Special notices in local column 10 cents per line for first insertion; 5 cents per line each subsequent insertion.

Special arrangements made with parties wishing to occupy more than half a column space. Liberal termsmade with yearly ad-

Tuesday Morning. DOJIVI The attention of subscribers is directed to the following

LEGAL DECISIONS IN NEWSPAPER CAESS 1—Any person who takes a paper regular-ly from the post-office—whether directed to his name or another's or whether he has subscribed or not—is responsible for pay-

2—If a person orders his paper discont inued he must pay up all arreatages, or the publisher may continue to send it until payment is made and collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not not.

3.—The courte have decided that he to take newspapers and periodicals from the Post Office or semioving and leaving them uncalled for is prima facts evidence of intentional fraud.

PAUDININE Cvacats and Trade Marks colored and all Patent Business conducted for MODER. agencies. All business direct, hence can transact patent business in less time and at LESS COST than those remote from Washngton.

Send model, drawing or photo, with description. We advise it patentable of not free of charge. Our les not due till patent A book, "How to Obtain Patents, with references to actual clients in State, county or town, sent free. Address or town, sent free. Address

C. A. SNOW J. O.

Opposite Patent Office, Washington D. C.

INSURANCE

Fire & Life Insurance Agency GOOD RISKS SOLICITED FOR The Lancashire Fire Insurance

The Liverpool, London & Globe Fi The Standard Life Insurance Company, C. J. OSMAN.

Hillshoro, AbCos O Leather Manufacture.

HARVEY TANNERY. Upper, Calf and Harness Leather manu-ctured and kept on hand. Best quality of SOLE LEATHER

Hand Made oots

Oil Tanned Larrikans a Specialty. Orders for which are new solicited, to be selivered next Autumn. GOOD PRICES PATD FOR HEMLOCK

ARK. COUNTRY PRODUCE TAKEN IN EXCHANGE FOR GOODS. CASH PAID FOR HIDES.

W. H. A. CASEY Proprietor.

Harvey, A. Co., May 26, 1888.

The People's Favorite. My Studio has now become the favor ite resort for strangers visiting the tow

SOMETHING NICE in the portrait line. I not only make portraits which are perfect like ARTISTIC in every detail and course in the saint sal admiration of the public.

NO PHOTOS delivered from my establishment withou

MY PERSONAL INSPECTION. in stock large lines of Ame oil raintings, Engravings, etc., etc

The Public cordially invited when i Moneton

Northrup's New Studio.

1812 HOUSEHOLD SPECIFIC-The great External Remedyl Used in diseases where an external appl in diseases where an external appli-cation is indicated it never fails Nearly 100 years before the public. Once introduced into a family, they never will be without it. In Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Gouty Swelling of the Hands or Feet, Burns, Scalds, Bruises, Sprains; Soreness of the Miscles, etc., its effect is magical. Keepit in the house for any anis all emergencies; it willnever dis-apoint you. Only 35c. a bottle, and you'll say its worth 55 5c/1 by all druggists DR.A. L. SLAWSt !!, Manufacturing Chem-

MEN Our Specific No. 23 permanently restores EXHAUSTED VITALITY, LOST MAN-Less Than Three Cents a Week. The Free Press is a large eight-page sever

C. P. Curtis & Co.

Produce Commission Merchants. 76 ATLANTIC AVENUE BOSTON, MAS Solicit consignments of all kinds produce such as Hay, Potatoes, Apple., Eggs, Poultry (alive or dressed,) or anything else parties wish to ship to this market on sale. Fish of all kinds in their seasons. Quick sales. Prompt

CHARGES MODERATE For one dollar and twenty-five cent CHE OBSERVER and Farm and Fireside

Heekly

Observer

lowered to Ronald's side.

These words broke the spell.

leading to the capture of this gang.

The entire party then followed the windings of the cave, which gradually ascended, and soon emerged into the open some crooked work a short time before:

but died of consumption a week before

On this confession, the judge who had

The next day Thornton made

DEVOTED TO LITERATURE, EDUCATION, TEMPERANCE, and GENERAL INTELLIGENCE

HILLSBORO, ALBERT COUNTY, N. B., THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1889.

The Weekly Observer.

eyes
And wakes the sleeping-me

the day
And find their work again

do, Ur take the task loved best

For God allots the places and Obeys His high behest.

One (loving silence) passes to the And mindles with sheerested 1. And finds his daily work awaiting Where noise is long and loud.

