

ERRATA.—QUEBEC EVIDENCE.

Page 85, Que. (Montreal).—Witness says: "The average pay of a mechanic is now $3 per day." This should be $2.

Page 745.—Moulders and swingers, as they are called, should be holders, etc. Next line same mistake occurs. Looking on the timber should be hooking, etc.

Page 750.—Wincher is winch.

Page 754.—Last line, aft should read raft.

Page 756.—Have it off should be heave it off.

Page 757.—Tubs should be tons.

Page 759.—Unloading a vessel should be coaling, etc.

Page 795.—Hon. John Hearne should spell Hearn.

Page 802.—By the accountant, Mr. Heakes, should be Mr. Heakes' next question.

Page 815.—Bargemen should read batteauman. M. Buchanan, foreman, should be forewoman.

Page 872.—Second last question: do they day, should be, do they pay.

Page 888.—Answer to last question: trade hero, should be trade here.

Page 916.—Kamouraska, in three places, should be Rimouski.

Page 918.—Kamouraska should be Rimouski. First question, fourth line, should read loading, and not unloading.

Page 925.—Twelfth line: cents for factory printing should be cents for factum printing.

Page 1019.—Twenty-seventh line: John Thomas (witness) should be John Thoms.

Page 1037.—James McDermott, should be Joseph McDermott.

Page 1053.—John Roach should be John Roche.

Page 1139.—Steamer Borealis should be Polaris.