TANTIARY 12 1901.

THE CATHOLIC RH ORD

"Oh, stop your preaching !" shout of Reubie ; "I'm no fool, and I know you priests carry these waters that you your own sakes, beware how you commit such an awful sin." "On, we're used to awful sins here!

and the ruffians laughed hoarsely. "Come, Father, ball up! Hand over your pretty box and its precious Con-

"You must take my life hrst, "I an-swered, every nerve in my body ting-ling with excitement. I felt as though I had the strength of a lion to defend my Blessed Lord. "'We aren't particular as to that,' shouted Rennie. "Upon him, men-don't waste cartridges; strangle him if he won't give up paceably."

if he won't give up peaceably.

These words came in stern accents from the further end of the hut, and nd your way there good miles. Sick wait till to morrow.

too glad to accomplied, "and thank also agree that the our friend's shanty ou are peckish I am and on my horses a incredibly short could not think three e elapsed-we stood a fairly large hut ide gave a peculiar ch was answered in il look after you id, "you're welcome bode : we don't often your cloth here ; but bject to smoke ?" fonder of smoke than fit. Somewhere out sounds of laughter. ugh - bearded fellows to what cash I have abcut me, also to my watch. You shall have them free ly if you will give me your word to spare the Treature I bear with me-a treasure of which I fear you know little. I am taking the Blessed Sacrament to a dying man-" in boxes of gold or silverjeweled, too, mayhap ; so you needn't think we shall let such a prize as that escape us." "For God's sake !" I entreated, "for Sacrament. "You must take my life first," I an-

The four rushed on me as one man. I'm not the weakest fellow in the world and knocked one down very comfort ably, but the other three all seized me at once. I shouted for help, but where could it come from? A brawny arm to me. I did so. We found Rennie and his three mates in front of the door of the three mates in front of the door of the hut, with scowing brows. "Now, chums," said Donovan, "let's have no nonsense. You've got to let his reverence go in peace. He's been forth from the gloom stepped a gigan tic and fierce looking man, revolver in hand. My assailants were lambs in appearance compared with the new ner, whose eyes gleamed like live coals in the semi darkness. "Have ye forgoten," the giant went on, "that my chum's dying here? Let him die in peace, d'ye hear, or there'll be more funerals than one from this shanty." Mind your own affairs, Donovan,' replied Rennie, but he didn't speak very loudly, I noticed. 'We're only just relieving this person of his super fluous wealth ; and he won't take the operation gently, so he must rough.

"Well, all right,' said Donovan, ' but don't kick up such a confounded row, or I'll silence some one of you for good.

Like a lightening flash a ray of hope swept through my mind-Dono-van-au Irish name! The arm around my throat relaxed its pressure. "Donovan !' I cried, 'I am a Catho lio priest-'A priest ! he shouted. 'R lease him, boys ! 'Tis a priest Dan Clancy has been moaning after hours, and, by thunder ! he shall have one. Sep this way, your reverence, and have no fear.

"Stop a minute !' cried Rennie 'you are going ahead too fast, Dino believe I'm captain of this van. I gang-you're mighty commanding all of a sudden, but who do you think will obey your orders? This man's our booty, and we'll do with him as we please. You'll get your share, never fear.

