A Successful. Fabric.—We had the pleasure of paying a visit to the farm of Mr Benj. Ward, at Long Island, a few days since. It is very prettily situated and is in an excellent state of cultivation. Mr Ward gave us specimens from his postate field which were as large as good sized hen's eggs, and are the earliest we have heard of. He has corn which is now over three feet bigh. Mr Ward also received flattering comments from the medical fraternity present. He has been recreating a few days in Berwick and vicinity and we are pleased to see him Islands for Boston with a cargo of lumber, got sproud on the flats at the mouth of the fives over a fortnight ago, and, owing to the tides being very low, was unable to get off till Wednesday last she proceeded on her voyage.

> "The silver is mine, and the gold is nine, saith the Lord of Hosts."—Hag. 2:8, Longrettow.—To the poetic genius of Longfellow our province, and Wolfville in particular, is indebted for its place among the imperishable inspirations of song more than to any other honored name in Acadian history. His "Evange-line" is a legacy bequeathed to the "Acadian land" better than a million of gold. On the grounds in front of Acadia College Longfellow in bronze or marble on a pedestal of granite should grace that beautiful and classic hill-lide with his perpetual presence. It only wants an enthusiastic start in the right direction to

B. G. BISHOP ON BUYING.

To buy or not to buy: That is the question. Whether 'tls nobler in the mind to suffer the slings and arrows of outrageous dealers, or take arms against this sea of troubles and by opposing get bargains. To buy: To make purchase, and by that purchase we end the heart-ache and the thousand natural shocks that flesh is heir to. 'Tis a consummation devoutly to be wished for. To buy: To purchase: Perchance to be gulled. Ay! there's the rub; For in that purchase I can give
