very pleasant evening's entertainment Highest cash price paid for Pork at J. Thompson's. Mast Saturday evening a large party of friends were right royally entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Pierce at their home about a mile west of this village. The occasion for the gathering was the intended departure, for a visit to his parents in England, of Mr. N. W. Holbrook, who has resided with Mr. and Mrs. Pierce has resided with Mr. and Mrs. Pierce for several years, and who is now as-for several years, and years who is now as-for several years. for several years, and who is now asoccated with Mr. Pierce as his part-ner in business. The "farewell ner in business. The "farewell party" to Mr. Holbrook was in every party" to Mr. Holbrook was in every way a decided success, and all of the guests who had assembled to wish him a safe journey, a happy holiday and a speedy return, thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The supper was not only abundant and of a kind evidencing the superior skill of the hostess in this respect but was also so tempting that none could fail to enjoy it. joyable features to the entertainment it is impossible to mention all, but it would be wrong to omit mentioning the pleasure given to all by the music, instrumental and vocal, furnished by Mr. Alex. Compo, and Master Manfred Pierce Mrs. Fowler, and Miss Blanche Lawson. Mr. Compo, who has only lately returned from an extended visit to Brooklyn N. Y., has evidently not permitted his right hand to forget its cunning when handling the bow. After hours of enjoyment, and upon the clock warning the guests that in a few minutes Sunday would take the place of Saturday, the strains of music from the violin and organ as "Home, Sweet Home" was being played brought all to the room, and all joined heartily in singing "God Save the Queen." On taking their departure each ene felt that a very pleasant evening's entertainment had been enjoyed, and on every side could be heard wishes that Mr. Holbrook should be favored with a pleasant and safe passage homeward. Yesterday he started by the B. & W. train for Brockville and
