

AVIATORS FAILED TO HOP OFF SUNDAY

Rivals in Contest for the Big Trans-Atlantic Flight Prize Still on Terra Firma.

St. John, N.B., April 20.—Although local weather conditions were favorable, two storms were reported today working westward from mid-Atlantic, and for this reason neither Harry G. Hawker, Australian aviator, nor Captain Frederick P. Rayham, British aviator, hopped off today in competition for the $50,000 prize offered by the London Daily Mail for the first successful trans-oceanic flight.

OBITUARY

Mrs. Marion Letitia Cameron.

The many friends of Marion Letitia Cameron, wife of Frank Taylor Cameron, will learn with deep regret of her death, which took place yesterday at her home 23 Carmarthen street, after only one week's illness with pneumonia.

Deceased was the daughter of the late Thomas Burchell, and will be mourned by a wide circle of friends. Besides her mother and husband, she leaves to mourn two brothers, T. Elmer, of the Townshend Piano Co., this city, and Harold at home, also one sister, Mrs. Fred Moore, of Montreal.

The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, (daylight time) from the late residence, 23 Carmarthen street.

Mrs. Fred B. Dunfield.
At her home Mount Middleton, Kings County, N.B., on the evening of April 18th, 1919, after an illness of three weeks with serious brain disease, Ella M., beloved wife of Fred B. Dunfield, passed away in the 30th year of her age, leaving husband and two small children, father, mother, the brother and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn their loss.

Early in life she united with the people of God, and lived faithfully to her profession. The funeral, which was held at the home, was attended by a large number of people, and was conducted by her pastor, Rev. L. J. Leard, assisted by Wm. Miles, Triffin and Abram Perry. Four cousins, the brother and brother-in-law, acted as pallbearers, and interment was made at Berwick, Kings Co. The bereaved will have widespread sympathy in their loss.

Moses Tait.
Aged 79 years, Moses Tait, Calais, proprietor of the Calais Foundry (McTulloch & Tait) born in Miramichi, died on Tuesday, April 16th, 1919, at his home, 100 St. John street, after a long illness.

Mrs. Luther Young.
The death is announced at Korea of Mrs. Luther Young, wife of a Presbyterian missionary in that country. Mrs. Young's illness was of comparatively short duration. With her husband she went to Korea and five years ago she was home in Canada on furlough. The deceased was formerly Miss Katie Blair, of Campbellton.

NO CONSTIPATION NO PILES.
We think, without a doubt, that constipation is the most prevalent, and at the same time, one of the greatest troubles human nature is afflicted with, and causes more sickness than anything else.

Unless a free action of the bowels occurs at least once a day, constipation is sure to ensue, then comes the sore and uncomfortable piles, sick and bilious headaches, dry tongue, offensive breath, sour stomach, heartburn, water brash, and many other ailments.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills will regulate the flow of bile to act properly on the bowels, thus removing the constipation and its allied troubles.

Mr. Dan Doucette, Ed. River Crossing, N.B., writes:—Having been troubled for years with constipation and trying everything I knew of, a friend advised me to use Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. I used four vials and am completely cured. I can gladly recommend them to anyone who suffers from constipation.

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills have been on the market for the past 25 years, and have been used with the best results by thousands of people in that time, and we have yet to hear of a complaint as to their curative powers.

Price 25c. a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price to The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

FRANCE MUST NOT BE BETRAYED, PLEA OF COL. GEORGE B. HARVEY

(From Harvey's Weekly.)
Who would not, thank God for this great chance, stretch out his hands and run to succor France?

If some have done so, we thank God have not forgotten Verdun and the Marne.

We have not forgotten the rapture of sympathy with which this nation regarded France standing at bay in defence of civilization against the Hun.

We have not forgotten the words of Joffre and Poincaré, the responsive thrill which they evoked in every American heart, the nationwide prayer that they might be fulfilled in victory against the foe.

We have not forgotten the unutterable woes which France suffered at the hand of the barbarian invader, and the passion to desire and determination to avenge the blood of the fallen.

Yet, what talk have we heard in recent days, uttered on French soil? There have been protests against France's demand for reparation for her invaded territory—which was promised by the President—because it would impose hardship upon Germany.

There has been opposition to France's request for adequate guarantee of protection against another German invasion, on the ground that Germany would never assent to them, but would refuse to sign the treaty.

There has been an obvious readiness if not a purpose to sacrifice the interests of France for the sake of pleasing Germany. We do not refer merely to the hysterical shrillings of such sheets as Oswald Villard's Nation with its infamous traducing of reasonable demands for reparation and security as "the calamity of vengeance which France sought to visit upon the Central Empire."

There is no voice in all the world who leaves, besides her husband, three or four children.

Edward R. Moore.
Friends will regret to learn of the death of Edward R. Moore, younger son of the late Edward R. Moore, which occurred at his residence, 198 Queen street, on Saturday morning, April 19th, 1919.

Mr. Moore, who is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Willis, and two small children, was a member of the staff of John E. Moore and Co., Ltd., and had resided in St. John all his life.

He was very well known and popular with all who knew him, and his death was a great loss to his family and to the community.

