

Garbraid. FROM HIS SUMMER CAMPAIGN.—Our busy architect, Wm Morris, has returned from Ashfield, where he planned and put up some mammoth buildings for some of the thriving farmers, and among them the barn of P O'Connor. Inside of the stone work Mr M has fitted up for the stabling of the farm stock, with maple and cedar timber for the stalls. We are informed that several others of the craft put in tenders for the work, but our architect of 27 years' experience swept all clean with his knowledge. During his stay at Mr C's and other places he had a good time, and had to tell many eager listeners about the gate post in Goderich township which he had planted upon a bottle of whisky to make it stand straight, and wanted the jovial lads of Ashfield to do likewise when they put up a new rate.

Dunlop. Two firms of hay packers have been pressing hay in this neighborhood, the Bates hay press of Goderich, being one of them. The last of the season's city like our day, and their comrade J. Horton, a former resident, who acts as a cicerone, showing them all the objects of interest in our clachan.

Our former resident, the jovial York-shireman gave our burz a visit the other day, with a gleaming butcher knife, and assisted in killing a number of porkers, the first of the season, at our farm-house.

The sunny and cheerful countenance of our sturdy collector of the township, gathering in the shekels for the municipal exchequer was here last week. One of the ratepayers growled loudly on the high rate of school tax in No 6, which led to William and him having a grand debate over the new school about to be formed here.

Fort Albert. J. ... of Manchester, formerly of Goderich, has commenced business here in the shoemaking line. Mr McEwen, we understand, is a first-class shoemaker, and being a sober, industrious, hard working man will no doubt do a thriving business. Success to him.

Messrs. Hamilton & Matheson have commenced work on fellow's bridge. They expect to have the piling completed by next Tuesday.

Mrs Sanderson, of Goderich, is the guest of her brother, Randal Graham.

There is a good opening here for a wagon maker, there being no wood worker of any kind here now and none nearer than Dunnington of Goderich. A wagon maker should certainly find this a good place to locate.

The comments of the "Ajax" in last week's SIGNAL, on the withdrawal of the petition against M. P. Porter, were thoroughly appreciated by the Reformers of this section.

Some of the folks thought there was a fire or a dog-fight, or something going on at the "Royal" on Tuesday. Seeing so many of our residents hurrying in that direction. But it proved to be only Robert Porter, our worthy M.P. who was on his way to Lucknow, and had stopped to take dinner. Mr Porter, who was seated at the table when the mob of Tories commenced to arrive, hurriedly finished his report, buttoned up his overcoat, remarked to the assembled multitude, who were pushing and elbowing and tumbling over each other in their eagerness to have the first "shake," "It's a fine day, gentlemen; beautiful weather for this time of the year," and got into his rig and escaped.

The Tories present were terribly disgusted at this treatment, particularly an old granger, who, after gazing long and earnestly at the retreating form of our redoubtable Robert, remarked, "Well, blame those infernal rascals, anyhow. When they're sneaking around the country looking after votes, they'd climb over hen-roosts, wade up to their knees in a manure heap, or go down in the bottom of a well, to shake hands and ask you how you're folks, but once they're elected, they'll hardly look sideways at you." Yes, you're right, Bub, "For ways that are dark, and tricks that are vain.

The Tory M. P., are peculiar. Which the same you are free to maintain.

Dunnington. Rev A McMillan, Smith's Hill and Manchester station, preached in Erskine church last Sabbath. Subject—"Thanksgiving for the Harvest," on which he gave a good and practical discourse. There was a large attendance.

Rev D G Cameron conducted services in Manchester and Smith's Hill, by way of exchange of pulpits with Rev A McMillan, Sabbath last.

Thos Stothers, of Colborne, had an auction sale of stock, etc., on Saturday last. The popular auctioneer, Joe Malough, wielded the hammer, and as usual succeeded well.

John Washington has retired from farming, and taken up his residence in Goderich. We are sorry to lose him as he was a good farmer and citizen.

The W C T U in this village is to meet on Saturday afternoon in Erskine church. We understand that they are doing a good work.