Alone within one room.

Passes (in sordid ways
And uncongenial sights and sounds)

The hours of his best days,

And yet another, who could

And do it thankfully,
Has nought to but suffer and t
Impatience, perfectly.

Are, then, the workers at Unhappy, and unblest?

The feet, pass swiftly to the

The lips, break into so And ready hands, receive

Joy fills the working days.

Itself, becomes more dear shall do.

He who chooses fo

Because the loyal heart is true to God

Another, loving beauty, air and light,

An Illus trated Literary Journal for HILLNBORO, N. B., Feb. 14, 1889. 16 Pages Monthly. Published at Cleveland, Ohi

YOUTH'S FRIEND.

It contains departments of Stories: Social Etiquette; Temperance; Nature and Science; ur Girls; Inquiries Answer ed; Humorous; Good Heal th: Music ; Home Recrea tions; Adventure; Art!; Puzzles, Etc. OUR YOUTH'S FRIEND is bright, sparkling said pure; just the paper that every father and mother, who have the welfare of their children at heart, will feel disposed to place upon their reading table. The editor has had welve years experience in editing for the young, and all this expended is brought to bear upon making up OUR YOUTH'S FRIEND.

This valuable Young People's paper will be sent together with THE WEEKLY OBSERVER one year for $1.15. TWO GOOD FAMILY PAPERS FOR ONLY $1.15. Now is the time to sub-

LONDON, PARIS New York

MIE INERY.

Personally Selected. We invite everybody to inspect our showing. We take pleasure in

SHOW ROOMS

BEAUTIFUL GOODS

THE PUBLIC. and do not-

Cold Liquor Tamed Leather opportunity. GRAVES & FOSTER.

HARVEY. ALBERTICO .. GENERAL STORE

Commission Merchants. —DEALERS IN—

The WEEKLY OBSERVER is pleased nounce the completion of special arrange ments whereby it is enabled to offer it readers two of the best of family journal for but little more than the price of one.

FOR $1.50

Press.

$3,000,00 IN CASH prizes for the three best Serial Stories of 60,000 words each. A number of the best written expressly for The Free Press by th best American and English authors. It will be seen, therefore, that by sub-scribing for The Observer and The Free ite home paper also. Sample copies can be seen at this office.

EACH WEEK,

We hope that our friends will show the

OBSERVER PUBLISHING CO. Hills Boro, A. Co., N.B

WANTED! Special News

CORRESPONDENTS to represent leading English and American papers. Previous experience not absolutely necessary. Most Send all subscriptions to liberal terms for good service.

pronounced the sentence by the neek until dead. Special attention given to hipm Hay. Posters, Pilitar etc The evidence had been purely ci tantial. A few months before the date of our story, the cashier of the First National Bank in the small city of Upon a Plan Newarkville, had been murdered and the pank robbed, and the crime had widently been committed by some one familiar with the interior of the building.

the clerks, a man about torty years of age, by the name of Preston. He was he last man who had seen Relcomb, the cashier, alive, and, upon search being made, a pertion of the missing bank notes The Weekly Observer was found in a false compartment at the bottom of his desk, which was discovered The Detroit Free by the book keeper, who seemed to take delight in unearthing all the evidence possible. Noted legal council had been engaged on both sides, and the trial was The Free Press is without question the Greatest Literary and Humorous paper now before the American people. It is not a new aspirant for public favor; established over fifty years ago, it has stood the test of time, and is to-day stronger, better and more popular than ever—120,000 subscribers affirm its surpassing excellence. The funny sketches and sayings of The Free Press are everywhere quoted and laughed at, while in separate to literary excellence, it will comone of great interest; but, owing to the complete chain of circumstantial evidence, which had been wound around the prisoner, the verdict was a foregone con-usion. And this was the e hanged by the neck until dead." At the close of the trial, the only son of the condemned, a stardy, well grown young man of eighteen led his almost Hose Hartwick Thorpe, Chas. F. Adams, Hamilton Jay, Lizzie Yorke Case, Bronson Howard, H. C. Dodge, and a host of other favorite writers, contribute regularly to its columns. Recognizing the growing demand for first-class fiction, The Free Press has lainting mother from the court room Strenuous efforts were made to have the sentence commuted to imprisonment for life but to no avail Three months sped swiftly by, the time for the execution was drawing near, when the town was again startled by an event unprecedented in the his tory of the place—the mysterious ababout seventeen years of age.

