"It's true that I acted for the Royal Bank; but before that I gave my services to the province FREE first."—R. B. Bennett, at the Conservative mass meeting Saturday.

Let us see how much of this is true.

FARM IMPLEMENT ACT

Says the Michener Statement is Absolutely

NNISFAIL, April 14-"That statement is absolutely untrue and Mr. Michener knows it. I denied it before and I repeat the denial now. Mr. Michener has documents in his possession proving what I say." Plainly and emphatically Premier Sifton last might again denied the statement being made by Mr. Michener, leader of the Conservative party, that the Edmonton, Dunvegan and B. C. railroad tapped timber limits owned by Theodore Burrows, a brother-in-law of Clifford Sifton, brother of the premier. Mr. Sifton had more than his mere words for his reply to the opposition leader. He exhibited a telegram received from Mr. Burrows a few days ago when the statement first began to be made in public. The exact wording of this telegram, sent from Winnipeg is as follows:

"I never was interested, directly or indirectly, in any timber north or west of the Athabasca river or in any timber tributary to McArthur's Peace River road or the Great Waterways railroad. I am a shareholder in the Phoenix Lumber company which owns some limits in township 57 and 58, ranges 3 and 4, west of the 5th; also in townships 59 and 60, ranges 7, 8 and 9, west of 5th. All the timber owned by this company is on the North Saskatchewan, on the Brazeau and Pembina and a small area on the Grand Trunk between Edson and Brule lake. I own no real estate in Alberta except three quarter sections near Wainwright. I own some shares in an operating mine in Lethbridge. Aside from these I have no interests of any kind in Alberta. (Signed) THEODORE A. BURROWS."

"That should answer the statement," continued the premier. "It is absolutely untrue that this road taps on those limits. As a matter of fact the nearest the Edmonton, Dunvegan and B. C. road, which is the McArthur road mentioned in the telegram, comes to those limits is 18 miles from the first one and 40 miles from the other one. The Canadian Northern comes closer to the limits than any other road. If Mr. Michener really wanted to know where the Edmonton, Dunvegan and B. C. road goes and what limits it taps he could easily get it by going to the land office where his friends are, but apparently he does not want correct information, preferring rather to

Let us see how much of this is true.

R. B. Bennett received the regular salary of a member of parliament.

He also received a subscription amounting to about $5,000, raised by the insurgents, and handed to him for his services in appearing before the royal commission.

Mr. Bennett did not therefore give his services FREE to the province, in any sense of the word.

Were The Albertan disposed to emulate the bad manners of Mr. R. B. Bennett on public platforms, this would be the time and the place to hurl back at him the echo of his "Anglo-Saxon" bellowings: "You are a liar! We call upon you to apologize to the citizens of Alberta for being a common liar!"

The Albertan prefers merely to call the attention of the public to the fact that when Mr. Bennett said he gave his services free to the province he was not adhering strictly to the truth.

There was, of course, no reason why Mr. Bennett should not accept the subscription raised by the insurgents. But there is no excuss for his going before an audience of 2,000 people and making absolutely false assertion on merely minor details.

Mr. Bennett seems quite incapable of telling the truth when he has a grandstand opportunity to advertise his patrictism. In other words, ha is no common liar!

A K. MacLean, of Hailfax, said had seen a report in certain Canedia papers to the effect that policane were brought on the floor of the hous of commons last Wednesday evening Mr. MacLean said he did not think. Mr. MacLean said he did not think, it would be ever necessary to have policemen present to maintrin order in the buse, and that to do so would be to bring the proceedings into disrepute. There was no teasion whatever for it. Premier Borden said he had neither sen the policemen nor the report containing them. No one on the government side of the house had anything to do with bringing them there. Speaker Sproule, who is responsible for the order of the house, said that there was no order given for policemen, but that occasionally one of the two or three who are regularly about the house takes charge of the chamber during dinner hour. He had given no order for policemen, and none were brought in.

The Naturalization Laws.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier quoted a despetch from Calgary regarding efforts being made on behalf of three brothers, Russians, who had taken homesteeds and were naturalized in Canada, but on teturning to Russia had been sent to siberia for life after being tried by burt martial on a charge of evasion of billitary duty. Sir Wilfrid said it raistiones again the question of the effect a naturalization in Canada. A seigner might become a British subject in Canada, but was not recognized a British subject outside of Canada. Premier Borden said he would have be department of justice look into the matter and see if something could not be done.

VILL MR BENNETT EXPLAIN ABOUT THAT TELEGRAM?

R. B. Bennett has not yet explained the forged telegram. Last week, while stumping in the Vermilion riding, he read at one of the meetings a telegram from Premier Sifton that, if elected for both Macleod and Vermilion he would abandon Vermilion and sit for Macleod.

That was intended to influence the Vermilion voters to reject the premier.

That was a forged telegram. That was a forged telegram Premier Sifton never sent it. He never authorized it. He has never stated for which riding he will sit.

THIS IS NOT A CONTEST BETWEEN PARTIES, is the assurance that the electors are receiving from the different leaders in all parts of the province. A provincial election does not always draw the party lines as tightly as a federal battle. Though I am convinced that the issue is much larger than any man in it, yet the merits of the men who are contesting the different seats must not be overlooked.

A COMPARISON OF THE DIFFERENT CANDIDATES in the contest in this city is not without certain difficulties. It is not the part of the newspaper or the speaker to touch upon the private life of candidates. That is sacred to themselves, Sometimes it is very difficult to distinguish between the public are without public experience, and for that reason it is difficult to decide upon the merits of this or that man.

IN THE FIRST PLACE, I may say that the task is made easier tion of this kind much that otherwise would be objectionable and difficult.
