DATA CONCERNING PAY AND COST OF EQUIPMENT AND MAINTENANCE

Up to the end of this year Canada will have sent Overseas an Army of 425,000 men. There have been 200,-

Army grows. The following figures will show how the money is being spent. They are up to the middle of maintenance of the Army in France, $114,866,000; Separation allowance, $71,496,000; clothing, $85,449,000; poots and repairs, $10,600.000; ocean transport and expenditure, $16,000,-000; land transport, $17,500,000; stores, $14,000,000; motor trucks, ambulances, etc., $9,600,000; re-mounts, $8,591,000; machine guns, $4,700,000; kit bags and necessaries, 5 500 000 : outfit allowances, $5 500,-000. These items total $814,000,000.

AVERAGE PAY $1.25 A DAY The average pay amounts to about $1.25 a day per man for all ranks. Average cost of rations in Canada is 50 cents, in Britain 38½ cents. Maintenance of Canadian troops in France works out to about $2.30 per day per man. The cost of clothing per man is about $64.00 a year, with 5 00 per man added for necessaries. The upkeep is placed at $20.00 per man a month. At the beginning of the year there were 71,000 dependents of soldiers in Canada who received an average of $26.75 a month

These figures will help to a better understanding of what the cost of maintaining our fighting forces is. It amounts in round numbers to over a million dollars a day. It is a huge bill but it is the price of Victory. We have spent in a little over four years more than the total national revenue of Canada from 1868 to as the War increases in intensity. Offensives cost more, and our Canadian boys are taking their place in the big drive which has almost brought the Prussian giant to his poss, "thick." knees. That is why Canada wants $500,000,000 to carry on another year. It will take all of that, for in addition to our actual war expenses, have the interest on our war debt, and the financing out of the funds of the loan issues heavy expenditures (crystallised and extended in interna-tional conventions) to mitigate the arising out of the war situation.

Born in Hamilton, on December 9, 1891, Father Dermody at the time of his death was twenty-six years of age, and was one of the years of age, and was one of the youngest priests in the diocese.

He began his education at St. Patrick's school. When he passed the entrance examination he had the highest standing among the pupils of the Separate schools. He entered St. Mary's High school, but later transferred to the collegiate institute, where on passing his matriculation he entered St. Jerome's college. While a student at this college, Father Dermody was always thing to make school children assist high up in his class work, although always taking part in all sports. PRUSSIAN MILITARISM AT WORK

Right Rev. Henry W. Cleary, D. D., Bishop of Auckland, New Zealand

The Bishop of Auckland thus concludes a lengthy review of the principles and methods openly inculcated by Prussian militarism :

"In view of the War Book's repudiation of so many principles and methods of civilized warfare, it seems, to some extent, superfluous to adduce evidence of "ruthlessness" and "torrorisation" by armies And the cost of the War is growing and "torrorisation" by armies trained and acting under its instructions. A Victory Bond is profitable, because its owner will receive at least 5½% interest as long as he keeps the bond. After the War everybody will have to pay high taxes but the Dominion will not tax these Victory Bonds or the income from them There is also a chance that they may be sold at a premium if the War ends soon.
