Blame for War

The war to-day, Mr. Dockstader attributed to the fifteen hundred years' belief in the divine right of kings. The German people were not in favor of war, they were forced into it by the ambition of the Kaiser, obsessed with the belief of his right to rule, which had been impressed upon him by the German clergy. Responsibility might thus be traced back to the reprehensible policy of the clergy in not teaching to-day, the truths of democracy. To-day, nation had risen against nation, fulfilling ancient prophecy of the Scripture relative to the fall of the world. Famine and pestilences and earthquakes were foretold, and all had come to pass to-day; famine was stalking through the lands of plenty, disease was spreading, even in such cities as Toronto, "the city of churches," and the spirit of anarchy and revolution was spreading. Russia had become disintegrated, and the movement was spreading to Germany; it would not pause there, but would infect Britain, France, the United States and Canada.

The speaker denied charges of disloyalty made against the International Bible Students. There was not a member of the society in Canada, or in America who was not faithful to the Allied principles. The Bible students had known the war was coming; in 1914 Pastor Russell had refused the request of President Wilson to pray for peace, pointing out that the war was a punishment sent by God upon the earth.

DECLARED END OF WORLD NEAR

J. K. Dockstader Spoke Under Auspices of Bible Students Here

DISLOYALTY DENIED Speaker Pledged Society's Loyalty.—Want Ban on Books Lifted.

That the end of the world, insofar as the present order of things is concerned, is already at hand, and the coming of the Messiah near, was the message delivered by the Grand Opera House yesterday afternoon by J. K. Dockstader, of Niagara Falls, New York, speaking under the auspices of the International Bible Students.

Mr. Dockstader, in the course of his address, submitted passages from the Scriptures in support of his doctrine, and in his later remarks pledged the loyalty of the International Bible Students to the Allied cause, denying imputations of disloyalty.

In his opening remarks, the speaker declared the Kingdom of Jehovah to be at hand, the present order of things passing away and the end of the world near. Those who professed to look for the destruction of the earth were in error, for the Bible said that the earth should abide forever as a habitation for man. The end, which was at hand, was that of the present order of things, rather than of the world itself. The second dispensation cited in the Scriptures was now closing, but the earth would not be destroyed.

Wars and Rumors of Wars—The gospel of Matthew in the twenty-fourth chapter and 6th verse contained the words, "for ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars, see ye are not troubled, for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet." For centuries, he declared Mr. Dockstader, prophecy had foretold the present war, and to-day the world of 1,391,751,000 people, but 13,000,000 were neutral.

In 600 B.C., the world had been taken from the Jews and handed over to the rule of the Gentiles, with the prophecy, "the Jews shall be destroyed by the Gentiles until the time of the Gentiles shall be fulfilled." The Gentiles had ruled the world until 1914, when their term expired. The war to-day was the result of Gentile rule, which had failed, and the raising of the Jewish flag only last month over Jerusalem marked the end of Gentile rule.

The Kingdom of Christ was proclaimed at hand, and the speaker, satiating those who prayed "Thy Kingdom Come," yet did not expect it to come for millions of years yet. He said that the Kingdom of God was at hand, and the speaker, satiating those who prayed "Thy Kingdom Come," yet did not expect it to come for millions of years yet.

TANKS GO TO CRIMEA London, April 1.—A telegram from Copenhagen reports that an official statement issued by Turkey announces that Turkey is preparing an expedition to restore order in the Crimea.

Turkish newspapers have recently been asserting that, on the basis of the right of self-determination Crimea should be joined to Turkey.

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, does not eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ailments, and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given to-day gives a kick child to-morrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."