way I'm ready to fellow your lead ; but kili hischum !' without seeing him ! an you see them ?" I asked. But he shall !' " No-or I'd have a pop at them 'What, let a priest hear all our secrets?' Dan Clancy knows enough to hang us all twice over, and if we let him confess to this fellow we are all "Ah !" The cry was from Donovan "Are you hurt?" I shouted. "No - nothing to speak of. Follow lost." "A priest," I ventured to sav me close-the bush is pretty scattered nere-ride like the wind !" "never reveals anything told him in confession. Men, I beg of you, let me No more shots were neard, and, as see this poor dying wretch-it is my duty-" "Besides,' interrupted Donovan, the gams flying rast us like spectres 'if you fear his reverence blabbing, you can silence him just as easily after he has seen Dan as you can before." "Prevention is better than cure," retorted Rannie; 'he shan't go in ; that's flat !" "And I swear he shall !" said Donovan, in a low tense voice. "You see this revolver? Let go of him in stantly, or there'll soon be four rogues less in the world." "Fool !" cried Rennie, "we are four to one and all of us have shooting horse irons. "Ah !" replied Donovan, "but there are no cartridges in them-the few we had left are now in my gun I hold your lives in my hand ; release lead a different life. the priest and let him come this way." Suddenly my captors fell back from me man, though dissipation had left its velous recovery in a few hours. unmistakable traces on his haggard face, and the hand of death was press-ing visibly his worn and ashen checks. As I gazed at him, from his thin and trambing To make a long story short, Burke and his man fetched Donovan into the house and tended him there for weeke. His fall from the horse had caused slight conand trembling lips broke a mournful cry : "Oh, God ! oh God ! Mercy! mercy! cuesion of the brain, but a fine constitu Send me a priest-I cannot die like this-a priest !"

van, and a big tear rolled down hi

Stand from that door before I count five or your miserable lives aren't worhmuch Oge-two-" Slowly and sulkily the four retreat ed from the door, keeping as far as the limits of the hut would allow from the muzzle of Donovan's weapon.

Donovan among his mates.

of warning to him

the road.

head

shouted Rennie.

of time the man was convalescent. He sent for me, told me he was a I knelt beside him and took his hand. His confession was a long one, often lapsed Catholic, made his confession interrupted by such exhausting fits of a dhas lived a decent life ever since ; he now manages Burke's farm for bodily anguish that I more than once feared he would not be able to reach the end. But, thank God ! he did, and whatever he had done in the past,

Perhaps I ought to have handed him over to the law, but wild as his life had been, he had kept from shedding blood, I believe in that solemn hour he had grace to make an act of true contrition, and, after all, one does not feel in cliued to give unto custody the man and I administered to him the Blessed who has saved one's life. In concluding his story, Father Ryan Almost immediately the dread said :

chauge some of us know too well came over his face. I softly called Donovan, who knelt beside me at the bedside, " There ! that's the end of my story, who knelt beside me at the bedside, revolver in one hand and clasping his friend's wasted palm in the other, and The snow has ceased and the stars are revolver in one hand and clasping his thus, just after receiving his Saviour, the soul of Dan Clancy went forth into out Good night !" "One moment, Father," said one of the company. "What became of the rest of the gang ?"

the night. "It's all over, Father," said Dono rest of the gang?" "As, u-ual, Mr. Casey, you want to get to the bottom of everything! Well, I took the police from Wallaloo to the hut, but we found it empty, save for the decomposing body of poor Dan. We buried him decently, but check ; "the truest chum man ever had is no more. But now to look after your safety. Follow me and stick close not one of the bushrangers were found at that time. The only one I have heard of since is Rennie, who was hung for murder at Melbourne two years ago.

good to my chum, and you shan't harm him. I'm going to guide him part of that you've charity enough to pray "Curse you you want to betray us !" for a mad dog.

"You're a liar, Rennie," said Dono van," and if I hadn't just left poor Dan's death-bed-for he's dead now boys-I'd put a builet through your

LEAGUE OF THE SACRED HEART.

GENERAL INTENTION FOR JANUARY, 1901

The New Century for Christ.

American Messenger of the Sacred Heart.

