One case had been convicted under the 11 o'clock by-law. The milk situation is submitted to the public as follows. Out of 18 milk dealers in the city, only two had their milk classed poor. Two received the classification of good, the rest being classified as fair and average. The two dealers who had pasteurization plants in the city were far in the lead, both in the quality of their milk and the amount of milk sold. Inspector Devereaux also recommended the purchase of a new horse for the fire department, as the one at present being used was not suitable for the work.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH

A very powerful and impressive address was delivered last night at the last of the special services in the Congregational church. The Rev. Lewis Rogers, of Buffalo, was the speaker, and his subject, "The New Pilgrim's Progress," was eloquently and strikingly dealt with before a large and appreciative audience. During the evening an address was also given by Rev. Mr. Gilroy, of Hamilton on "The Authority of Christ in its different Usos." A large attendance of delegates was present at both meetings, and the music was particularly worthy of note. The choir, under the direction of Mrs. Sanderson, rendered some beautiful and fitting music, which was very much appreciated. Following last night's address, resolutions were passed thanking the church for the kind hospitality to the delegates that had been here for the meetings.

WEDDING BELLS

A very pretty house wedding took place on Monday, Oct. 8th, at high noon, at the home of the bride's parents, 282 Brant avenue, when Kathleen Estella, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kavanagh, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Arthur F. Cockburn, one of Brantford's popular young men. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. White before a bank of palms and ferns. The bride entered the room leaning on the arm of her father, to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, wearing a hand-made gown of crepe de chine, with touches of duchess satin. The bride looked very sweet and wore a wreath of St. Catherine's, who her hair and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. The bride's mother was beamingly gowned in black satin. After the ceremony, guests to the number of 25 sat down to a dainty wedding breakfast, the tables being prettily decorated by caterers' skillful hands. There were two noticeable features in the bride's table, one being a chair draped in flags in honor of the bride's brother, who is a prisoner of war in Germany, the other being a silver clock, which was spun of pure linen a hundred years ago. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Frank Elliott, of St. Catharines, who her husband's strains, soft and sweetly, during the ceremony. While the register was being signed, Miss Mae Rose of Hamilton sang "Love's Story." The groom's ring was on the bride was a handsome wrist watch, and the other being a diamond ring set with pearls and sapphires. The happy couple left amid showers of confetti at 4 o'clock for points east. The wedding presents were many and beautiful, showing the high esteem in which the young couple are held. AN EXPLANATION

If your paper is late in arriving, or perchance doesn't arrive at all some of these nights, have a heart. The total for the first two days is hit as hard by the influenza epidemic as any other concern in the city. In addition to several members of the staff who are ill, a number of The Courier's route boys are laid up with the flu, and considerable difficulty is experienced in obtaining others to take their places.

ARMY HUTS CAMPAIGN

Over a thousand dollars was collected for the Army Huts Association in yesterday's canvassing, bringing the total for the first two days to approximately three thousand. In order to reach the objective, greater efforts will be needed, and every campaign worker was out early this morning resolved to make it a record day. The collectors are meeting with a more cordial reception as it becomes more generally understood that the gathering Army Huts Association is working in co-operation with and on the endorsement of the Y. M. C. A. and kindred societies. The object in the present campaign is $10,000. The day Saturday is expected to realize a rosy portion of that amount.

Flu Hit Labor Council Hard

Attendance at Weekly Meeting Last Night Smaller Than Usual

When Vice-President James opened the weekly meeting of the Trades and Labor Council held last evening in the Labor Hall, only seven men, a bare quorum, were present. The "flu," of course, is held responsible. Pres. Stinchcombe and the secretary-treasurer both left vacant desks and very little business was to be transacted. The committee re the Mooney case failed to report and it was decided to send an appeal to the Governor of California as well as a copy to President Wilson.

Mr. A. K. Bunnell, chairman of the Victory Loan Committee, was present and spoke on the forthcoming Victory Loan. If the members of the Trades and Labor Council had read Sir Thomas White's speech, there was no need for the speaker to explain the loan. Brantford had done its share for the beans and the labor men were responsible to a great extent. He pointed out the necessity of the Trades and Labor Council having representation on the Victory Loan Committee and mentioned Aid. Symons in connection with the matter. Canada's exports had increased greatly since 1914 and this money had been put in circulation. He asked for the active co-operation both in keeping touch with the movement of committee and doing as much as possible in talking of it in their places of labor.

It was moved by Delegate Mooney and seconded by Delegate Tyler, that Delegate Symons be appointed as a representative.

A referendum was advocated by the two platoon systems being installed in the local fire departments. Delegate Kite thought that the firemen should make the first and then they would receive the beans and the Trades and Labor Council. Aid. Symons said the system would necessitate an increase in expenditure of $15,000. It was moved, seconded and carried that the Council be asked to submit a referendum for the adoption of the system at the January election next year.

REG. TORRYBERRY

Reg. Torryberry, the fourteen-year-old son of Mr. W. R. Torryberry of Harley, died at his home there last night. The lad was a student at the Collegiate Institute, and well known in Brantford.

MRS. GEORGE ELLIOTT

Yesterday evening, a fatal stroke of apoplexy, after a long and painful rippling falling in showers, with the sun sinking in the west in great haze and play there passed away peacefully and without a struggle the spirit of one of God's servants. She was stricken down less than ten days ago. She was in the full strength and beauty of her womanhood. She was the most happily to go, but God's justice are inscrutable and beyond our ken.

Mrs. Elliott was born in St. Mary's Oct. 11th, 1862. She was the only child and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Loring, now resident in Toronto, each of whom hurried to the bedside of their beloved one. They and the young husband, an esteemed fellow-citizen, Mr. Geo. Elliott, have the sincerest sympathy of the entire city in their bitter sorrow and bereavement.

Mrs. Elliott was brought up in the Methodist Church and from early years became a Christian. She received her early education in St. Mary's Schools. Some twelve years ago she came to Brantford and from the first became a foremost worker in connection with the Ebenezer St. Methodist Church, being President of the League a member of the Choir and an active Sunday School teacher. Nine years ago next week she became the wife of Mr. Geo. Elliott. Their life together has been an ideal one in its happiness and usefulness, now so clouded and devastated by death. Becoming a member of the First Baptist Church some ten years ago she continued to be actively engaged in every good work. For a time she conducted a class for boys in the Sunday School, and was always interested in the work of the choir. She was President of the Ladies Aid and a leading worker in the Red Cross Society. Also President of the Young Girls' Club.

In civic movements and interdenominational work she was always ready to do her share. In her passing the First Church has sustained a very heavy loss, and this city has lost a true friend. Her hosts of friends here and throughout the province feel her passing very keenly, for all who knew her admired and loved her. Her noble and true nobility of character, being as she was one of the most unselfish natures, always thinking about others, continually interested in the welfare of her city, ever ready to advance the cause of foreign missions, and a most faithful worker in her church, which she attended most regularly, and whose members always received her cheerful and hearty benediction. Her home life with grace and true womanliness, and her home had always the aroma of gracious hospitality. And because of this she will be greatly missed and missed of all by her devoted husband who has the deepest sympathy of all his fellow citizens. In his darkest day of sorrow, that a life lived in such a spirit has not been in vain, and will always remain a fragrant memory and worthy inspiration to others to do likewise. She succumbed to pneumonia which developed from influenza.
