

50815

superior wisdom, that the ages most successfully available for the mental cultivation & proper training of the Indian Boys are from nine to fourteen.
After the last mentioned period they cannot be governed by kindness and need parental authority to enforce obedience, & daily employment to secure industrial habits.

I am, Sir,

Yours humble & obed. Servant,

Ch. Fresh

Col. Napier
P. I. A.

Indian Affairs (RG 10, Vol. 606, pp. 50,771 - 51,474)

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA