THE ARCTIC SUPPLIES

No Tenders Asked Says Deputy Minister Gourdeau.

But Witnesses Before Investigating Committee Declare They Were Quite Proper—Mr. Gourdeau Said All Supplies Purchased Can Be Accounted For Satisfactorily—Story of Capt. Bernier, Master of the Arctic.

Ottawa, June 6.—The committee to enquire into the purchase of supplies for the steamer Arctic for her trip to Hudson's Bay commenced work yesterday morning and called Col. Gourdeau, Deputy Minister of Marine and Fisheries, who said that four expeditions had been sent north in four years to explore and patrol Hudson Bay and other northern waters to establish Canadian authority. Col. Gourdeau read the statement made by Sir Wilfrid Laurier in the House on July 27, 1904, when $200,000 was voted to cover the voyage of the Arctic.

The vessel was to sail Aug. 15, 1904, but did not get away till Sept. 11. She returned in October, 1905. Major Moodie was in charge, and Captain Bernier was sailing master. The supplies for the voyage were purchased by the department to which the supplies were sent. H. B. Bourdeau of the Marine and Fisheries Department, to Quebec to check them off. His instructions were definite to open every parcel, except the barrels of pork, and see that the contents corresponded with a duplicate set of the orders with which he was supplied.

No Tenders Asked.

To Mr. Northrup witness said that in the purchase of supplies no tenders were called. The only stipulation made was that market prices should be paid. Captain Bernier had furnished the department with a list of the supplies wanted. Witness considered that for a three years' cruise the supplies asked for were not excessive. Captain Bernier had been asked by the department to send in this list. A quantity of the goods purchased is still on board the Arctic. Some which would not keep had been sold, but all could be accounted for satisfactorily. Only a small quantity of supplies would be necessary for this year's expedition.

Doctor Ordered Champagne.

Captain Spain, commander of the Canadian protective service, was called and said no supplies had been made under his supervision except some nautical instruments. The Minister, the deputy and himself had at first objected to the purchase of a quantity of champagne, but the ship's physician, Dr. Flood, had insisted that it was necessary. The quantity of champagne asked for seemed to be reasonable. He figured that they would last 40 men for 1,200 days.

He thought that ten cent cigars might be regarded as a little extravagant, but there was not too much tobacco. The British navy would issue a larger supply for a similar cruise. The quantity of 1,200 gallons of lime juice was not excessive. It allowed three-quarters of a gallon per month for each man. Neither was $22,000 for clothes or $15,000 for food excessive in view of conditions.

Col. Fred White, comptroller of the N.W.M.P., did not consider the aggregate order as being extravagant. The quality of the goods was of the highest. When the police were sent into the Yukon they were not supplied gratis with cigars, thirty year old ports and other luxuries. Cigars and tobacco were kept in stock, but the men had to pay for them. A reasonable supply of liquor was not only necessary, but desirable. Tobacco was a necessity.

Capt. Bernier's Story.

Capt. Bernier was examined yesterday afternoon. On June 22, 1904, he received instructions from Capt. Spain to send a requisition for food on a basis of for one man for 1,200 days. He did not know that the Arctic had become a mounted police boat, and made his requisition simply as for a ship going north. He said that he could not carry on the ship all the supplies in the requisition. In Quebec they had to repack a great many things, such as apples, flour, etc. They were repacked in tins covered with shellac. This was an added expense.

In August, 1904, Capt. Bernier said he received a further request from Capt. Spain to send a requisition for furs, clothing, boots, etc., for one man for 1,200 days. The cost would be $2,000.

In storing supplies he put the cargo in three different holds.

He left Quebec Sept. 17 and arrived at Port Burrow Oct. 1. At Port Burrow they met the Neptune and took from her a few things required for the depot. They also took on board a native and twelve dogs. There were forty-seven men on board, and one lady, Mrs. Moody, and the native. The witness said that they gave no stores to the Neptune in 1904, but gave stores to her in September, 1905, on the way back. The average number of crew and police they had to feed was fifty-four. Vessels adapted for such navigation would sail for four months of the year. The captain said that the "Arctic" was given out the proper time and in the proper places. They issued liquor on Thanksgiving Day, on Christmas Day and on New Year's Day, also on St. Patrick's Day, but not on St. Jean Baptiste Day.

Capt. Bernier said that in the north men eat half as much again as they do farther south. He figured his estimates on that basis. On a long trip they had to allow also 10 per cent for waste.

THE LANDS DEBATE.

Closed By the Defeat of Mr. Borden's Motion For a Committee.

Ottawa, June 6.—Mr. Crawford (Portage la Prairie) resumed the debate adjourned from Friday last upon R. L. Borden's motion for a special committee to investigate the abuses of the Land Department.

The Conservatives had decidedly the best of the debate. Mr. Roche (Marquette), Mr. Ames (Montreal), Mr. Sifton (Brandon) and Mr. Burrows (Dauphin) were the debaters.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier defended Mr.

Oliver's right to "edit" the reports of his subordinates.

Mr. Borden's motion for a committee was lost on division—yeas 52, nays 99. Senator Ferguson's New Senate. Ottawa, June 6.—In the Senate yesterday Hon. Senator Ferguson resumed the debate on Senate reform, and proposed a scheme of reorganization, fixing the age limit at sixty and giving the leader of the Opposition power to select Senators in proportion to the voting strength of his party at the preceding general election.

JIM REYNOLDS, PEDESTRIAN.

Walked From Port Hope to Toronto in 21.34 and Won His Bet.

Toronto, June 6.—James Reynolds, the 55-year-old Port Hope barber, arrived at the King Edward Hotel yesterday morning at 4.34, walking from his home in 21 hours 34 minutes, on a $135 wager that he would cover the 65 miles in 24 hours. He left Port Hope at 7 o'clock Tuesday morning. His average was 3.34 miles per hour. Reynolds was accompanied on his walk by two men in a rig. One referred to the train and the other held the stakes. The horse gave out at the Half-Way House.

Reception at Port Hope.

Port Hope, June 6.—The reception to the junior Ontario champions of the O. H. A. last winter was tame compared with that tendered to James Reynolds last evening on his arrival from Toronto after having walked from Port Hope to the Queen City for the wage of $135. Reynolds arrived on the 7.31 train and fully 1,000 citizens turned out to greet the veteran barber. As the train pulled into the Union Station the band played "See the Conquering Hero Comes!" When Reynolds appeared on the platform cheer after cheer went forth, and a triumphal tour of the town was then made.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK TRAIN.

Engineer's Watchfulness Saved Big Soo Train Full of Passengers.

Almonte, June 6.—One of the most dastardly attempts was made one and a quarter miles west of here to wreck a C. P. R. train yesterday morning. The train was a heavily loaded passenger train, and passed through Almonte nearly on time at 3.30.

Nearing the obstruction the engineer, by the aid of the electric searchlight, saw that there was an obstacle of some sort on the track, and brought the train to a standstill only a few feet from the bunch of railway ties which had been placed in a V shape across the track.

A more diabolical attempt at train-wrecking has never been attempted in Canada. The train was running 35 miles an hour.

ALTERED SAFE COMBINATION.

Young Bank Clerk Gets Away With a Big Sum.

Ottawa, June 6.—A young bank clerk named Ross, employed as teller at the branch of the Union Bank at Windsor, has been missing since May 23. He altered the combination of the safe at the bank, and a Montreal expert was required to open it.

It is said a large sum was found to be missing. It is variously stated at from $12,000 to $19,000, but sureties have covered liabilities.

Ross is but 19 years old, and had reputation of being a quiet, steady young fellow.

THAT OVERWORKED, PLAYED OUT FEELING AMONG WOMEN

There are thousands of females all over our land who are broken down in health and dragging out a miserable existence, overburdened with diseases peculiar to their sex, apparently growing old while yet young. Often they have pale or sallow complexion, hollow, sunken eyes, with a lifeless look; the face has a pinched and haggard appearance; they are weak, weary and trembling, often extremely nervous, starting at every little noise. Many are low-spirited, and some are fretful. Some are apparently bloodless, with cold hands and feet, while others are flushed by an unequal circulation of the blood, dizziness, and sometimes dimness of vision, loss of memory, and often loss of appetite and sleep, and are wearied with terrible dreams.

"Palpitation of the heart, nervous prostration, smothering and sinking spells; shortness of breath and the sensation of pins and needles are all indications of a weakened condition of the heart or nervous system, and should any of them be present we would strongly advise the use of

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

They bring health to the broken down, energy to the weakened constitution, tone up the tired, overstrained nerves, and strengthen the weak heart.

Mrs. Edward Jackson, Hall's Bridge, Ont., writes: "For a year I was greatly troubled with nervousness and loss of appetite, and could neither sleep nor eat. After taking a few boxes of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills I was completely cured and can recommend them to all suffering from similar troubles."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills 50 cents per box or three boxes for $1.25, all dealers or The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Two shakers are used to shake the heavy, triangular-shaped grates. This just cuts the work of shaking-down in half, besides being easier on the furnace than the old one-shaker style.

Being the 7th of a series of talks introducing sayings of great men, applicable to the Nordheimer Piano, the symbol to perfect music.

I've read that things inanimate have moved And as with living souls have been inform'd By magic numbers and persuasive sound—Congreve.

Those are the lines that follow Congreve's famous lines about music's charms. Everyone may agree with the poet as to the soothing of music, and perhaps a few understand what he means by the persuasiveness of sound on things inanimate. Whether it is true or not the fact remains that
