which augurs well for its excellent management, and prosperity. The toflowing are the officers elect for the current year :--John Lochary, Sr., President.

- Vice do P. Quinn, John Doherty, Treasurer.
- Chas. O'Neill, Secretary. At half past six o'clock; the Society sat down to dinner at the St. Andrews Hotel. There were upwards of fifty members present. Mr. John Lochary jr. presided, ably supported by Mr J Doherty, and Mr. J. Quinn, as croupiers. The dinner was a sumptuous one, and reflected much credit opon the proprister of the hotel, Mr. McVay. After the removal of the cloth, the usual loyal and patriolic toasts were drunk : with three times three. Several patriotic, sentimental, and comic songs were sung. Many volunteer toasis were given which elicited nest and apposite replice. A more agreeable and uleasnt company seldom meet together; indeed the greatest harmony prevailed, and the company retired about helf past ten o'clock, after singing "God save the Quern' - much pleased with the entertainment.