"Now, listen," my protector want on, "I'm going to call Jack Blake to bring my horse and the priest's. Don't The XX Century opens under most favorable auspices. As the bells sound you dare to breathe a whisper In a very few minutes, though I can assure you they seemed to me like hours, the two horses were brought to the door, and Jack Biake entered the hut to be unceremoniously thrown by Often and often dres that scene come back to me in my dream--I can shut my eyes and see it now; the dim obscurity of the but-the savage eyes of the baffled ruffians glar ing through the gloom in impotent age. rage - and the gigantic figure of my preserver standing in the doorway of the hut, revolver in hand, as I mount ed my horse. A moment later he had closed the door behind us, sprung into his saidle and we were riding at full gallop through the fairly open bush beneath the soft light of the solemn southern place this clean oblation. How like the vision of the Apocalypse:

adored God, saying: Amen. Bene security of life and property, while in the century just past, and instead of diction, and glory, and wisdom, and pagan like they care to admit no law Crack-crack-came again on the thanksgiving, honor, and power, and ir. of obedience, of self-restraint, nor of regard for a neighbor's well being or good fortune. We need Christ to re-Amen buke the spirit of individualism run Outside, alas ! still many more millions are celebrating the dawn of the riot, in sectarianism and socialism, no new century in a carnival of noise, excitement, self-complacency and glori one willing to obey and all growing da ly less catable of mastering their own passions, not to speak of leading others We need Him to cry out : "What God hath joined together ication, pleasure, infatuation, and de lusive forecasts of human triumphs far as I know, no further pursuit was made. On-on we dashed in silence, still to be achieved. Yet above all the din and confusion rises the cry of that let no man put assunder," in face of the nameless evils with which divorce multitude before the throne, sounding in the darkness. But that darkness is deluging the world We need sadly His: "Suffer the little ones to come grew less gloomy, and before we reached the edge of the bush the glor aloud in magnificence and power, like the voice of the Lamb it is worshipp ing Salvation to our God, and to the Lamb! Benediction, and glory, and wiedom, and thanksgiving, honor and unto Me," to save them from a system of education which is gradually setting ious sun rose resplandent above the horizon and showed to my delighted Him aside, or at most suffering men tion of Him as one of the heroic chareyes at no more than a mile's distance the hon estead belonging to Burke, the power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen! If we are acters of history. We need His : "If man I had set out on the previous any man will come after me let him alive, and enjoying in peace the fruits morning to visit. "And now, Father, I must leave of human industry ; if we take delight in praising the glorious deeds of men deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me," for all who, in the words of the Encyclical just quoted, "dream of, and would eviyou," said Donovan, reining in his and their progress in science ; if we are grateful for living to see the day "And where will you go?" I asked dently prefer to have, some discipline of thought and act, but with principles when human energy and perseverance "Anywhere-what does it matter? can control and direct for man's bene-The law will have me sooner or later.' "Come with me,'l said, "and try to fit the most subtle forces of nature : less rigorous and more indulgent to human nature, requiring from us little or no endurance" We need to "not to us, O Lord, not to us: then, "Too late, Father,' he said ; "I've but to Thy name give glory." The spectacle of the midnight Mass hear Him again teaching as one hav led an awful life. I've been guilty of ing authority, and charging His apostles: "He that heareth you, hear-eth me," to remind an age which des at the dawn of the new century, the His voice died away in his throat, priest, the altar, the lights, the music, "Don't be afraid, your reverence," the incense, and the faithful assisting said Donovan ; "come !" He lifted a blanket hung curtainpises dogmatic teaching in religion, that His purpose is to "bring into his face became the color of ashes, I reeled in the saddle, and, before I could assembled in spacious cathedral, in wayside station or convent chapel makes the Catholic mind and heart in render him any assistance, fell heavily captivity every understanding unto the obedience of Christ " Finally, Christ is needed to save the to the ground His horse gave a frightened neigh and bolted straight stinctively go back to the first days of inner compartment. "You'll find poor Dan in there, back into the bush I sprang from my saddle and went to the prostrate the Christian era, to the solemn ser vices held under cover of night in the world from the spirit of lawlessness "I'll keep gloomy catacombs, to the solemn rites offered under the open sky by apostles which seems to have seized on individman. Then I discovered that he had usls and nations alike. as Leo XIII. been wounded in the side by one of the shots fired after us, and the brave feland pioneer missionaries of every age, well savs: formed in days of persecution in hidden crypt and in ruined abbey; and ever and always it is the same the day "In such strife of passions, in such low had concealed his pain until loss of bloo ' had deprived him of his senses. perilous crises, we must either look for utter ruin, or some effective remedy I bound up his wound as skillfully come a foot nearer than they are. must be found without loss of time. as I could with my handkerchief (luck He dropped the curtain, and I sur-To restrain evil-doers, to make people the priest, the people, because all are tly a large one) and feeling certain minutes, rode as fast as I could (my Jesus Christ, yesterday, to day—the horse was pretty tired) toward's Burke's house, where I was received at the door by the master himself, the sick things were re-established in Christ, tings goes dooper a minimum of the na-tions goes dooper a minimum of the na-tions goes dooper a minimum of the nawretched scene before me veyed the by the light of a miserable "homemade " candle which sputtered on a broken stool beside a couch or litter of straw and dried leaves On this rude bed tossed and moaned things were re-established in Christ, set the Catholic mind piously speculat-must be invoked than human endea. man of yesterday, alive and well ; hav. dently been a stalwart and handsome ing, as he told me, male a most mar- ing on Christ's reign in the hearts of vor, one that may touch the conscience men during the century now opening. | and re swaken the sense of duty, the The world belongs to Christ, and it is His for all time. The Oaly begotten of the Father, having the same sub-stance with Him, and being the bright. ness of His glory and the figure of His substance, He has necessarily every thing in common with the Father, and therefore sovereign and everlasting power over all the overlag and containing power over all the overlag of the give thee," is the covenant of the Father, "the Gentiles for thy inheritance and the utmost parts of the earth for thy the utmost parts of the earth for thy possession." And by his own ac knowledgment of the covenant: "All power is given to me in heaven and on earth " He reigns by acquired as well as by natural right. He has aceach will observe with mutual respect the rights of the other. If they listen to Christ, the prosperous and the un-fortunate will both aitke remember their duty ; the one will feel that they must keep justice and charity, if they quired the right to rule over us, by re deeming us, by saving us from the powers of darkness, by purchasing us with His precious blood He is "the would be saved, the other that they must show temperance and moderation Domestic society will have been placed king of ages, immortal, invisible on the best footing under a salutary fear of the divine commands and pro-hibitions; and so likewise in communi-To Him it is said : Tay Throne, O God, is forever and ever; a sceptre of jus tice is the sceptre of thy kingdom . Thou in the beginning, O, Lord, didst found the earth : and the works of thy hands are the heavens. They shall perish, but thou shalt continue, and sociation. Thus when Christian law prevails without impediment put in its they shall all grow old as a garment. And as a vesture shalt thou change way, then it results naturally and with out effort that the order of society is them, and they shall be changed, but thou art the self-same and thy years shall not change.

