7. POLICY ON RELATIONS BETWEEN ALLIED OCCUPYING FORCES & INHABITANTS OF GERMANY GERMAN ATTITUDE AND PROPAGANDA (Cont'd)
 The German contention of themselves as a "MASTER RACE" has been too freely implanted to be eradicated outright; many Germans will accept defeat as only a temporary phase of a continuing struggle, and strong efforts will no doubt be directed towards remaining commanding positions in Europe.
 Plans for underground continuation of the struggle are believed to exist.
