The Weekly Times

Victoria, Friday, April 13, 1894.

VERY PROBABLY DEFEATED.

During the progress of the bill amending the municipal act through its final stage it has to run the gauntlet of a dozen municipal reformers, each one having an idea all his own which he wishes to see incorporated in the law.

Sealers have now some means of knowing definitely what their position will be under the acts ratifying the Paris regulations. A London dispatch puts the matter in this way:

Many inquiries have been received here from Canada concerning the status of a vessel under the proposed Behring Sea act in case that vessel shall have proceeded on its sealing voyage before the publication of the act at the port of departure...

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Among the worst of the many bad features in the new tariff is the change in the duty on books from 15 per cent ad valorem to six cents per pound. In his speech Mr. Foster pointed out that this change would simplify the collection of the duty and would increase the revenue.

An Ottawa dispatch says: "The government is said to be considering a very original scheme for the solution of the problem of the French treaty."

always be a danger of "going too fast," but the cure of one evil does not lie in the creation of another.

MR. HASLAM'S EFFORT. The longer report of Mr. Haslam's "maiden speech" given in our Ottawa letter to-day serves to confirm the impression that the new member from British Columbia must have caused quite a sensation.

Toronto Globe: The changes of the tariff on books from ad valorem to specific has introduced the worst features in the tariff in that important business.

Things political are getting mixed in Victoria. In the house yesterday Mr. Davis announced that Mr. R. T. Williams was a supporter of his.

A QUESTION OF NOTICE.

Sealers have now some means of knowing definitely what their position will be under the acts ratifying the Paris regulations.

Mr. Martin is well trained to "follow his leader," but yesterday he "talked" in committee on the Cariboo and Horsey hydraulic mining bills.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Our amiable neighbor is quite mistaken when it finds that the Times represented the premier's desire to speak at the close of the debate on the Nakusp bill as a snub to his colleagues.

Mr. Davis has at length introduced his promised coal mine regulation bill, and its provisions are found to be about what was expected.

ment as far as mine out of every ten of them are concerned. Even if the French government and the British government could be deceived by such a course as suggested, Sir Charles Tupper knows better, and of course his son, the minister of marine, is a member of the government.

Some of the American papers are devoting a large amount of space to "Prof." Garner and his study of the monkey language. Unfortunately for the professor, some doubts have been cast on the bona fides of his African performance.

The Hamilton paper finds that "Ontario is almost, if not absolutely, the only civilized country in the world in which an innocent debtor can be imprisoned for debt."

Mr. Davis has at length introduced his promised coal mine regulation bill, and its provisions are found to be about what was expected.

It will be remembered that Hughie Kirke, a miner and prospector known to nearly every one in town, was missed over a year ago from his usual headquarters on Texada island.

A Creamery Crash.

Northfield, Minn., April 7.—The Great Crescent Creamery Company, with headquarters at St. Paul, has failed for $90,000.

Mr. Davis has at length introduced his promised coal mine regulation bill, and its provisions are found to be about what was expected.

KIRKE'S REMAINS FOUND.

Skeleton of the Unfortunate Young Man Lost on Texada Discovered at Last.

Buoy Burglars Scared by a Woman - News From the China Creek Region.

And yet another political meeting will be held tomorrow on Gabriola Island.

The officers of H. M. S. Pheasant are reported to be engaged in ascertaining the character of the tides and currents at Seymour Narrows.

In chambers yesterday, His Honor Judge Jarvis presiding, H. L. Hackett, W. J. Gallagher and the Telegram Printing Co. Defendant having entered defence to this action through his solicitor, E. M. Yarwood, plaintiff, by his counsel, D. G. Forsyth, applied by writ of motion for the defence to be struck and leave to enter judgment.