maintained as constituted by Divine Providence, and then prosperity flour-To Christ we owe all that is worth ishes along with security. The gen eral safety demands that we should be living for in our present civilization, without Him there could be no comfort no security in the blessings of nature, with Him they all work together for our good How Christ introduced His He was a thorough bad His era by making all things new is society as a whole. Christ our Lord told in such luminous terms by the Holy Father in his Encyclical on the must be reinstated in the possession of Divine R deemer, that we cannot for bear to quote it here : "Jesus having blotted out the writing which was con trary to us, fastening it to the Cross the wrath of Heaven was immediately appeased ; the disordered and erring race of man had the bonds of their ancient slavery loosed, the mind of God reconciled to them, grace restored, the way to eternal happiness opened and the title to possess and the means to attain it both given back. Then, as though awakened from a long and deadly lethargy, man beheld the light of truth so long desired, but for gen-erations sought in vain ; he recognized, in particular, that he was born for much higher and more splendic things than the frail and fleeting objects of sense, to which he had for merly confided his thoughts and anxieties, and that this was in fine the constitution and supreme law of human life, the end as it were, to which all must be referred, that as we came from God so we might one day return to Him From this beginning and on this foundation consciousness of human dignity was restored and lived again ; the sense of a common brother hood took possession of men's hearts their rights and duties in consequence were discovered or perfected, and virtues beyond the imagination or conception of ancient philosophy sprang up everywhere. So men's pro-jects, manner of life, and character changed, and the knowledge of the Redeemer having spread far and wide, and His power having penetrated in o he very life blood of nations, expell doubt and agnosticism which strove to introduce. The sects are groping about in the mists of human The age has need of Christ. There conceit. The people of God behold the Gentiles walking in their light : wiy then be fearful. O ye of little faith? If we would know what is possible in times. They would, forsooth, have the coming century, we n view the glorious history of the Church their gratification and let them live in

