HAS MEMBERSHIP OF NEARLY HALF MILLION

Toronto, April 22.—The twenty-fourth annual session of the Canadian Fraternal Association, representing fifteen fraternal societies, with a combined membership of almost four hundred thousand members, was opened in the Temple Building today.

Dr. John Ferguson, the president, was in the chair, and in his address emphasized the problem of adjusting the financial systems of the various societies.

FIVE MINUTE CURE IF STOMACH IS BAD

"Pape's Diapepsin" is the quickest, surest indigestion cure known.

You don't want a slow remedy when your stomach is bad—or an uncertain one—or a harmful one—your stomach is too valuable; you must injure it with drastic drugs.

Pape's Diapepsin is noted for its speed in giving relief; its harmlessness; its certain unfailing action in regulating sick, sour, gassy stomach. Its millions of cures in indigestion, dyspepsia, gastritis and other stomach trouble has made it famous the world over.

Keep this perfect stomach doctor in your home—keep it handy—get a large fifty-cent case from any drug store and then if anyone should eat something which doesn't agree with them, if what they eat lays like lead, ferments and sours and forms gas, causes headache, dizziness and nausea; eruptions of acid and undigested food—remember as soon as Pape's Diapepsin comes in contact with the stomach all such distress vanishes. Its promptness, certainty and ease in overcoming the worst stomach disorders is a revelation to those who try it.

SUMMONED TO GERMANY

Jockey George Archibald, the California rider, who had been engaged to ride the horses of R. J. Mackenzie, of Winnipeg, this season, has been notified by the Union club of Berlin, the governing body of German racing, to report to his employers A. and C. Von Weinberg, by May 15, according to terms of his contract. Archibald rode in Germany for the last few years, and had no expectation that his services would be required there this year. His agreement with Mr. Mackenzie is a verbal one, subject to his German contract, and he has advised Trainer "Canada Jack" Adkins of the change in the situation. He rode on the Canadian circuit with much success a few years ago, and his handling of Jack Atkins, when that horse won the $10,000 Dominion handicap at Fort Erie, was a masterly exhibition of horsemanship.

If Archibald acts on the notice from Berlin, he is likely to find his journey to Germany a wild-goose chase. There is only the remotest possibility of racing being resumed in that country until the war is ended, and he would waste a good part of the season traveling there to find that out. The Berlin Lokal Anzeiger of March 28, which would be quite as late as the date of Archibald's advice, said that the only prospect was for a very brief meeting at Hoppegarten in the middle of May, "provided that the necessary funds can be raised," and for the running of the German Derby at Hamburg. The notice to Archibald to report is only part of the regular German policy of bluffing the outside world.

An English officer wounded at Neuve Chapelle thus describes his experiences: "The enemy cannot be 300 yards away. The bullets spatter and splutter, spit and whistle. Curious what playful little things they seem! And then, leaping the ditch, just as that temporary goal is reached—a thump in the leg, unlike any sensation ever felt before, a sharp pain through it, and you roll over for all the world like a shot rabbit. Hit! as effectually knocked out as though you had a bullet through the heart. The hours roll by as you lie there. No progress can be made. The enemy are strongly entrenched in front. There is the inevitable enfilading machine-gun with its monotonous 'clack-clack.' The din is terrific. Regular as clockwork, minute by minute, comes the wall of shrapnel. 'Whizz-bang,' followed by a shower of earth and the 'ping-ping' of the bullets flying around your head. And regular as clock-work these shells fall in or about the same place. The spot is quite close enough, and the situation is by no means a pleasant one. It is wearing to the nerves, lying out there, face plastered in the mud, waiting for the next 'shrapnel' to come along and wondering where it will land. And now and then there is a real coal-box burst—a pale flash of fire, a thick black smoke and an earth-shaking crash. The blue sky above is dotted with fleecy puffs of white smoke and sulphuryellow puffs, as well as the inky black ones. To raise your head now is to ask for a bullet. Actually after a time you close your eyes and sleep threatens. Even the monotony of a great artillery bombardment brings its reaction."

PROROGATION NOT LIKELY THIS WEEK

License Act Will Take Up at Least Another Day.

BILL TO AMEND THE GENERAL MINING ACT

House will probably adjourn tonight until Monday and complete business of session next week

Special to The Standard, Fredericton, April 22.—Owing to a meeting of the government being on for this evening the Legislature sat only during this afternoon.

The bill to amend and consolidate the Liquor License Act was again under consideration, but all day tomorrow will be necessary to finish with it, as most of the contentious sections are yet to come up.

Just before adjournment this evening Premier Clarke introduced a bill to consolidate and amend the General Mining Act. This bill is almost as long as the Liquor License bill and will take at least one day of the time of the House when it comes up.

As forecasted in The Standard, there is no chance for the Legislature to complete the work of the session this week. There is a strong sentiment among the members in favor of adjourning on Friday evening until Monday night and then coming back to wind up the business next week. That will probably be the programme followed.

Mr. Pinder of York has been ill with a severe attack of la grippe at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. H. H. McNally, and his condition has been serious at times during the week, but he is now recovering.

Fredericton, April 22.—The House met at 3 o'clock.

Mr. Stewart, Northumberland, gave notice of motion to bring down a return of bonded and other indebtedness of the province.

