

This paper is issued at the beginning of each month. Its purpose is to be a record of events of local interest, and a medium of information to persons attending the services. Any member of the congregation having items of interest to contribute, will kindly drop such communications in the St. Andrew's box in the vestibule of the Church.

The above amount received for the organ fund very nearly makes up the small balance of that account which may therefore be regarded as closed.

For the special repairs the expenditure has been $407.30, besides a small account not yet presented. The amount of contributions paid in is $337.00 and there are subscription not yet paid amounting to $47.00 leaving now not much more than $40.00 required to be further subscribed to pay for the work actually done. But this does not provide for other items of repairs which the Committee considered very desirable, and perhaps necessary in which from $50.00 to $100.00 more could be usefully employed.

We cannot let this subject pass without remarking that the members of the congregation have met this
