LAW INTELLIGENCE.

COURT OF QUARTER SESSIONS.

SATURDAY, April 5, 1851.

PRESENT:

His Honor Mr. Justice Guy.

Leon Bertrand, dit Desrosiers, on a charge of larceny, was arraigned, and pleaded guilty.

Joseph Gingras, on a charge of stealing a quantity of foreign goods, the property of Messrs. Forget, Dumesnil & Co., was tried and found guilty. Mr. Devlin, Counsel for prisoner.

Thomas Lee, on a charge of stealing a quantity of flour, the property of the Bank of Montreal, was tried and found guilty. Mr. Devlin, Counsel for prisoner.

Francois Xavier Zanc, on a charge of conspiracy, was tried and acquitted. Mr. Devlin, Counsel for prisoner.

John Brent, on a charge of larceny, was tried and found guilty. Mr. Devlin, Counsel for prisoner.

Charles Arnold, on a charge of larceny, was tried and acquitted. Mr. Cantin, Counsel for prisoner.

The Grand Jury returned the following true bills, against Pierre Pepé, the younger, larceny; Sophie Hanin, larceny, after a former conviction of larceny, on three indictments; Nicholas Meskins and Conroy, on two indictments; Nicholas Meskins and Conroy, on one indictment; Jeremiah Gallagher, for Collector Quarter; Jeremiah Gallagher, for Collector Quarter; Jeremiah Gallagher, for Collector Quarter