"Deride Not Any Man's Infirmities." same influence that has once already delivered from destruction a world op pressed with far greater evils. Lat the Naw Century be Christ's, and ties at large, the suggestions of nature itself will prevail, which tell us that it is right to respect lawful authority and to obey the laws, to do no seditious ac nor contrive anything by unlawful as cultivation of virtue.

day.

Tell hom, rather, how to get rid of them. Most infirmities come from bad blood and are cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Every person who has scrofula, salt rheum, humors, catarrh, dyspepsia or rheumatism should at once begin taking this medicine that the infimity may be removed. Weakness -- "I have given Hood's Sarsaparilla to my boy whose blood was poor. He was very weak, could not keep warm, and suffered from pains in his stomach. Hood's Sarsaparilla made him strong and well." Mrs. W. C. Stratton, Thomas St., Deseronto, Ont.

3

Hood's Sarsaparilla Never Disappoints

Educational. THE ....

BELLEVILLE BUSINESS COLLEGE LIMITED.

We teach full commercial course, As well as full shorthand course. Full civil service course. Full telegraphy course.

Our graduates in every department brought back to Him from whom we ought never to have departed -- to Him are to-day filling the best positions. Write for catalogue. Address who is the way, the truth and the life-J. FRITH JEFFERS, M. A. Address: Belleville, Ont. PRINCIPAL. not as individuals merely, but human

STRATFORD, ONT. A school that is doig the best work in business education in Candat to day Our magnificent catalogue give full information. Send for one. Enter college now if casible. W. J. ELLIOTT, Principal. glory shall be seen upon thee. And the Gentiles shall walk in thy light and kings in the brightness of thy rising " The prophecy is verified again in cur

Peterboro Business College New Term Opens Sept 4th

Increased attendance has compelled us to provide more accommodation. Send for handsome new circular giving full particulars. W. PRINGLE, Principal. Peterboro, Ont.

ASSUMPTION + COLLEGE, BANDWICH, ONT.

SANDWIOH, ONT. THE STUDIES EMBRACE THE CLASS-I ICAL and Commercial Courses. Torma, including all ordinary expenses, $150 per also aum. For fall particulars apply to Rev. D. CUSHING, C.S.B.

ST. JEROME'S COLLEGE, BERLIN, ONT.

lot. May he be forgiven !" "I believe, Father," said Mr Casey, "I'd pray he wouldn't bite me, any how. Good night and God bless you all."-Catholic Fireside.