The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, from the late residence, 198 Queen street.

WEDDINGS
Bates Shackleton.
Hamilton M. Bates, Moosejaw, Saskatchewan, a returned soldier, and son of William and Eliza Bates, reached this city a few days ago and here met his intended wife, Miss Margaret Bates, daughter of Alfred and Catharine Shackleton, Bromley, Kent, England.

Mr. Bates, while overseas, met his intended, and the happy sequel culminated when he came here to meet his European bride last Thursday, who came across on the S. S. Minnedosa. Shortly after the ship's arrival, they were married at the residence of Rev. W. B. Robinson, 117 Sydney Street, on Friday morning, about ten o'clock.

The happy young couple left on the evening's western express, en route to their western home in Moosejaw, where the young groom holds a mechanical position in his home town.

CODYS
Cody's, April 17.—All are glad to see Mr. and Mrs. William Crawford back and again settled in their home here. Pte. Crawford went overseas in July in 1916. Mrs. Crawford who closed her home here when her husband enlisted, has been living in St. John.

On Thursday evening, April 10th, the neighbors gathered on the evening to extend a welcome. On behalf of those present, Rev. C. A. S. Warrford gave a short address thanking Mr. Crawford for the service he had rendered and presented him with a purse. Mr. Crawford thanked the friends in appreciation of their kindness and all joined in singing "For He is a Jolly Good Fellow." A pleasant evening was spent at the close of which a delectable luncheon was served.

Private Crawford was also remembered in his old home in Sheba, where he spent a few days of last week.

that should be more potent in the peace congress than that of France, and there is none that should be regarded less than that of Germany. What business has the convicted felon in the dock to demand to the terms of the sentence or to protest against the reparation which the court awards to the victim of his crime? There is not a generous impulse, not a sentiment of historic gratitude, not a motive of chivalry, not a sense of justice that does not demand fulfillment of the president's eighth commandment: "All French territory should be freed and the invaded portions restored."

And restoration means restoration. It means the rebuilding of every city, town and hamlet and lonely farm; of every bridge and road and fence. It means the return of every orchard and forest. It means the restoration of the shell scarred fields. It means that so far as is humanly possible the German should be compelled to put all Northern France back into the same condition that it was when their unclean hordes invaded it.

There is another consideration. Apart from sentiment and chivalry and loyalty to our world and justice, the most practical, even the most selfish and sordid business reasons demand that we shall secure for France full restoration. If we do otherwise we make her bankrupt and shake the solvency of the world.

If we leave France unprotected we invite renewal of the war, with all its unspeakable possibilities. If we leave France unprotected, we shall be forced to fight the crushing burden which the Hun-made war has imposed upon her, we make her bankrupt and shake the solvency of the world.

Whatever else is done or is not done at Paris and Versailles, the civilized world cannot afford that France shall be betrayed or that she shall be denied the fullest possible indemnity for her losses and the fullest possible protection against another attack that it is possible to extract from and to enforce upon Germany with all the coercive force of the allied and associated powers.

guest of his brother, John E. Crawford. While there they were a family reunion and his four sisters and brother presented him with a nice silver ring.

PRESIDENT RECEIVES IRISH DELEGATES
Paris, April 18.—Frank P. Walsh, former chairman of the United States national war labor board, Ex-Governor Edward P. Dunne of Illinois and Michael J. Collins, former president of the Irish Brotherhood here today, followed by the Irish delegation to the peace conference, had a long conference at President Wilson's residence this morning.

The American delegation to the peace conference has, up to this time, refused to receive Joan O'Connell and George C. Duffy, the delegates of the Irish provisional government here.

NEW CAR DAMAGED.
A young man was trying out a new automobile yesterday on King street. He became mired up in the hands of the machine with the result that he collided with a telegraph pole and the front of the car was quite badly damaged.

MESSENGERS PLEASED WITH DECISION

Railway Board Adjustment Makes Its Award in the Canadian Express Messengers' Disputes.

Halifax, N.S., April 20.—An eight hour, effective May 1, a wage increase of $25 per month, effective as to February 1, 1919, on the rates paid January 1, 1918, overtime from eight to ten hours, pro rata, upwards of ten hours, time and a half, and mileage of one and one-quarter cents for messengers travelling upwards of 6,000 miles per month, were the features of the award given today by the Railway Board Adjustment, No. 1, which had been charged with the task of mediating between the Canadian Express Company and its employees, members of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railroad Employees, following a seven days' strike precipitated by the company failing to abide by the decision of the Board of Conciliation appointed under the Industrial Disputes Act for the purpose of investigating disputes.

The award, which was received at the headquarters of the Brotherhood here today, follows, in the main, the majority judgment of the Conciliation Board. Grand officers of the Brotherhood here express themselves as being very much pleased with the fight put up by the men, and the manner in which they conducted themselves during the strike, not a single defection from their ranks being reported.

LOST OFF THE FERRY.
A horse and carriage belonging to Alexander Cubbin, Millville, was lost Saturday morning between Kenebecasis Island and Millville. The horse, frightened by the whistle of the Maggie Mill, jumped over the side of the ferry, and the driver was rescued with difficulty.
