Funeral took place from his late residence, 10 a. m. Saturday, July 25th.

PLENTY OF ICE.

One would think that the warm weather of late would have melted all the icebergs on the eastern coast, but such is not the case, as many of the steamers arriving at Boston and New York the past week report seeing them in plenty, some of the boats being obliged to change their course and travel miles out of their way to avoid them. One steamer bound from Mar-vik for Philadelphia reports seeing 57 bergs last week off Cape Race. A dense fog prevailed at the time and the steamer for 24 hours was in the greatest danger, being almost surrounded with ice and having hard work in getting clear.

WAR CL SERVA DEF WAR

Refuses to Accept Humiliating Ultimatum With Demands for Expiation

RUSSIA MAY TAKE A HAND AND INVOLVE OT

Diplomatic Relations Between Riva and Austrian Minister Left Be Back Serbia's Defiance—Crisis

London, July 25.—The darkest war cloud which has appeared on the European horizon since Germany sent warships to Agadir in 1911 has arisen within 48 hours. The Serbian government has refused to comply with Austria's demands for the extradition of the Sarajevo murderers for which Austria holds anti-Austrian conspiracies in Serbia responsible, and for guarantees of future good behavior, of the most humiliating kind ever asked of an independent nation. Ten minutes before six o'clock tonight when the Austrian-Hungarian ultimatum expired, the Serbian premier handed to the Austrian minister of Belgrade Serbia's reply. The minister immediately severed diplomatic relations and started for home. The contents of the note have not been revealed, but the Serbian legation in London understands that it accepted some of Austria's conditions and rejected others. Apparently Austria was resolved to have the whole bill paid or nothing.

The vital question to Europe is whether Russia will come to the rescue of her little Slav brother, leading to the involvement of the other powers and making of the war a dread struggle of Slav against Teuton for European supremacy.

Reports from St. Petersburg say that the Russian army is mobilizing, but it is to be remembered that Russia mobilized several corps when Austria annexed Bosnia and the German Emperor stepping to the side of his ally, as was said, "in shining armor," issued a veto on Russian intervention. Austria and Serbia are both mobilizing.

The Serbians have decided not to attempt to defend Belgrade, the garrison having already been withdrawn, according to Vienna reports, and the seat of government has been removed from Belgrade to Kraguevatz, a strong strategic point sixty miles to the south. Serbia's refusal to humiliate itself to the extent of its ally, neighbor has dictated is not unexpected. The Serbs have been in a proud frame of mind since their success in the late Balkan war, and the government which has been removed from Belgrade to Kraguevatz, a strong strategic point sixty miles to the south.
