LITTELL'S LIVING AGE.

Jan. 1, 1877, THE LIVING AGE enters upon its 132nd volume, with the continued commendation of the best men and journals of the country, and with constantly increasing success. In 1877 it will furnish to its readers the productions of the foremost authors above named and many others; embracing the choicest Serial and Short Stories by the LEADING FOREIGN NOVELISTS, and an amount unapproached by any other periodical in the world, of the most valuable literary and scientific matter of the day, from the pens of the leading Essayists, Scientists, Critics, Discoverers, and editors, representing every department of Knowledge and Progress. THE LIVING AGE, (in which its only competitor, EVERY SATURDAY, has been merged), is a weekly magazine of sixty-four pages, giving more than three and a quarter thousand double column octavo pages of reading matter yearly. It presents in an inexpensive form, considering its amount of matter, with freshness, owing to its weekly issue, and with a satisfactory completeness attempted by no other publication, the best Essays, Reviews, Criticisms, Tales, Sketches of Travel and Discovery, Poetry, Scientific, Biographical, Historical and Political Information, from the entire body of Foreign Periodical Literature. It is therefore invaluable to every American reader as the only fresh and thorough compilation of an indispensable current literature—indispensable because it embraces the productions of THE ABLEST LIVING WRITERS, in all branches of Literature, Science, Art, and Politics.

OPINIONS.

"Simply indispensable to any one who desires to keep abreast of the thought of the age in any department of science or literature."—Boston Journal.

"A pure and perpetual reservoir and fountain of entertainment and instruction."—Hon. Robert C. Winthrop.

"The best periodical in America."—Theo. L. Cuyler, D. D.

THREE BEAUTIFUL KEEPSAKES FOR EVERY ONE.

SUBSCRIBERS OF THIS PAPER READ.

The London Publishing Company have just issued three beautiful Chromatic works of art in the shape of mottoes, which for beauty and worth are without an equal; these Chromatic paintings comprise the following subjects:

No. 1. GOD BLESS OUR HOME.—In old English type, beautifully embellished with vines and roses running through the entire work; in the center of the letter G a mother is seen teaching her two children to repeat a prayer, while to her right are two larger figures robed in white—angels singing praises to God; the background is a beautiful landscape scene representing Home.

No. 2. THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD.—In old English type, elegantly embellished with the most beautiful vines, ferns and flowers. The central figure is here represented by the Lord as a shepherd carrying in his arm the shepherd's crook and the lost lamb. The effect is strikingly beautiful.

No. 3. PRAISE THE LORD. Is similarly embellished as the other two. The group in the center of this motto is three half-grown children representing the angels singing "Praise the Lord. These three paintings combine the most elegant colors and design ever depicted by the artist's brush. The effect is most beautiful and pleasing; they should adorn the walls of every family in the land.