The House went into committee with Mr. Allan in the chair, and agreed to the bill to amend the act relating to the Southwest River Driving Company with certain amendments; also the bill to incorporate the Port Canada Dock Railway.

The House again went into committee with Mr. Young in the chair, and agreed to a bill respecting county courts, and to amend the Judicature Act of 1905, which latter was explained permitted an increase in salaries of some of the officials and changed date for holding Circuit Court in Albert County.

The House went into committee with Mr. Smith in the chair, and agreed to bills to incorporate the Towns of Richibucto and Rexton for electric light purposes, and also relating to Cedar Hill Cemetery in the Parish of Lanesville. Regarding the latter bill, Mr. Tilley said that the same objection which he took to the Pine Valley bill when it was before the House applied equally to the bill now under consideration. The act passed in 1909 to amend the Cemetery Act provided that no extension of any cemetery should be allowed within one mile of city limits. This Cedar Hill cemetery was certainly not more than half a mile from the city limits, and was moreover adjoining very thickly populated and rapidly growing district. It would be better, he felt, if the House was to deal with cemetery bills every session, as it had done this, when no bills had been up from St. John, the proper course would be to repeal the act of 1909 altogether. He was not criticizing the matter very particularly, but he wished to draw the attention of the House to conditions and expressed the hope that no further cemetery would be promoted within a mile of the city limits.

The House again went into committee, Mr. Munro in the chair, and took up the further consideration of the Liquor License Bill.

Hon. Mr. Clarke said a small committee had gone over the non-contentious sections of the bill, and it would not be necessary therefore to have them read.

Mr. Carter on the section allowing the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council to cancel any license where it appeared that public sentiment was against liquor traffic, declared that such section was not a proper one to be included in this act. The Liquor License Bill was passed in 1903, but was not included in the Consolidated Statements, and this particular section seems to have been added afterwards. The Canada Temperance Act was a most excellent measure for ascertaining the public opinion on the liquor question, and it had, from the temperance standpoint, every power which was necessary to make it effective. The bill under consideration was, he thought, the most progressive legislation on the subject in any province in Canada. Under the law, as it was, a few years ago, in order to obtain local option it was necessary to obtain a majority of the voters entitled to vote, not a majority of those actually voting. When the Hazen government came into office it reversed this procedure. This was an excellent provision, because it provided means of assurance that where no license system existed none need ever exist, and when they came to the section now under consideration they found power granted to the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council to grant prohibition. Such provision destroyed the whole intention of the act, which was to leave the power entirely in the hands of the people, therefore, he did not see why it was necessary to have this provision permitting the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council to rob the people of the privilege of judging for themselves. It was utterly subversive of principle of responsible government for which not a century ago the people of this and other provinces fought for so hard

NOTHING DECIDED ABOUT ELECTION YET

Many of Ministers away from capital and Cabinet has not discussed the question.

Special to The Standard, Ottawa, Ont., April 22.—The chief topic of discussion in political circles in the capital is whether or not there is going to be a general election in June. The truth is that nobody knows. A number of the ministers are away and the question has not been discussed by the cabinet.

Most of the absent ministers will return to the city on Monday and it is probable that very soon after that it will be known whether or not the government will go to the country. While the challenge of the Senate in the dying days of parliament has aroused the fighting spirit of the Conservatives, and so far as one can gather the party would enter into an election campaign absolutely confident of increasing its strength in the house. A number of Ontario members who have been home have returned to Ottawa with reports that their constituents are warm in their praise of the course the government has pursued regarding the war, as well as of the attitude of the government during the recent session of parliament. Much satisfaction they find evidenced over the inquiries into war contracts instituted by the government. The honesty of the administration is a new thing in Canada during the last quarter of a century, and the fact that the government led the way into probing for information has impressed their constituents, they say. They now know that the words of Sir Robert Borden, when leader of the opposition, that he would give an honest administration, were no empty phrases. He is carrying out his promises and he is ridding the party of grating politicians.

His course has been the opposite of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, who defended every foul transaction with which the members of his government and the rank and file were connected.

And so these members find that so far as Ontario is concerned, a sweeping victory awaits the government when it decides to go to the country.

Preparatory services will be held in this church this, Friday evening, at 8 o'clock, conducted by Rev. A. B. McLeod of New York.

Section Eliminated from Bill.

Hon. Mr. Clarke said the contingency would be met by a section to be added for that purpose.

The committee then divided on the question of retaining the section and the motion to eliminate it was carried. Progress was then reported with leave to sit again.

Hon. Mr. Murray introduced a bill to amend the Agricultural Act, which he said was merely to give power to agricultural societies to make temporary loans.

Hon. Dr. Landry presented a return of the bonded indebtedness of the town of St. George for 1914, also a return of the Public Hospital of St. John for 1914.

Hon. Mr. Clarke introduced a bill to amend the General Mining Act.

The House adjourned at 6:10 p. m.

MUSICAL REVUE MAKES BIG HIT

The change of programme by Mack's Musical Revue at the Opera House last evening was enjoyed by a large audience. Every number was endorsed and the enthusiasm with which the performers were greeted furnished evidence that the company is slowly but surely making a real hit. The organization contains much good talent, and those who saw the performance of the opening week and compared them with the offerings of the current week can testify as to the marked improvement which has been developed as the result of steady rehearsal, and the confidence and finish which comes from association. The Revue last summer proved most popular and gave much pleasure. It is evident that last summer's success will be repeated.
