

by the Commanding Officer at the Quarantine Ground.

XXXIII. And that a line of Telegraphs shall be established between Quebec and Grosse Isle, and such armed and unarmed Vessels as the Governor, Lieutenant Governor or person administering the Government, shall think necessary for the transport of persons and articles between the said places, and for causing the regulations which shall be made under the authority of this Act by the Commanding Officer at the Quarantine Ground to be respected, may be employed on the said station, and may be hired and employed in the Quarantine service.

XXXIV. And that all Pilots shall receive orders from the competent authorities to bring all vessels coming from Sea, on board which may respectively be employed, to anchor at the Anchorage Ground aforesaid, at Grosse Isle, to communicate to the Master of each such Vessel, and to the person next in command on board the same, a copy of this Act, and of all the Instructions and Orders under which they shall act, provided that copies thereof shall have been previously furnished to such Pilot for that purpose.

XXXV. And that the Corporation of the Trinity House at Quebec, shall, immediately after the passing of this Act, cause a sufficient number of copies thereof to be printed in a portable form, for the purpose of being furnished to the Pilots, together with such Regulations as the Board of Health for the District of Quebec may have adopted, and such instructions as the said Corporation may deem expedient to give to the Pilots for their guidance; and the said Corporation shall before the opening of the navigation give one copy of the same to each Pilot, in order that he may communicate the same to the Master and first Mate of each Vessel, which shall be boarded by such Pilot.

XXXVI.