

Officers and Business of N. P. A.

On Monday evening, August 29th, the Nfld. Postal Association arranged a formal dinner at the Hotel, electing their officers for the coming year, and planning much business to engage the attention of their Executive for some time to come. The officers elected for the coming year are:

President—Jordan Milley.
Vice-President—John H. Clarke.
Secretary—Fayson J. Kinsella.
Treasurer—Hubert R. Parsons.

Mr. George W. LeMessurier, the Deputy Minister of Posts, was unanimously elected Honorary President, and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mr. G. B. Lloyd, who had so ably presided over previous meetings, but who owing to much personal affairs on hand, was unable to accept the office of President, which he is so capable of filling.

The Nfld. Postal Association is banded together for mutual protection. Their aim is to look for just and equitable treatment by the authorities and peaceable and judicious measures will always be kept in view to the attainment of that treatment. In the past the Postal official has had a very just grievance in the perception of the small wage paid for services well and faithfully performed, and he feels that whereas other clerks in other paths of life perform duties helpful to many, he does work compatible with the interest of the public at large. The Postal clerks in union will form quite a unit of strength, and will after a little while realize the benefits that must accrue from amalgamation under the banner of the Newfoundland Postal Association.—SECRETARY.

Mr. Temple's
Valedictory.

(Twillingate Sun.)

It is with sincere regrets that I have to announce that this issue of the Sun will be the last under the management of the undersigned.

Life in Twillingate has been very pleasant with many compensations. The Sun has prospered under our management, and we have met many friends. Unfortunately, while man does not live by bread alone, bread is a very necessary concomitant to making life bearable, and while a livelihood is sure, one looks for more than that. Business seems to be so bad in this country that it takes a long time to collect accounts. Mails are so slow and unsatisfactory that it is absolutely impossible to do business as one would wish, and too irksome to be always handicapped.

People must remember that the main business of the SUN is done outside of Twillingate. Three quarters of our circulation is outside the town, most of our advertising, and the greater part of our job printing.

Twillingate itself has not supported the paper as it should. We have 350 subscribers in a town of nearly 4000 people! That is not good enough, and Twillingate has itself to blame—it blame there be—for my decision to look elsewhere for a living.

Twillingate business men go to St. John's for their printing, while with true simplicity I buy their goods.

There have been some friends whose support and encouragement have been all one could wish. To leave them is like tearing out one's heart. But they represent a comparatively small percentage of the total population.

Some others have been directly antagonistic and done all in their power to hamper, in spite of the fact that we have given evidence of our sincere desire to help the town.

However, that is neither here nor there. If the SUN is worth anything to Twillingate I hope that with this admonition in view it will—as a body—lend its support to my successor.

The Telephone and Fire Insurance schemes will, I know, progress under other management. The Hospital Scheme is now well under weigh and in another couple of weeks the Directors will be ready to make a move.

Pray that the public of Twillingate will help in every way to forward the success of the scheme to which they gave so willingly in the beginning. There are men bearing the burden freely without any financial returns for their valuable time spent night after night in the best interest of this project. A little more faith on the part of the public, a little more encouragement for these men and a little less carping criticism will do more to help the Hospital.

This Hospital business means more to Twillingate than the average man realizes. It means the main foundation around which this town will be eventually built, and a perpetual source of business and trade to the place in the days to come. Twillingate began its career—having put its hand to the plough—look back.

As to the SUN—if you want to keep it going show my successor a little more sympathy in deed than heretofore. Help him with news of your place, your section of the town. Don't wait for him to write your obituaries, your reports, and then criticize him because he has a figure wrong. He will be only too ready to help you if you help him. Back up your paper.

W. B. Temple.

The Copper Head
Fooled Him.

William Edmonds is in a critical condition, and his brother, Rev. Albert Edmonds is seriously ill from the bite of a snake, said to have been used in a religious service at a revival near Newry, Ala. Rev. Edmonds is said to have told his congregation that the "true believer" was impervious to the bite of reptiles, and invited non-believers to bring poisonous snakes to the service. A copperhead was captured and taken to the meeting. William Edmonds and the minister were bitten and immediately became ill. William Edmonds, doctors say, will die.

Obituary.

MISS LILIAN FRENCH.

There passed away at Harbor Grace yesterday, Lilian, only daughter of Mr. Robert French, sail maker of that town, and niece of Mr. John J. French of the Telegram printing staff. The deceased young lady was of a genial and happy disposition and was well liked by all who possessed her acquaintance. Death was due to a complication of diseases, but through it all the sufferer bore her afflictions cheerfully. The funeral takes place at Harbor Grace to-morrow. To the sorrowing relatives the Telegram extends sincere sympathy.

Valuable Tract of Timber Land.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Seward, of Glace Bay, have sold the timber rights of a large tract of woodland owned by them at Conception Bay, Newfoundland, to the Harnsworth Paper Co. for the sum of $50,000.

The area is made up of three hundred acres of heavily wooded land easily available for timbering operations and contains wood which the Newfoundland Company will use for the manufacture of red cedar used for the manufacture of paint, which the land contains. An English concern has offered to buy the cedar mining rights but it is understood that the Glace Bay owners wish to work the deposit on a percentage basis.—Bryn Bay Post.

Retaliation.

Spain and Portugal are retaliating on prohibition countries. Spain has already closed her frontiers against Norwegian goods and Portugal will take similar steps beginning this month. Both countries are large importers of fish from North America, and pulp, for silk and paper making, is another item in which our trade was growing.—Financial Post.
