Hartford, Conn., Sept. 8.—Tommy Murphy was the big winner of the third day of the Grand Circuit meeting at Charter Oak, Conn., today, driving three of his four entries in the four events to first money and getting fourth money with the other.

Murphy drove John Henry to a win in the 2.04 pace, Acorn Purse for three-year-olds, driving to a three-beat victory in the 2.18 trot, winning the last two heats after Cray had won the first, because of Danby's bad break in the sulky, furnished the only upset of the afternoon by winning the 2.14 trot from Let Fly, the favorite.

Deauville, France, Sept. 8.—Bombardier Wells, the English heavy-weight fighter, last night defeated Paul Journee, a French heavy-weight, in the sixteenth round of a contest held here.

Journee, who once was sparring partner for Georges Carpentier, has been knocked out twice this year—in March in London by Wells in the thirteenth round, and in May in the same city by Frank Moran, Pittsburgh, in two rounds.

Dover, England, Sept. 8.—Henry Sullivan, of Lowell, Mass., tonight started another attempt to swim the English Channel to the French Coast. He entered the water at 7:45 o'clock. The water was cold, but the sea was smooth.

At the end of two hours it was reported that Sullivan had gone six miles.

Sullivan last month made an attempt to cross the Channel from Dover to Calais, but was forced to give up when within three miles of his goal on account of the rough seas.

NEW BRUNSWICK KENNEL CLUB
SHOW ATTRACTING BIG CROWDS

Judging Continued Yesterday Afternoon and Evening—Fine Class of Irish Setters—New Glasgow Dogs Made Excellent Showing—Parade of Prize Winners This Afternoon—Results of Yesterday's Judging.

Further proof was given yesterday at the second day's judging of the "class" of this year's show of the N. B. Kennel Club. The quality of the dogs being shown compares favorably with that of any shows held this year. All through the day spectators thronged the grounds and took keen interest in the judging.

Feature of the Day

The feature of the day was the remarkable showing of Rowdy, a French bulldog, owned by C. S. Cavanaugh, of New Glasgow. This dog was an own class, making all the honors, and to give further proof of his quality, he captured the special cup awarded to an entry of any breed from Nova Scotia. This is conclusive evidence that the off-repeated assertion "that the professional fanciers always wins at the shows" is a fallacy. Fanchette, also owned by Mr. Cavanaugh, was the runner-up of this breed.

In the English bulldogs, Victorious, owned by William MacIn, topped the honors, defeated Nibmbe Garland, the Montreal entry, who was awarded the championship at the Montreal show last year.

The Irish Setters

There was an exceptional class of Irish setters shown; in fact, as good a class as has been shown on exhibition at any show this year. Sonora Rheola Jess, owned by Mrs. E. Watling, wife of the superintendent of the show, captured the top honors in this class. A very fine puppy, Nip, owned by Miss Katherine Seldensticker, won the honors in the puppy class. Phenomenal, a St. Stephen entry, was given an extra third. This dog had been shipped from St. Stephen on Monday, but for some reason the dog was not delivered until yesterday afternoon. The dog was sick when finally located and unable to show at its best.