THREE SERIAL STORIES Ronald Preston, the son of the ner, who firmly believed in his father's for some clew to the real perpetrators of the crime, and now, here was another ncentive to diligence—the task of finding the abductors, and rescuing his betrothed—for Ronald Preston and sweet Minnie Holcomb had been all in all to ach other for the past few years, and olumn paper, and the regular price is One bollar per year. Remember. that for $1.50 ou can have The Free Press and your favoronly waited until they were a little older efore joining their fortunes for life.

Ronald had no doubt but that the murder and the abduction were comnitted by the same person or person and worked himself into a periest fever in his vain efforts to find a clew. But here he was on the afternoon before the day set for the execution, just as far

Weary and heartsick, he started or a long tramp, hoping by physical exertion to cool his fevered brain. Mechanically, and by no will of hi own, his steps led him toward the cliff,

"$1000 REWARD!

The above reward will be paid for any information leading to the capture of a got over her tantrums yet?"

"No," replied Jim, "she is to have their hiding place in this vicinity. (Published by Request.) The morning light falls gently

Suddenly his attention was attracted by a faint, far away cry, seeming to some from the earth beneath him. He prang to his feet and listened with eathless attention for a repetition of he sound. Once again came the cry, the way, Jim, are you going to the exefainter than before : but this time the ar of love could not be deceived; and Ronald recognized the voice of the one the was dearer to him than life itself. The thought that he was near her, Where should he search? These were Thornton's mistake. But he did not others came down. the questions that rushed through his mind when suddenly, like an inspiration.

came the remembrance of an old cave, which he had often visited in younger days, and which had two entrances, one father and son out of the way very nearly at the top of the cliff and the other about haif way down the side.

With hope cheering his heart, and gan a hasty but thorough search, and was rewarded by finding the mouth of the cave, which was stopped up with his eye caught some marks on the rock at the edge, which looked as if made by the nails in a boot heel.

Satisfied now that he was on the right track, he was stooping over to force his seized from behind, and a voice which sounded strangely familiar to him, hissed in his car : "You shall pay dearly for your curiosity, curse you !"

As his captor began to drag him back wards, Ronald, who had been quiet thus far, from sheer surprise, suddenly bent his head and seized one of the villain's grasp on his captive.

was the man who had murdered Mr. Holcomb and abducted Minnie.

But he did not have much time thought, for Thornton was on him again like a tiger, knowing full well that if Ronald should escape, it was all up with what he lacked in weight and muscle he made up in agility. It was a desperate struggle, and, as they swayed back and forth, their short breathing soon showed that both were becoming exhausted.

During their efforts to gain the mast ery, they had unconscious y worked to wards the edge of the cliff, and now were on the very verge of it, a fact which Thornton suddenly noticed with a cry of exultation; and, with one supreme effort, he forced Ronald to his knees. For one disay moment he held him suspended on the very edge, and then with a desperate shove pushed him over.

lionald's heart had gone up in prave during that awful moment when he realised his danger, but as he felt himself falling, one despailing shrick left his line. and then he became unconscions

Fortunately for him the descent more gradual than in other places, and partially covered with underbrush so that, after falling about thirty or forty feet, he lodged in a thick clump of bushes, a fact that was not noticed by his late antagonist above, who had rushed from the spot as soon as Bonald had disappeared from

Just how long he lay there Ronald did not know, but he was aroused at last, by duction of the only daughter of the murdered cashies, a lovely joung girl of ing himself to a sit ing posture, as well as his bruised and aching limbs would permit, he gazed around him with bewildering stare.

At first, he could hardly soon where he was, but as he glanced at the height above him, it all rushed over his mind with staining force—the cry, his search, the encounter, his fall. And now he must set his with to work to find some way out of his predicament. As he lay there, pondering this subject, the fain sound of voices in conversation seame to his ____ and soon two men passed along a parrow path, which Ronald had not noticed before, see blose to his place of refuge that he could almost have stretch ed forth his hand and touched them. "You say, Thouston, that it must have een along here somewhere, that you pushed the boy over? Might he not have lodged in some of those bushes up there?" and the speaker stopped as if h had some intention of making a search. Ronald's heart leaped into his threat, for, if they found him now, they would Once only did he stop, and then it was for the fishes down there by this time. I interruption. read this notice, which was posted in gave him too hard a push for him to land anywhere but at the bottom. But was sufficiently recovered to tell his story, to change the subject; how has the girl to which all listened with undisguised behaved since I was here last? Has she amazement.

