FIFTY YEARS MARRIED

On June 25th, 1867 the marriage took place at Windsor of James B. Dickey, Canard to Ellen A., daughter of Thomas McLatchey, Windsor. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. M. Welton, D.D., pastor then at Windsor, and later a professor at Acadia and McMaster Universities.

They had a family of 10 children, his brothers and sisters. The two persons who were parties to this wedding contract are both alive and enjoying fairly good health and celebrated their Golden Wedding yesterday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. H. G. Harris, Kentville. They are now in the 87th year of their age. They resided at the farm Lower Canard for over 45 years and nearly five years ago moved to Kentville. Mr. Dickey though troubled with failing eyesight and hearing is most active for a man of his years. He belongs to a large family, the oldest surviving being Leander S. Dickey, a prominent hat manufacturer of Philadelphia.

Adelphi, Mrs. Adelaide Borden of North Grand Pre., Mrs. Armanda Bray of New Haven, U.S.A., Herbert S. Dickey residing on the homestead at Canard and Plemon Dickey also of Canard. His mother died a year ago, aged 107 years.

Mrs. Dickey has been confined to the house for three years with fractured hip but otherwise enjoys the best of health. She is the sole survivor of a family of 12 Mrs. Rebecca Rand of Port Williams and Mrs. William H. Hardwick of Canard being the most recent members of the family to be called Beyond.

It will be noted that Mr. and Mrs. Dickey began married life just one week before the Confederation of the Canadian Provinces.

The name of Gladys Olivia Newcombe Port Williams—was omitted from our published list of Normal students obtaining First Rank Diplomas.

The Bridgewater Bulletin says—Harold Pelton, of Kentville, spent a few days in town last week.

Mr. L. A. Lovitt, Mrs. Lovitt, and family of Halifax, are visiting at Kentville.

The Kentville Baptist Sunday School observed Childrens Day by giving a Sunday School Exercise in the Church Sunday evening instead of the regular preaching service. The little ones did themselves credit in recitations, drills, etc., considering the absence of many and lack of practice on account of the stormy weather that day.

Capt. E. F. Graves who has now enjoyed many years in business life at Kentville has volunteered for service for his country's welfare.

Capt. William McBride came home from Halifax to remain over Sunday. He is putting in strenuous work in training at Halifax before being assigned to other work.

General manager George E. Graham, of the D. A. R. and R. U. Parker, general passenger agent, had as their guests last week: Marie B. Lyon, New York, editor Vanity Fair; Mrs. A. L. Agler, New York, Designer of Vogue; Max Enos, New York, Manager C. P. R., T. V. Pierett, an eminent artist of New York, (who is here for several weeks painting scenes of the Evangeline country.) They came in Mr. Parker's private car as far as Annapolis or Saturday and may possibly visit Yarmouth later on. They are taking pictures along the line of railway which just now is putting on its loveliest appearance, rich with apple blossoms. Yarmouth Herald.

The many friends of Mrs. Annie Parker of Kentville will regret to learn of the sudden death in Boston of her eldest daughter, Lillian. The deceased was a bright and cheerful young lady, and news of her death will be received with genuine regret among her numerous friends throughout Nova Scotia and the United States. Miss Parker, who was in the 33rd year of her age, underwent an operation on Wednesday the 13th inst, in Boston and afterwards appeared to be resting quite easy, however, on the following day she grew rapidly worse and passed away on Thursday evening. Besides her bereaved mother, the deceased leaves six sisters and eight brothers. The funeral took place in Boston, Mass., on Saturday the 16th instant. (Boston and Halifax papers please copy.)
