Mr. Buchanan's Letter
(Accidentally omitted last issue)
To the Editor of Granite Town Greetings.
Dear Sir,
Allow me through the columns of your welcome paper to express the deep gratitude of the Pastor and family to the kind people of the St. George and Second Falls Baptist churches for their kind words of farewell and their tokens of love and esteem for us. The experiences of the Lord's Day just past, will ever live sacred in the memory of the Pastor. We thank God, that the pain of parting is alleviated by the Christian tie that ought can sever, the hope of meeting again in Christ. We wish you success in your work Mr. Editor, and say goodbye with best wishes to the kind people of St. George.
Rev. E. V. Buchanan,

L'Etete Boy Drowned
St. Andrews, Sept. 9.—A drowning accident happened in Robinson, Me. this morning, resulting in the death of Lehoe McGraw, one of the crew of the steamer G. B. Otis. He was a son of Harry McGraw, of Letete, age 19, and leaves his father, four brothers and one sister. The captain of the steamer called him this morning about 3 o'clock, and he went on deck whistling cheerily. Afterwards they heard him call out, and when they got on deck he was not to be found. The body was found this afternoon and brought here and will be taken to Letete for interment.

Don't forget that your neighbor though he differs from you politically may be just as honest in his convictions as you, that this is a free country where freedom of opinion is one of the biggest of the broad foundation-stones of our government, and there would be an end of that form of government without it. Be tolerant therefore, or rather not tolerant but rational, patriotic and good natured. Stand by your convictions and let your neighbor stand by his if so disposed. Keep cool. Argue politics if you will, but do it calmly and reasonably, and bear this fact always in mind, that just as you have made-up your mind unalterably as to the way in which you will vote, ninety-nine hundredths of the voting population has done the same thing.—Review.

Maine Goes Democrat
With a majority of 6,500 Col. Frederick W. Plaisted of Augusta, defeated Bert M. Fernald of Poland for Governor of Maine. The Republicans received a complete surprise and cannot in any way account for their overwhelming defeat. The political page had to be turned back to 1890 for even a reversal of the Republicans and there it was found that Col. Plaisted's father, Harris M. Plaisted was made governor on a fusion ticket by a narrow margin of 169 votes. All the other Maine governors since 1855, have been Republicans.
In the congressional contests, Daniel J. McGullicuddy, of Lewiston, defeated Congressman John P. Swaney in the second district; Samuel W. Gould, retired Edwin Barleigh, of Augusta, to private life after eighteen years at Washington, while late returns indicated the election of Wm. Penzell, a Democrat, over Asher C. Hinds in the first district.

A Miraculous Escape.
Ashtabula, Ohio, Sept. 5.—Climbing from the wreckage of his buggy on the pilot of a locomotive flying at the rate of fifty miles an hour, Fred Minor, aged 18, clambered up on the running board of the engine and into the engine cab. His escape was near to the miraculous. The engine on the Lake Shore Railroad struck his horse and buggy a few miles out of town. The horse was killed, and Miner, wedged in the wreckage of the buggy, remained on the pilot of the rushing engine. Indignant, he climbed into the cab, he says, to tell the engineer what he thought of him. He claimed that the engine had no headlight. The engine stopped to let him off, Minor pointing out that his parents would expect him home early, and he walked the six miles back to town. He was not hurt.

A Great Exhibit
Connors Bros., Ltd. Well Represented at the Big Fair.
Practically the only first-class exhibit from Charlotte County at the St. John Exhibition was that of Connors Bros. Ltd., of Blacks Harbor. It is no wonder that 'Connors Bros. sardines' is a familiar phrase with all users of canned goods throughout the Dominion. An enterprising firm will always advertise its goods: on the other hand a firm which does not advertise is not only being kept in the back ground while others are going ahead by leaps and bounds, but exposes the fact that its goods are of an inferior quality. The booth which represented Connors Bros. was filled with a copious supply and a fine assortment of canned goods including, sardines, kippered herring, finen haddie, pork and beans, blueberries, etc. Thousands of sight seers are gazing at this booth daily and many remarks are heard which are favorable indeed. The long pillars and railings encircling this booth are made of cans piled one upon the other and the interviewing spaces are filled with artistic decorations. Mr. McLean who has charge of the booth is very attentive to the public and answers thousands of queries and informing the public that all the products of the firm can be purchased from all the first class dealers in the provinces. All the leading grocers and wholesalers in St. John handle this entire line, the sale of which are rapidly increasing. The attention of Connors Bros. is not only confined to the canning of fish. They are also famous for their canned pork and beans and blueberries, for which the demand is great. General attention is also attracted to the exhibit of curious at the booth including coral shells and a king crab which is exceptionally large and of a very rare species. Practically everything which is turned out by the company is shown and also harmoniously displayed that even those who are not personally interested cannot help but be attracted. Great trouble and expense in placing their exhibit before the public in such a careful manner has been no barrier to this enterprising firm. We congratulate Connors Bros. upon their magnificent display and hope that their business will continue to boom. An honest firm with honest goods cannot help it.

OBITUARY
ROBERT A. SUTHERLAND
Mr. Robert A. Sutherland who died suddenly Friday morning September 2, 1910, at No. 9 James Street, Franklin Square, Boston, had been a member of our household for ten years, and a resident of Boston over thirty years. He had a large circle of friends and acquaintances, as he had responsible positions for many years in Peoples Institute at Roxbury, also in Brooklyn, at St. Saitis Episcopal church, and time of death was employed in Wells Memorial Institute, Boston. He was a brother of Mrs. Elizabeth Billings of Jamaica Plain. Three years ago Mr. Sutherland was ill, and diagnosis of physician was a weak heart. He responded quickly to treatment owing to wonderful vitality, one year ago, he fell and fractured three ribs, splinter penetrated lung, he recovered, and had been well, excepting dizziness, which occurred frequently, causing great fatigue, and thoughts from the best authors. He loved children. Flowers, plants brightened his room, he was happy caring for them. He loved his home at evening was always in his room and with books and papers spent the time reading, and resting, while peace and quiet cast a gentle spell about him. Mr. Sutherland has gone from our sight, but never from our memory. We know it is not death,—but life, full and free. We rejoice for his words spoken two weeks ago—"Life is sweet to live but I am ready at any moment to go."
We see the end, the house of God But not the path, to that abode, For God, in ways he had not known Will lead his own."
