Buffalo, Oct. 4.-William Boyle tried to swallow too large a mouthful of a steak which he was eating at a restaurant at 24 Main street last night. He choked to death.

Sergeant Higgins of the first precinct, was passing by when Boyle began to strangle. Higgins was called into the restaurant, but was unable to relieve the man. He then telephoned to police station No. 1 for a patrol wagon to remove the man to the Emergency Hospital.

The wagon, which was answering another call, chanced to pass the restaurant a minute later. Boyle was placed in it. He died while the wagon was being rushed to the hospital full speed.

The dead man was about 30 years old. He had been rooming at the Home-stead lodging-house, 24 Lloyd street.

SCRAP BOOK POETRY

OCTOBER'S BRIGHT BLUE WEATHER. O suns and skies and clouds of June, And flowers of June together, You cannot rival for an hour October's bright blue weather.

When load the bumblebees make haste, Beated, thrifless, vagrant, And goldenrod is dying fast, And lanes with grapes are fragrant;

When the gentians roll their fringes tight To save them for the morning, And chestnuts fall from satin burrs Without a sound of warning;

When all the lovely wayside things Their white-winged seeds are sowing, And in the fields still green and fair, Late afternoons are growing;

When spring runs low, and in the brooks In idle glades freighting Bright leaves sink noiseless in the hush of woods, for winter waiting;

When comrades seek sweet country haunts, And fondly hold the day together, And count the weeks and months, and years, October's bright blue weather.

Every business and professional man in the city should take advantage of this class. The work is graded, consisting of drills with light dumb bells, wands, chest weights and followed by games, running, etc. Plenty of warm and cold water to finish off with. It makes the man of fifty like a man of thirty.

IN GLANFORD.

Happy Matrimonial Event at Mr. S. Hyslop's.

A pretty wedding took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. S. Hyslop, Glanford, on Wednesday, Sept. 29, when their youngest daughter, Hannah, was united in marriage to Stanley McKennell, of Binbrook. The ceremony, which took place under a beautiful arch of evergreen and maple leaves was performed by Rev. Mr. Morris and Rev. S. Sakiskian. The bride was given away by her father, and was handsomely gowned in white embroidery and carried a beautiful bouquet of white carnations and maiden hair fern. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Tillie Ashbaugh, who wore a beautiful dress of mauve, and carried white asters, and Mr. Ernie Smith, cousin of the groom, acted as best man. Miss Margaret Fleming played the wedding march. The bride's going away suit was of green broadcloth, with hat to match. The groom's gift to the bride was a rich set of furs; to the bridesmaid a gold brooch, to the best man gold cuff links. After the ceremony the guests, numbering 125, sat down to a sumptuous repast, which was followed by speeches from Revs. Morris and Sakiskian. Dr. Boyce, Dr. McIlwraith, Mr. D. Reed, M. P. F., and Mr. Senn. The beautiful and costly presents testify to the high esteem in which the bride and groom are held by their many friends. After congratulations and best wishes, amid a shower of rice, the happy couple left for a short honeymoon.
