DID YOU KNOW?

Did you know that over here in France
The birds sing and the hedgerows blossom green,
The sky is often coloured to enhance
The beauty of a quiet, pastoral scene?

Did you never know that in a land
Where Death is rampant every night and day
The roses bloom, and often, there,
A band
Of laughing, happy, little children play?

Where men are fighting men and Death is near
In every moment of the hour's advance,
These things are interspersed—yes,
Even here
Is peace—amidst the strife of men in France.

France. Stanley Gilbey.

"HOUND OF GOD"

A tribute was paid to the British Navy by Rev. Edward T. Sullivan at St. Paul's Cathedral, Boston, on a recent Sunday, when he preached a sermon on "The Hound of God: the British Fleet, Guardian of Our Liberty." Mr. Sullivan traced the history of the British fleet, and said twice before has the British Navy been called upon to defend the seas when Britain's safety was threatened by the Spanish Armada; and again by Napoleon, when Nelson led his men by sleepless vigilance and bulldog tenacity to save England and Europe from the invader, and finally gave his own life at Trafalgar Bay.

"England's control of the sea was threatened for the third time in this war, but within twenty-four hours after war was declared, and both France and Britain taken unawares, the hound of Heaven had its strangle hold on Germany's throat, and has since been tightening its grip and throttling the very life of the despot. More than 20,000,000 men have been sent back and forth in safety because of Britain's naval power. Her achievements are unparalleled, stupendous in conception, mighty in scope. Her silent sentinels of the North Sea have made it possible to land troops everywhere. To this power and to our own wonderful navy, man to man and ship to ship, we pay our tribute and join hands across the sea with those who serve."

At the close of the sermon Mr. Sullivan read "Nelson's Dying Prayer at Trafalgar Bay."

A LIFE-LONG PATRON

The Vicar stopped one of his aged parishioners and congratulated him on his approaching marriage.

"I am sorry," he added, "that a prior engagement will prevent me from performing the ceremony on Tuesday, but no doubt my Curate will do just as well."

"Oh, nowt o' t' soort—nowt o' t' sort!" ejaculated the old fellow. "That be 'anged for a tale! Mebbe, now, ye'd be at liberty o' Wednesday?"

"Well," was the reply, "I certainly shall be free on Wednesday, but—"

"Then Wednesday it is," went on the prospective bridegroom. "Just mak' a note on it, Parson."

"But surely," protested the Vicar, "you'll never postpone the wedding for twenty-four hours—"

"Awd postpone it for twenty-four year if necessary," came the firm reply. "You've allus done this job for me, an' you allus will as long as Aw live."

Then the Vicar remembered that the old fellow had been three times previously married.—Tit-Bits.
