

From the Literature Department

66 Elcor Street West (Side Entrance)

Hours—9.30 to 1 and 2 to 5.30

Phone—Kingsdale 4549

FOR THE HAPPIEST YEAR IN YOUR CIRCLE JUST TRY THE F. M. LITERATURE DEPARTMENT FOR THESE NEW THINGS

OUR NEW PUBLICATIONS

The Hope of the World, a charming sketch of Educational evangelism in India told by Miss Laura Craig, B. A. 10c
Biographical Sketches of Miss Jones, and Miss Robinson, and Miss Baskerville's has been revised and a new picture added. These are each 5c

NEW LEAFLETS FOR ADULTS.

Behind a Teakwood Window, a Tale of Indian womanhood 5c
My Thanksgiving Box, a real story too 2c
When the Deacon talked in Church 2c
Mrs. Pickett's missionary box 1c
The Power of Prayer 3c

NEW LEAFLETS FOR BANDS

The Boy Nobody Wanted, a true story of a boy in India 5c
Indian Lads, stories of some boys 1c
Doing Without Box, a good story of self denial for Bands 2c
Little Builders, is a good little lesson for children 2c
Manikyam's Bible, another story of a boy, and he was blind 2c
Sita's Footsteps, is a story of a little girl 3c
Sentence Prayers for boys and girls 2c

If these seven are ordered we will put in one extra story for children not advertised.

NEW POETRY AND VERSES

The Hindered Christ 2c ea. or 15c doz.
How Long Shall I Give 2c ea. or 10c doz.
The Love in the Deed 2c ea. or 10c doz.
Joy of Service 2c ea. or 10c doz.
A Missionary's Prayer 2c ea.

AND NOW NEW BOOKS. DON'T MISS THESE

New AMONG THE TELEGUS. Its always interesting, but a former missionary says she never saw so good a number. GET IT. 30c
PRINCE RAMA AND OTHER INDIAN TALES is a delightfully new and interesting book for girls, or for women either, by Miss Kilpatrick, 85c

TOO MUCH CANNOT BE SAID ABOUT THESE BOOKS. WELL WORTH ANYBODY'S MONEY.