A WILD SCENE ON THE C.P.R.

One Man Killed, Several Injured—Car, Mail Matter and Baggage Destroyed.

WINDSOR, Oct. 4.—A Canadian Pacific passenger train was wrecked on a trestle bridge here and 68 of its passengers about 2 o'clock yesterday morning.

A wild scene followed. The cries of passengers mingled with the sound of debris falling from the trestle.

A full description of the great accident will be found on the next page.

General Description of the Accident. The train was wrecked on a trestle bridge here and 68 of its passengers about 2 o'clock yesterday morning.

Three hundred persons assembled Saturday afternoon at Oak Point, N. Y., to witness a shooting match between Miss Alice and William Graham.

What Makes the Ladies Smile? It is an entirely new question to put any one, but to say the least, it is a very interesting one.

The World is Read in Pittsburgh. Editor World: I see by your paper that Mrs. J. D. Mott composed "The Spirit of the Age" (that is, she makes out the did). Not so, Mrs. J. D. Mott.

The Hamilton Police Squabble. Editor World: A meeting of the Police Commission on the 1st of the month, in a heated argument, the Mayor is in the office for the first time.

A County Constable Misbehaved. County Constable "Bill" Lang got drunk on Sept. 10 last, and was in that state when he brought a prisoner to the East End Police Station.

Small Elegance. The display of novelties this season at the "Aurora" (71 and 73 King-street east) is really surprising.

Gradually but Surely. Mr. J. E. Thomson among the prosperous and rising young men of the city.
