

Verge, Merchant, of Cross Point, as to the prices to be charged for good seed, give an order on him to each Indian who is to receive seed for the quantity to be delivered to the Indian. You should, before arranging with Mr. Verge as to prices, make careful enquiry in the vicinity as to the market price for such seed as may be required; and you should arrange with Mr. Verge also that the seed to be provided by him shall be of good quality.

The Indians holding written orders from you are to

(3.)