Gift

"LA PRESSE" is advertising a novel idea concerning Christmas Gifts. Considering that a great number of Catholics in and around Montreal are at a loss, like so many others, to know what to offer their families or friends, as this particular time of the year, in remembrance of good relationship, the big French newspaper "LA PRESSE" has specially arranged with a well-known fi in to procu e excellent works of art in the form of Cru fixes. These emblems are re lly worth the trouble to get them as they are beautiful in appearance and workmauship. They can be obtained with a special Coupon, published on December the 5th or following days, and 67 cents, a "LA PRESSE" office, St. James s reet and Boulevard St. Lawrence, on the 15th of this month.

At the evening service, the Holy Name bell will be blessed and dedicated by His Lordship Rt. Rev. Bishop Racicot. Bishop Casey will deliver the sermon on this occasion. Prof. Poirier has arranged a special programme of music for the occasion and the service will be one long to be remembered.

Rt. Rev. Timothy Casey, Bishop of St. John, N.B., will officiate at the Grand Mass on Sunday, and dedicate Charlotte once more to the service of the parish in which her silvery tones were heard for so many cated on this occasion.

BLESSING OF CHAPEL AT ST. PATRICK'S ASYLUM, OUT-REMONT.

A pleasant function took place at St. Patrick's Orphan Asylum, Outremont, on the Feast of the Immaculate Conception. The formal opening of the institution takes place next Spring, when the building will be entirely finished, and the surroundings will have assumed their most beautiful aspect. The chapel, however, had to be blessed before the Divine Mysteries could be celebrated therein, and the altar to be dedicated. The public at large was not, however, invited to partake in the festival, as though the work on the building has progressed rapidly, there is still considerable work to do before the institution will be ready to receive a number of visitors such as will a surround the constitution will be ready to receive a number of visitors such as will as the formal the fo pleasant function took place at siderable work to do before the in-stitution will be ready to receive a number of visitors such as will doubtless attend for the formal blessing of the institution and its dedication to the uses for which it

On Sunday last, Rev. Father Gerald McShane, P.S.S., the pastor of St. Patrick's, in his capacity of spiritual director of the Orphan Asylum, blessed the chapel. It was on Tuesday, however, that the blessing of the splendid marble altar, with fine alabaster pillars, the gift of Miss Margaret McGarvey in memory of her parents, was dedicated, and fine alabaster pillars, the gire of Miss Margaret McCarvey in memory of her parents, was dedicated, and Rev. Father McShane celebrated the first Mass. Rev. Father Martin Reid, chaplain of the institution, celebrated a mass of thanksgiving immediately after, at which the orphans in large numbers received Holy Communion. Hymns were sung by the good Sisters and their young charges.

In the afternoon the trustees of the Orphan Asylum, with their wives went out to Outremont, to attend the first Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament in the new blessed chapel. The Sisters and the orphans were in attendance, and the singing by the children was all that could be desired. In simple language, that could reach the intelli-

Father McShane delivered a sermon on the feast of the day, urging the little ones, and even the older people among his hearers, to imitate the purity of heart and life of the Blessed Lady whose extraordinary privilege of being conceived without sin was being celebrated with such pomp throughout the whole Christian world. He dwelt upon the fitness of the date for the dedication of the chapel for the use of those who had lost their earthly parents, and would thus be placed more directly under the protection of the Heavenly Mother.

Solemn Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament was celebrated by Rev. Father Martin Reid, the chaplain, attended by Rev. Father Elliott as sub-deacon.

Mr. B. Although desirable as a precaution against any sudden shortage of currency, such as our neighbors sometimes suffer from, very little use has yet been made of the privilege by the banks. This season, at least, it was not a necessary facility, as shown by the fact that at the close of October the balance of notes of chartered banks available for circulation exceeded $19,000,000, this too, notwithstanding an unusually heavy crop, which had to be moved in a limited period.

The explanation is no doubt that the increased number of branch banks in the country has become an important factor in assisting the crop movement, giving the farmer quick payment far his grain and adding the proportant factor in assisting the crop of the proceeds. Thus circulation is returned to the banks were deviced to attract deposits, and depositors can hardly be blamed if in the future they look that of a year ago is the world-wide plethora of money. The con-trast is rendered greater by the fact that the late stringency was intensified by senseless hoarding, not only by individuals, but, in some cases, by lanks. Such hoarding aggravated that want of confidence by which it was begotten, and rendered the crisis more acute. When, after the turn of the year, the normal finanturn of the year, the normal linan-cial loosening took place, the hoard-ed funds came out, and swelled the supply of available cash. This soon became of unusual volume, owing to an enforced general liquidation and a desire to place business on a ba sis more commensurate with the capital employed.

The Vice-President having seconded the motion, Mr. Roswell C. Fisher referred to the asset of $600,000 for bank premises at Montreal and branches. 'Last year we were told no reason was seen for altering the statement. I think there is one, as the shareholders do not know in the slightest degree the value of the premises, and therefore cannot criticize the expenditure. If we knew approx-imately how much was being spent in additions to bank premises all

I think that, if an error at all, it is an error on the right side, and if all the bank's assets were valued in the same way as its ceal estate, the shareholders should be very well satisfied as to its position."

The motion for the adoption of the directors' report was then put, and
