The conferring of the Sacrament was followed by a profession of faith on the part of the children, made by the recitation of the Apostles' Creed and by the taking of the pledge until the age of twenty-one by the boys. The singing of the choir evinced the progress being made under the conscientious training of Miss M. O'Donoghue, the offertory selection, "O Cor Jesu," being especially pleasing. The solo in this selection was sung very expressively by Mr. Dogherty, jr., and the chorus well modulated and devotional was exceedingly pleasing. ## C.Y.L.L.A. PICNIC.

The members of the C.Y.L.L.A. and their friends to the number of sixty or thereabouts, had their annual picnic at Long Branch on Saturday afternoon last. The day was an ideal one for an outing every moment of the time from the boarding of the lake shore car at Sunnyside until the return at 9 p.m. was and visits to the lake-shore formed the enjoyment of some of the party, while others sought the woods in quest of wild flowers with which the table was afterwards adorned. The repast to which the party sat down was a dainty expression of sylvian product and excellent confections, the latter prepared largely by the useful fingers of the members themselves. The whole affair is pronounced to have been a decided suc-

A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HUMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act and the amendments thereto to perform the conditions commerced therewith, under one of the following

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry under the provisions of this Act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler has obtained a patent for his homestead, or a certificate for the issue of such patent countersigned in the manner prescribed by this Act, and has obtained entry for a second homestead, the requirements of this Act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead the requirements of this Act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land.

The term "vicinity" used above in meant to indicate the same township or an adjoining or cornering town-

A settler who avails himself of the provisions of Clauses (2), (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with huildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres subfenced.

Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled, and the land may be again thrown open for entry.