Recommended to our prayers by His Holiness Leo XIII.

the midnight that divides the old year from the new, the world is summoned to gaze upon a solemnity imposing alike to angels and to men. At that hour the Venerable Vicar of Christ, nounting the world's central altar of God, offers the sacrifice which blends together heaven and earth, and, transcending all time, links century with century, making all who unite in the offering one with the people of every In obedience to the call of the Chief Pastor, over 1,200 Bishops, whom the Holy Ghost has appointed to rule the Church of God, are offering the self same sacrifice all over the earth, fully 100 000 priests are going up to the attar of God, fully 200 000 000 faithful souls are uniting with them actually or in spirit, making in every

"Well,' said Donovan, 'you're cap tain, right enough, and in a general stars. "We are cut of danger now, Father," he said. "Luckiy for us, "After this I saw a great multitude. ing their ignorance and former vices, a marvellous transformation super vened, which originating in Christian which no man could number, of all nations and tribes, and peoples and tongues: standing before the throne, and in sight of the Lamb, clothed with they have no ammunition.' civilization, utterly changed the face Scarcely had these words left his lips when - crack - crack - the report of two pistol shots sounded in cur ears. "Fool that I have been !" cried Don of the earth." white robes, and palms in their hands: And they cried with a loud voice, say are men who would fain retain the benefits of the civilization which was ing : Salvation to our God who sittet ovan ; "I forgot poor D in's revolver-upon the throne, and to the Lamb. And introduced with His era, but combine hat was very likely loaded. Yesee, we them with the licentiousness of pagan only ran out of cartridges yesterday, and Dan's been ill for days. They've all the angels stood round about the throne, and the ancients, and the four men respect their rights, minister to found his gun and they're using it to living creatures : and they feil down before the throne upon their faces, and was as welcome m fireside to a 12, 1901.

"I am thank , "I am thankuct me to son ass the night.' was the reply.

a couldn't have um than myself. ers about, you t have fallen in

I started and as I could in the ne features of my ad the thought at here before me en of the genu ever seen. But judge by looks, uld find a poor

in't ye?" queried oriest."

to regard me with ed curiosity with some extra nrdin. then, after a mong o' me. I can anty belonging to ne; they'll let you d a 'billy' of tea. wn of some sort for better than camp. g the snakes and ry much," I said, n I from Burke's o visit a sick man come with me or ir mind quick, for in, and the door verend sir," said my ection.

rom a good cigar, but faced on entering the h to make a skipper le interior seemed ense and remarkably , which immediately oat and caused a proeared the tears from able to discern anydiscovered proceede ho were seated round le in the centre of the

the case stands this way : My pal's been crying and moaning for a priest for hours. Here comes one ready to hand-I should say heaven sent him. but heaved has naught to do with us here. Now, you aren't going to rob poor Dan of what may make his death easier. He's been a true chum to me, boys, and die for him if I could. The priest is here, and poor Dan shan't die all things will be reestablished anew in Him. To quote the admirable in Him. Encyclical once more : "Do away with the obstacles to the spirit of Christianity : revive and make it strong in the state, and the state will be recreated The strife between high and low will at once be appeased, and g mates for my guide, bearing bigger - built They regarded me, I kind of amused curie while great volumes irty, short clays. Biake !" roared one jiant, in a voice like " What th the croup. e you brought us to.

my guide, "is a rev-an-I don't know his shed into the outer air see my horse. I remarked, "is Ryan ; ic priest, and I crave ghter shook the sides of d," said Redwhiskers, ce will find us a very but you can have a some grub, such as it for it ; we're poor men, d can't afford to give

" I rep'ied, "I have not ith me, but, no doubt, I satisfy your demands. haps, you won't mind ance peculiar emphasis placed that I did not like

" I replied ; "now or t does it matter ? How equire ?" ou have about you," was you mean ?" I cried. mse !" was the answer. m Jack Rennie-maybe of me?"

d. All Australia rang as that of the most dar ngers. What was to be ad nothing for the little bout me-but the Blessed Sacrament-how should outrage? I made a dash undered Rannie. all the men had sprung to d four ugly looking replinted straight at my iden thought occurred to rst of men have some good ould tell these fellows the and throw myself upon aity said, "you are welcome

wise, which I now saw screened off one portion of the room and made a sort of Father," he went on. "I'll keep guard, and if you can give the boy the comfort he needs, it's Ned Donovan will see you safe out of this anyhow. Never fear yonder rogues-they are unarmed, and I'll take care they don't Christian, first ask ourselves honestly what we are doing to make it so. As we kneel before Christ on the altar earth, and a mist the people ; but the Lord shall arise upon thee and His earth, as we can gather from the note of deepair with which the spokesmen of sound the death knell of the age

the once boastful nineteenth century

Darkness has come over the t but re

the first day of the twentieth century, we cannot do better than read and flect on the words with which the Holy Father closes his Encyclical.

