

48855

None of us can stand
the strain of grief
unmitigated by action
long. our nerves are too frail for that so we have to take the daily
drip as an anodyne.
I enjoyed my Xmas. I had a party of friends here on Xmas Day & on Boxing Day I lunched with very nice friends & went with them to hear the Carols in Westminster Abbey
The boys' voices were exquisite & the Abbey looked so mysterious & grand.

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers

Volume 56