Stratford, 23d September, 1842.

SIR,
Dec. 6-89 last night completed my taking notes from the settlers, as you requested me; I travelled through a part of North Easthope and in South Easthope, and took notes from those who I considered would make a fair statement, such as to shew the general progress and success of an industrious emigrant. They are,

ANDREW RIDDELL, jun.
TIMOTHY WALLACE,
JAMES HASTINGS,
JOHN KELLY,
ANDREW RIDDELL, sen.
JOHN CRERAR,
ROBERT FRASER, and
JOHN STEWART, sen.

And I also went into the back concessions of Downie, and took the same from

GEORGE WOOD, and WILLIAM DUNN,

having, of course, on the spot taken notes only (some of them taken in the harvest field, as the settlers were all very busy at the time saving grain.)

I am, respectfully,

SIR,

Your most obedient servant,

(Signed)

JOHN J. E. L.

T. M. Jones, Esq.