> "No," replied Jim, "she is as stubborn as the devil. Can't do anything with to take Ronald along as a guide, they is my wife, and that she shall be this very night I suppose she is love-sick reached the cliffs, and some of the men cution to-day?" like a thunderbolt on Ronald's ear. If spot. this was the day of the execution, then A long, stout rope was then produced, he must have lain there in a stunor all and, tying it around his waist. Rouald ad that she needed his protection sent night. But it surely must be a mistake, was carefully lowered into the black only widely known man in the new cabthe youth's blood up to the boiling point. But it surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, was called in the surely must be a mistage, which is surely must be a mistage, and the surely must be a mistage, which is surely must be a mistage, which is surely must be a mistage, and the surely must be a mistage, which is surely must be a mistage, which is surely must be a mistage, which is surely must be a mistage, and the surely must be a mistage, which is surely must be a mistage, and the sur other, expecting that he would correct first, so as to locate the path before the

"No; I guess not. I don't believe it would be very healthy for me there if I and the gave two quick jerks on the Senator Allison felt the emberrassues should be recognized. You got the rope, as a signal for the rest to descend. comb, the cashier. Hey, Thornton?" "Oh, shut up, Jim, and let that rest," bringing a new light to his eyes, he be-said Thornton, as he glanced nervously around him, as if fearful that even the rocks had ears. tones and rubbish. He was about to these villians cooly talking about the render the ascent very difficult. Ronald's blood was boiling. To hear give up his search in that direction when execution of an innocent man—his own asperating in the highest degree.

It seemed as if the two men never inway into the cave, when he was suddenly rose to his feet, and looking at his watch, he said .

"Well, in one hour and a half, the only man beside yourself, who knows my out into a magnificient chamber, the ourrently reported that the preposed bill secret, will be dead, and then I shall whole scene being lighted by the glare of follows the approaches to of the desired will be breathe freely once more. But come on: a dozen torches. I want to take a look at my caged beauty this morning."

Waiting till they had disappeared around a turn in the path, Ronald turn-With a head of pain he loosened his of his present awkward position. There darkness.

> of the declivity. But, look! The last uttered this sentence : bush he takes hold of is slowly giving "If any one has aught way under his weight, and it seems as if this man and woman should not be he must surely fall back again. But, joined in the bonds of wedlock, let them full of sins and with so little. with a desperate effort, he seizes a stout now speak, or forever hold their peace." bush that grows on top of the bank, and draws himself once more upon level footing, where he lies panting and exhausted and almost unable to rise.

But he must not give way like this. Thornton like a log to the floor, at the This is the and of surget tries that his aching muscles together, and setting his teeth hard, he start d off on a sharp

The hour for the execution has come The doomed prisoner is led forth, breath ing once more, and for the last time, God's pure, fresh air, and feasting his eyes upon the beauties of nature.

Onward with a steady step, he walked to the foot of the scaffold. Into the pres- of five dollar hills so many of which had ence of the assembled multitude-for the execution was to be public.

Without a tremor, and with a calm ness born of peace with God, and a con-This explained to Ronald the notice he ciousness of his own innocence, he allows had read the day previous; and we will his gaze to rest for a moment upon the add right here that he received the nstrument of death then on the expect- $1000 reward offered for information

Not a sound is heard as he mounts the steps of the scaffold, the sheriff and his deputy on either side of him

Upon reaching the scaffold he was air on top of the cliff, and the prisoners given permission to say a word of fare- were then conveyed to the jail. well, and stepping forward he said: "Friends and neighbors: It is hard confession. He acknowledged having ious death, for life is sweet to all, and bank, and then placed the bank note in we oling to it to the end. But God Preston's desk, in order to arouse suspicion against him. His spite against Preston nows best. Farewell." He then turned and told the sheriff that he was ready, and the final prepar-His arms were pinioned behind his ack; his ankles were strapped together; the black cap and deadly noose were carefully adjusted, and the sheriff stands ready to spring the fatal trap. One the time set for his execution.

The rest of the counterfeiters minute more and all will be over. But listen! What means that shout sentenced to long terms of imprisonmen at hard labor.

A year later there was a grand wed Every eye turns in the direction from whence it comes.

