Western German Too Confiding

Calgary-Thousands of Germans in anada, and hundreds of thousands in the States are but waiting the word to beginning of August, according to confidences unsuspectingly made to a German speaking Scotchman, by a n turalized German, formerly of the Calgary districts, Reyneld Hordon, who was arrested recently by the city police on a charge of sedition. Hordon, who was in the city on business connected with his farm, entered into conversation in a hotel rotunda with the Scotchman, whom he aw looking over a German paper and followed, Hordon bosted that the final blew would be struck against Britain, which must be crushed at all haszards towards mid-summer. Germans all over the States and Canada were organizing with a view to helping in making that blow decisive. Getting naturalized is just part of the damage, observing that 250 men could wipe out Calgary. Hordon made further boasts as to his personal skill at shooting and his abality to handle a bayonet. He has been in the country for nine years, his farm being at Aberdeen, 60 miles north of Calgary, and nas

General Gordon's Prophecy

It is dangerous to prophecy, but General Gordon was not far wrong about Germany. It was just a genera tion ago that he wrote these prophetic As Lloyd George expressed it: There words to a friend:

They are actuated by what they regard as their duty to com ing generations of Frenchmen. They are determined that their children and their children's children shall be spared the suffering which German militarism has brought to them in the present war. To that end they are ready to make any sacaifice-to sacrifice the present generations, if need be. That feeling is the inspiration of the French in this war. It is a religion with them. 'England agrees with France that the German peril must be forever obliter ated, replied Dr. Prince in answer to a question. They have not arrived at that conclusion by precisely the same mental processes as those of the idealistic French, however. The English look upon the subject in a practical way. They know only that they have a disagreeable job to do and one that must be done so thoroughly now that it will never be necessary to do it
