TONS OF STOLEN

NEW YORK, April 23-Five men are under arrest today. Five tons of stolen silk valued at $218,000 have been recovered and the police believe a band of thieves who have stolen millions of dollars worth of merchandise from freight cars in the last two years has been unearthed. Further arrests are expected.

The men under arrest were captured in a roadhouse at Mespeth, L.I., after a fight with detectives, The recovered silk was found in a garage near the road house. The police assert it was stolen March 8 from a freight car in the New York Central yards. Arrest of a New York business man the police declare, is probable. It is asserted that the man has handled stolen goods valued at more than
