—The other day at New York thousands of crates of vegetables of various kinds were thrown into the sea. Nine thousand crates were condemned to the sea or sent back to shippers on that day. The New York Sim explains that the reason for this costly sacrifice was that the market was glutted with vegetables, and prices had fallen to almost nothing. New York is the greatest market in the whole of the sixty million country to which the commercial unionists are so anxious to introduce Canadian farmers.—Harm's malnifeld with fine gold threads, are more mercial unionists are so anxious to introduce Canadian farmers.—Harm's malnifeld with the commercial unionists are so anxious to introduce Canadian farmers.—Harm's malnifeld with the commercial unionists are so anxious to introduce Canadian farmers.—Harm's malnifeld with the commercial unionists are so anxious to introduce Canadian farmers.—Harm's malnifeld with the commercial unionists are so anxious to introduce Canadian farmers.—Harm's malnifeld with the commercial unionists are so anxious to introduce Canadian

From yonder gilded minaret Beside the steel-blue Neva set, I faintly catch, from time to time, The sweet, aerial midnight chime-"God save the Tsar!"

Above the ravelins and the moats Of the grim citadel it floats; And men in dungeons far beneath Listen, and pray, and gnash their "God save the Tsar!" he soft reiterations sweep

Across the horror of their sleep, As if some demon in his glee Vere mocking at their misery—
"God save the Tsar!" n his Red Palace over there, Vakeful, he needs must hear the praye How can it drown the broken cries Wrung from his children's agonies? "God save the Tsar!"