See! a figure comes rushing down the hill, dusty, wild-eyed, and evidently completely exhausted; but stopping for pothing he rushes through the around Preston's narrow escape. pletely exhausted; but stopping for othing, he rushes through the crowd, which opens to let him pass, up to the very foot of the scaffold, and with the pain of outing teeth? et a bottle of Mrs. W! have found the guilty one," exhausted that of the paint of the nature gives way, and our hero sinks down in a dead faint. Kind hands lift him un and carry make short work of him; but his fears into the nearest house, while the sh

Our Washington Letter.

NO.50

It was over an hour before Bonald It General Harrison's far cry to Sene A posse of twenty stout, well-armed maker. All else is conjecture. Mr. men was soon formed, but, as they wished Platt's friends very mildly regret that Senator Allison has again rejected the were forced to wait until he had suffi-Treasury postfolio, for they now think ciently recovered for that purpose. they see a golden feast for themselves in To the Independent Electors Consequently, it was dark when they that Department There is now decided now after that young Preston. But, by doubted that they would be able to find talk of either John C. New or William McKinley for the Treasury as it is ed it well, even in his excitement, and known that Ges. Harrison wants a West-"Execution to-day!" The words fell was able to guide the men directly to the ern man who is not connected with Walk! man, for Mr. Blaine must not be the inet. Does not all this point to Mr. McKipley?

Senator Allison's refusal, it is semi officially stated, may be "deemed figal, After some search he found the clump of bushes that probably saved his life, Mr. Harrison having so accepted it. of the position, but could not see the Five of the men were left at the top necessity of making a bard offering of at the same time, to say nothing of Hol- as a guard, and the rest were quickly himself. It would have meant the ab-After listening for some moments to prospects for 1892. The supplications make sure that their movements had not been noticed by any one, they silently that if he refused he would leave Iowa and cautiously moved up the rocky path, unrepresented in the next cabinet were which was so steep in some places as to but the whinings of a hangry pack who wanted to divide the Treasury Depart-After proceeding this way for some ment among themselves, over the ruins father—and to think that he himself time, they came to the mouth of a large of his presidential aspirations. The must lie there perfectly helpless, was ex cavern. Entering cautiously into the Senator would not have to be more than thick blackness, they moved slowly on- half as cantly as he is to see that.

ward for a su ort distance, when suddenly The members of the Ways and Means tended to move on, but at last Thornton a thrilling sight burst upon their gase. Committee of the House are making a The cave here made a sudden bend at desperate effort to affec upon a conalmost right angles with the outer en promise tariff bill Whigh they desire to transs, and beyond this point widened present to the House next week. It is Around the sides of the room lounged to rim and who attempted to remedy half's dozen rough-looking, roughly-clad the defect by cutting a place off one end men." But it was a group of three in the and sewing it so, to; the obtain in The centre of the spartment that riveted the Senate bill, omitting the material in the fingers in his teeth, and bit it to the bone. ed his attention to the task of getting out gase of those standing in the outer arts" clause and several high protection with a new of pain he loosened his rasp on his captive.

This was the opportunity Ronald was booking for, and with a dexterous moveoking for, and with a dexterous movethis, and that was to climb up the way stantly recognized as Thornton, the bookto this purpose the committee is hold-Is work that brings good cheer

A Narrow Escape.

By James Morris, Jr.

The trial was ended. The verdiet of the jury had been 'guilty of murder in the first degree,' and the gray-haired the first seemed to him an principal witnesses against his father, and that was to climb up the way between the first and the was to climb up the way be the had come down. But could he do it? Ah! but he must. The thought of his father's danger, and his affianced wife in the hands of the villain Thornton nerved him to the task before him.

Slowly, very slowly, he moves upward, and at last, after what seemed to him an principal witnesses against his father, and that was to climb up the way be head come down. But could he do it? Ah! but he must. The thought of his father's danger, and his affianced wife in the hands of the villain Thornton nerved him to the task before him.

Slowly, very slowly, he moves upward, and at last, after what seemed to him an principal witnesses against his father, and that was to climb up the way because in the book keeper, was supporting a beautiful girl, Ah! but he must. The thought of his who appeared to be nearly fainting with fear. In front of, and facing them, who appeared to be nearly fainting with fear. In front of, and facing them, because the first danger, and his affianced wife in the hands of the villain Thornton nerved him to the task before him.

Slowly, very slowly, he moves upward, book keeper, who had been one of the hands of the villain Thornton nerved him to the task before him.

