Resolutions

The Times went to Square One to ask shoppers what New Year's resolutions they were making this year. Physical fitness was a top priority — from quitting smoking to losing weight to exercising regularly. There were also suggested resolutions Tor the major to make this a hotter 78 for us all.

Mike Noseworthy: "I'm a pretty good boy but I guess I ald brush my teeth more often. It would be nice if the or of Mississauga would build a big huge sandbox for us and add a little color to my face. I've met so many active really alive people and I want to be like that — healthier happier! I wish the mayor would install an art gallery

Lee Ferguson: "Come 12 o'clock, New Year's Eve, I'll quit smoking. Mississauga is doing O.K."

isabel Ferguson: "I'm not making any resolutions. My amily is well and happy and I'm perfectly content as things re. I love Mississauga the way it is. The clerks at Square One re so friendly."

Lorie Wicks: "What I should do is watch my mone put myself on a strict tudget. Not right hear, of course is the happy hour month. But with two jobs I should save some money in the new year. Mississauga could do more good local entertainment. I have to go downto know this is a suburban, family unit oriented transen but I wish people were a little friendler.
