BARKWELL'S BRONCHIAL BALSAM.

Dear Sir, --- I wish to testify of the merits of that grand preparation known as Barkwell's Vegetable Healing Bronchial Balsam. I was told by a neighbor what a grand Balsam it was. My little girl was very ill with bronchitis, and a very few doses restored her and I believe saved her life. I feel it my duty to let others know that they also can be cured of this terrible affection. MRS. MARGARET LOWTHER, Middlesex Law Association.

The Middlesex Law Association held their annual meeting yesterday, Mr. E. J. Parke, Q.C., vice-president, in the chair. The annual report of the trustees, which was adopted, showed a membership of 61; number of volumes in the library, 1,971—an increase of 72 in the year. The following were elected trustees: Messrs W. R. Meredith, Q.C.; E. Bayly, Q.C.; E. J. Parke, Q.C.; Jas. Magee, Q.C.; V. Cronyn; J. H. Flock, Q.C.; Charles Hutchinson; M. D. Fraser; George C. Gibbons, Q.C.; R. M. Meredith, A. O. Jeffery, and Talbot Macbeth. Mr. W. R. Meredith was re-elected president, Mr. E. J. Parke re-elected vice-president, Mr. A. O. Jeffery treasurer, and Mr. C. J. Jarvis secretary. The association's finances show a surplus from last year of $77 39, with no liabilities.

The Judge Asserts Himself.

While the Assize Court was in session this morning, four of the men of "D" Company, R. I. S. C., came in. Without removing their head gear they stalked up the room until a cry of "hats off" directed the attention of the crowded room to the offenders. One hat out of four was then rethe attention of the crowded room to the offenders. One hat out of four was then removed, and a constable stood barring the way of the obstinate ones, when the Sheriff rose from his seat. "Hats off there at once," bared another head. It was now the Judge's turn. "I have hear! of similar impertinence before and shall report these men to their commanding officer. Tell them to take their hats off and sit down quietly or I will commit them." Four sat-upon soldiers sank into a seat, hiding their diminishing heads.

Presentation to Wor. Bro. Davis.

Wor. Bro. Geo. C. Davis, I. P. M. of St.
John's Lodge, No. 209a, was made the recipient last night of an elegant past master's jewel and an illuminated address.
On behalf of the members Rt. Wor. Bro.
J. S. Dewar, after referring at some length to the sterling qualities of the worshipful brother and the ability with which he had pressed the claims of his lodge before the Crand Lodge at Owen Sound last year, prepressed the claims of his lodge before the Grand Lodge at Owen Sound last year, pre-sented him with the jewel and address. Bro. Davis made a happy reply, thanking the members for the tkind consideration shown him throughout his term of office. North Middlesox Farmers' Institute.

North Middleox Farmers' Institute.

A Lucan correspondent writes: A meeting of the North Middleox Farmers' Institute was held at Lucan on Tuesday. Mr. Taylor, reeve of McGillivray, presided. At the forenoon session Mr. C. Simmons, of lobo, introduced the subject of corn culture, in the discussion of which Mr. C. C. Hodgins, reeve of Biddulph, John Fox, Lucan, and Mr. Carter, of Granton, each took a part. At the afternoon meeting Mr. John Hannah, of Seaforth, vice-president of the Dairymen's Association, gave an address on dairying. He said it would bring relief to many farmers in straightened circumstances if they would adopt it. Mr. Smith, the president of the Fruit Growers' Association, gave an instructive lecture on fruit growing, dealing in an intelligent manner with the practical side of the question. Prof. Shaw took up the subject of cross breeding, going into the mysteries of breeding, viewed from a practical standpoint. He did not favor the crossing of two pure breeds for other than purely experimental purposes. At the evening meeting the hall was crowded to the doors. Quite a number of interesting addresses were delivered on various farm topics. The programme was varied with a concert of music, singing, recitations and readings. At the election of officers Mr. C. C. Hodgins was elected president, and Mr. I. Cobbledick, of Bid dulph, vice-president for the ensuing year. Mr. F. H. Neil, Lucan P. O., secretary-treasurer.

The spread of "La Grippe."

The many friends of Mr. J. H. Glass, of Stevens, Glass & Clarke, will regret to learn that his home-coming from his usual spring trip to the Pacific coast this season was not as pleasant as on former occasions, Mr. Glass arrived back as far as Winnipeg in his usual good health, but while in that city was stricken down with a most severe attack of influenza. He at once started for home, and with the greatest difficulty as a rived here a week ago. Since then he has seen seriously ill with bronchitis, and has suffered untold pain from an abscess forming under the right car. Dr. Arnott reports him to-day out of danger, but it will be some time before he can be at business.