Most men are estranged from Jesus Christ rather through ignorance than perversity; for there are many to study man and the universe around him with all earnestness, but very few to study the Son of God. Let it be the first thing, then, to dispel the ignorance by knowledge, so that He may not be despised or rejected as unknown. We call upon Christians everywhere to labor diligently to the utmost of their power to know their Redeemer. Any one who regards Him with a sincere and candid mind will clearly perceive that nothing can be more health giv. ing than His law, or more divine than his doctrine. In this, your authority and co operation, Venerable Brethren, will marvellously assist, as will also the zeal and assiduity of the clergy at large. Think it the chief part of your duty to engrave in the hearts of every people a true knowledge and, We might almost say, image, of Jesus Christ ; and to illustrate in your let ters, your speech, your schools and col leges, your public assemblies, when-ever occasion serves, His charity, His benefits and institutions. About the 'rights of man,' as they are called, the multitude has heard enough; it is time they should hear about the rights of God. That the present is a suitable time, is shown by the good impulses which have already, as we have said, been awakened in many, and in par-ticular by the many evidences of plety which have been shown to the Radeemer, a piety which, if it please God tury with the promise of a better age The best that money can buy should be your aim in choosing a medicine, and this is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It cures when others fail.

we shall hand down to the next cen fail. Holloway's Corn Cure destroys all kinds of corns and warts, root and branch. Who then would endure them with such a chesp and effectual remedy within reach? 118 Dundas St. (North) London, Onty

Complete Classical, Philosophical and Commercial Courses, Shorthand and Typewriting. For further particulars apply to-REV. THEO. SPETS, President

DON'T NEGLECT.

o write for our new catalogue if you are inter-sted in the selection of the best school in which o train for business pursuits.

CENTRAL BUSINESS COLLEGE, Toronto, employs 11 regular teachers, owns 60 typewrib-ing machines and uses 20 splendid rooms in its work. Its courses are thorough and practical and its students and graduates are in strong demand Winber term from January 2nd. Enter any Winber term from January 2nd. Enter any time after that date. We also give splendid courses by mail for those who cannot attend our school. All particulars cheerfully given. Address W, H. SHAW, Principal.

Kingston Business College Co., Limited

Commercial, Shorthand and Civil Service

All worthy graduates secured positions. References: Most Rev. Archbishop Gau-hier; Principal Grant, Queen's University.

 hier; Principal Grade, and Catalogue sent free.
 J. B. McKAY,

 1157 9
 321 Queen street, Kingston 1157 9

Established 1859.

The LONDON MUTUAL, Fire Insurance Co. of Canada. Head Office, LONDON, ONT, JOHN DRYDEN, President, D. C. MACDONALD, Manager,

CAMERON MACDONALD, JAMES GRANT, ASST. MANAGER. Treasurer, H. WADDINGTON, Managing Director and Secretary.

Over $2,500,000 paid in losses Lowest rates. Losses promptly settled. UITY AGENT: A. W. BURWELL, 476 Bichmond Street.

12.25

3

£ 4

Catholic Prayer Books, Bosaries, Iars, Religious Pictures, Statuary and Church Ornaments Educational works. Mail orders receive prompt attontion, D & J S ADLIRE & OO., Monureal.

REID'S HARDWARE For Grand Rapids Carpet Sweepers, Superior Carpet Sweepers, Sinceporetic, the latest Wringers, Mangles, Cutlery, etc.