Slowly, very slowly, he moves upward, book keeper, who had been one of the hands of th bill will be: In addition to every other obstacle, the preparation is ne > cover them. With a bound like an enraged lion, finally reached a conclusion it is estab Ronald sprang forward, and, with one lished that President Harrison will have blow from the butt of his revolver, felled an additional cabinet officer to appoint His father's life depends upon his exer- same time catching the fainting form of been more or less active ever since Gentions for the next half hour. One half his darling Minnie in his arms. It was eral Grant's first term, and is but tardy hour-and four miles to travel. Pulling some time before she regained conscious ju tice to the farming interests, which ness ; but Rouald's kisses and endearing will at last have a Secretary and a Denames prevailed at last, and she opened partment of Agriculture. The so-called her sweet, blue eyes, and smiled into his Agricultural Department has long held A THIS SPACE IS RESERVED TO curious position, being, neither a Depart The members of the gang were over ment proper por a bureau net any De powered and secured without any blood partment. The pecestity for a new shed. A thorough search was then division of the administrative branches made, resulting in the finding in another of the Government is necessary Behold apartment a complete set of engraver a the absurdity of a Secretary of the Intertools, dies, etc., and also a large number for having to consider patents; "lands, pensions, Indians education and labor recently been put into circulation, and It would be just as appropriate to have which were so perfect that they could no divisions into Depart hardly be detected from the genuine.

The leading officials of the prese and Secretary Bayard has about consented to dispose of his and permanently remove from Washington; ;; It is expec ed that John Wansmaker will purchase the residence at present leased by Secre tary Whitney, Attorney, General Can land will retain his / remder on was his Moskrat Villas and Diskinson will return to the wild and woolly West without murdered Mr. Holcomb, robbed the much ido, owning neither houses nor ands at the Capital Nobody has sufficient interest in the matter to ask Mr. Endicott about the folding of his tent. arose from having been caught by him in

The British Extradition trensy; dynamite olause and alls has been rejected by a wete of 38 to 15. in the Benate. The ntenced Preston gave an order for his Senate committee had long tinkered with this bill in the vain hope of bliving it serve some good end! with the dynamite plause omitted, but was in mage ful The only Senator who vig rously sup ported the dynamite proposition, whole for the extradition of political off a lers. was Senator Edinunds whose histor for being in the minority rather grows upon

You don't pick unamany thing mormusingly snobbish than an advertisen St. John's church. In all seriouspess the motion slowed (Hithe Best of Anglet Se. resces will be given star The wirship of the Lowly One of Nasarcth is often a cloak for more things, than once

the County of Afbert street or syndicates. It is a prime vacant by the resignation of H. K. Senecessity that he should be a very strong man, for Mr. Blaine must not be the only widely known tran in the new cab.

sand general interests of all party consideration poctive of personal or party consideration Soliciting your support, I am, Gendema Your Obedient Servant

PETRIX DUPPT.

Hillsboro, Feb. 7th, 1889

ASSESSORS' NOTICE

shall be posted at Geo. Barnett House the store of The Albert Manufacturia in the Parish are requested to send in the Assessors a list of all persons in the espective Districts liable to or District school purposes. WM, H. GROSS, EDWARD WOODWORTH.

JOSEPH W. STEEVES, Hillsborough, Feb. 4, 1889. NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that an appli

NOTICE.

All persons are hereby cautio M. Tingley, or order, and dated the day of January, A. D. 1889, page six months after date, with interest six months after date, with interest the same was fraudulently obtained?

Dated at Harwey January, 25, 18

L. W. LAWRENCE

W. H. DUFRYS

NEW ADVERTISEMENT

Consumption Cured. 34.51

simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Broadsitt, Catarria' Asthma and all throat and Long Affections, also a positive and radical Oute for Kervous Debility and all Norvous Conplaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has elt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this most we are a clearly for the conference of charge, to all who desire it the send free of charge, to all who desire it the recipe, in German, French of English, with full directions for preparing and configurations by maning this paper, W.A. Nova, las Personalisa in the control of the control naming this paper, W. A. Nova, 149 Page

Send sheeription of your scalp, with start to teply, and address DR. A. L. SLAWSON of Bright or cost avenue, Boston 2 poisonous powders that all up the pores of the skin and eagender incurable discuss.

DERMACURE cures planted to blockes black-heads worst forms of tacial disfigure on hands and face, it leaves white and heatthy. Cures chapped 1 one night, and is a sure preventative of les. The only preparation ever deviationing the skin. Sold by all of $1 per.box. DR. A. L. SLAWSON,