The Band of Hope also meets on the same day in the same place. There are upwards of thirty young people in connection with it. Success to it.

Winter apparently is assuming its prerogative, as quite a quantity of snow has fallen. Mother Earth being clothed in a white garb at present.

A large quantity of coarse grain is being hauled through this village from Colborne and this locality to Lucknow. Query—What are Goderich grain buyers doing!

W Auckland, carriage maker, we are happy to state, is getting better and has resumed work, and will promptly attend to any orders in his line of business.

Thos Sanderson, we regret to state, is afflicted with erysipelas, and what makes his condition more deserving of sympathy is his daughter has been afflicted for some time. We sincerely hope that they will soon recover, and surmount the trials which they are at present called upon to endure.

Ashfield. The pupils of S. S. No 5, are making preparations for a Christmas entertainment. The officials of the church, and Sabbath school at Zion are making arrangements for their annual tea-meeting.

Water is again getting very scarce. Some of the wells are giving out. The meales have broken out in the vicinity and in consequence one a number of the pupils are down sick.

We are glad to hear that Mr Reid who was dangerously ill is now convalescent.

We regret to learn of the death of Denis Ford, at his home in Casselton, Dak., where he had resided for the past nine years. Previous to that time he had been a resident of Ashfield for some 27 years. Deceased was well and favorably known, and had proved himself to be a man of earnest effort, sterling integrity and good neighborly qualities. He was a native of the parish of Listroy, county of Kerry, Ireland, came to Canada in 1848, and remained with his family in the township of Tuckersmith for a few years, after which he removed to Ashfield. He leaves a widow, six sons and four daughters, and a large number of other friends to mourn his loss.

PERSONAL.—Mrs J McIntosh, of Hul lat, was the guest of her brother, Jos Healy, last week.

Ja Linklater has erected a large shed 50 by 36 to store away his farming implements.

Master Albert Carter visited his cousins at Goderich township last week. The coming week will be marked by communion on Sunday, and a lecture on Monday evening in the church by Rev Mr Wilson, on "The Scottish Martyrs," and on Friday night the I. O. G. T. No 213, will hold a free entertainment in their hall, at which the Rev Mr Salton, of Goderich, will give the address.

The following are the officers for this current quarter of the I. O. G. T. No 213.—W C T, bro S B Williams; W S, bro A Gordon; W A S, sister Edith Horton, sister M A Clutton, W V T, sister A Cumming, I G, bro G Falgout, W S, bro W Green, W M, bro W Macmanus, W C, bro J Horton, W T. During this quarter the lodge will hold its annual supper, which will start its 13th year on a lodge.

The annual bee of cleaning and scrubbing out the church came off last week, a fair turnout of our busy women doing the church, and two Dunlop lassies, schoolroom, giving the stove such a polish that the caving bachelor who heated the water and carried it for the women could see his shadow in it. He astonished his benedict brethren by having a fire outside, and heating the water in a sugar kettle, thus keeping his fair friends in good humor, all afternoon. A cart and two teams kept 30 spades in rather fast motion leading earth, under the lead of Wm Green, while a number of others unloaded it under the shed and banked up the church, with D Sterling as supervisor. A load of wood belonging to the church was drawn by H McManus, and a load of manure by A C McDonald. All who took part were both old and young and content over the afternoon's work.

A pleasant gathering of the relatives of Mr and Mrs John Horton met at their residence on the 16th inst., to tender to them their hearty congratulations on their silver wedding and giving a number of presents. Both old and young spending a social time. The parting words that "we may all join in your golden wedding," was the hearty wish of all. In a residence of five years here both Mr and Mrs Horton have confirmed the words of the address presented to them by the Holmesville parish of St John, "active and earnest workers, ever ready to promote any project for the good of the church and Sabbath school work in our midst." We hope they will be spared to their family for many years.

For the Babies. It is not necessary to buy corn cures. Men and women should remember that Patman's Painless Corn Extractor is the only safe, sure, and painless corn remover extant. It does its work quickly and with certainty. See that the signature N. C. Polson & Co. appears on each bottle. Beware of poisonous imitations.
