financial situation of the government.

MOTH BALLS VS. GOPHERS.

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 3.—Gophers were destroying the sweet potato beds of a farmer near here until a friend told him to roll moth balls down their holes. Since then the gophers have been giving his farm a wide berth.

NOT MARRIED

Waldo Gallagher, of Sussex, the hero of the runaway horse rescue last week at East Saint John, states that the reference to his needing employment was perfectly correct, but that an error was made in his identity as a married man.

Love and Glory

A UNIVERSAL JEWEL

THE TWO GREATEST THINGS IN THE WORLD

YOU SEE THE MADDENED CHARGE OF THE MOORISH HORSEMEN on the blazing Sahara sands. You see the Moorish Commander standing over the lone French bugler, with naked sword and murderous mien. He orders the captive to sound the French retreat. The bugler, smiling into the face of Death, raises his bugle to his lips and blows—not the Retreat—but the CHARGE. And so the name of Anatole Picard, the "Bugler of Algiers," goes down among the immortals.

Bassen bids Good Bye

FRIENDS, I'm through. I am out of this store at the corner of Union and Sydney street this very month—in fact I am banking on the trade between now and Easter to pull me out of it. I have got to get the money for this stock of Family Clothing and get it before they take the store from me. Later I will concentrate on my new store in the Macaulay place, King street, but right away I have to let go at the old stand. I feel I must name the lowest prices possible to startle the city into buying me out quick at what they know is less than they pay any other way. So here goes.

SILK WAISTS $1.69 Read The Rest Flannel Jumper Dresses; all new shades $3.98 Waists and Middles 98c Silk Waists. Good buy at $1.69 $3 to $5 Sweaters $1.98 and 98c Summer Vests 17c; 3 for 50c Jersey Bloomers 29c Pr Short Sleeved Vests 85c for 49c FINE LISLE HOSE 29c Silk and Wool Hose 69c $1.50 Holeproof Hose, heavy silk, elastic ribbed top; all shades $1.50 for 98c Fine Cashmere Hose; black, brown or grey, 95c for 49c NAVY REEFERS $3.49 Other Girls' Finds All Wool Serge Dresses; sizes 6 to 14 years; regular $5.00 and $6.50.
